MANAGER FOR HARDING SAYS HE SPENT ONLY $1750 IN MISSOURI

H. M. Daugherty of Columbus, O., Says Things Worked Out Beautifully in the State and the Desired Results Were Obtained at the Convention.

GIVES COLE, WHO GOT $1250, CLEAN BILL

Other $500 Went to E. Mont Reily of Kansas City, Where He Could "Never Tell Whether We Were Winning or Losing."

By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

COLUMBUS, O., June 17.—Harry M. Daugherty, manager of the Harding campaign, told the Post-Dispatch correspondent today that the only Harding disbursements in Missouri were $1250 to W. L. Cole of Union, and $500 to E. Mont Reily of Kansas City.

"Here's how it all came about," said Daugherty. "My plan was to use Missouri as a key to unlock the West. We knew the East would be satisfied with Harding and we wanted some Western Progressive support. I had Cole and some Missouri Republicans. I don't recall their names, but Judge Hukriede was one of them—met me in Washington in December. They said they felt friendly toward Harding. I said I hoped they would interest themselves in his candidacy, and I took them to meet Harding.

"In January I went out to St. Louis and talked with Cole and Jake Babler. They said they liked Harding, but made no promise to support him. Babler, I could see, was for Lowden, but I think Cole has always been more for Harding. They didn't ask me for any money.

Conversation With Cole.

"I said to Cole I don't know of anybody I'd rather trust than you. I wish would would get some men to dodge around over the State and see where we can get some delegates. I'll give you a check for $1000 to cover expenses. Cole agreed and I wrote a check for $250 more than the $1000 to pay the expenses of his investigation. He wrote me from time to time, but it was evident that the men in control out there were for Lowden and that Cole wasn't forceful enough to change the situation, so we decided not to make a fight except in the Kansas City district where, to tell the truth, I never could tell whether we were winning or losing.

"The money paid Reily was for Western headquarters expense, for publicity and some trips that Reily made in the West.

"Things worked out beautifully for us in Missouri, the work done for Lowden helped to kill off Wood and when Lowden was eliminated, where could the Missouri delegates go except to Harding? I figured it would turn out that way, and it did. Not a nickel was sent to Missouri aside from the items named. Not a promise was made to any Missouri delegate or any other citizen of Missouri. Cole's part in this affair is clean as a hound's tooth."

Daugherty was asked whether Cole had returned any of the $1250.

Will Gladly Pay Cole.

"No," he said, "and if he offers to pay back the money I will certainly insist on his keeping enough to cover all of his expenses, and if his expenses were more than $1250 I will gladly pay the difference."

Explaining the Harding strategy at the convention, Daugherty said the idea was first to put Wood out of the running and to that end Harding votes were "loaned" to Lowden until the latter showed a plurality over Wood. Lowden was then to be slaughtered by swinging Harding delegates the other way. All the while the Harding vote was to pile up steadily, so that each ballot would show a gain. From his pocket Daugherty pulled a prize memento of the concvention—a typewritten slip showing what was expected of each of several states. Missouri was down to deliver two Harding votes on the first ballot, three on the second, four on the third, four on the fourth and "all you can get" on the fifth. The fifth ballot instruction was the same in all cases.

Each Harding floor leader had a copy of the battle orders and transmitted them to the Harding men in the variaus delegations. The plan was well executed. Lowden and Wood were whipsawed against each other; Harding gained gradually; finally the break came and he was nominated.

SPECIAL PROSECUTORS IN LIQUOR CASES DISMISSED

Palmer Notifies District Attorney That Department Has No Money to Pay Them With.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 17.—District Attorney Clyne today announced receipt of orders from Attorney-General Palmer to discharge all special assistants employed to prosecute liquor cases. Failure of Congress to appropriate $300,000 for the work was given as the cause.

Maj. Dalrymple's department, which gathers evidence and arrests offenders, is not affected. About 1000 cases are now pending here, and at least 10 prosecutors are needed, according to Clyne.

GEN. GORGAS DANGEROUSLY ILL

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 17.—The condition of Major-General William M. Gorgas, former Surgeon-General of the United States Army, is much more serious than his friends heretofore have been willing to admit, it was learned today.

It was reported that three or four days ago hope for the General's recovery was abandoned, but he rallied. While there has been some improvement, however, he is still dangerously ill.

EXAMINATION FOR FIRST NEGRO FIRE COMPANY ON JULY 6

Eight Men to Be Chosen for Force and Will Serve Under White Officers.

An examination for the first negro company of the St. Louis Fire Department, which it is proposed to establish in the near future, will be held July 6 in Room 348 of the Municipal Courts building.

Eight negroes will be chosen for the company and candidates must have their applications on file with the Efficiency Board by July 3. They must be able to pass a physical and mental test and be between 21 and 35 years old. They will receive the regular pay of $140 monthly and will be officered by white members of the department.

Director of Public Safety McKelvey said that Chicago, Omaha and Kansas City already had negro fire companies.

STATE DRUGGISTS DECLARE AGAINST DISPENSING LIQUOR

Resolution Introduced by F. H. Swift Says Whisky Should Be Distributed by Government.

Frederick H. Swift, president of the Swift Drug Co., 3862 Olive street, today gave out the text of a resolution which he said was introduced by him and unanimously indorsed by the convention of the Missouri State Pharmaceutical Association at Excelsior Springs last week. The resolution was as follows:

"Believing that the Government committed a tactical error in 'wishing' the liquor business upon the retail druggist, we do, therefore, resolve, in the interest of law enforcement and that the high standard of pharmacy may be preserved untarnished, to politely but very firmly decline the 'honor,' standing pat on the proposition that liquor should be distributed through dispensaries owned, operated and controlled by the Government."

SUPREME COURT WRIT SOUGHT IN SUIT AGAINST MIX

Rug Dealer Alleges Political Influence Has Taken Precedence Over Justice in State Courts in St. Louis.

ACTION DIRECTED AGAINST GOLDSTEIN

Alexander H. Asadorian, a rug dealer, at 4320 Olive street, who, for three months, has been endeavoring to obtain a trial of a $37,500 personal damage suit against Police Judge George E. Mix, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge, has prepared for filing in the Missouri Supreme Court in Jefferson City next Monday a petition in which he alleges that political manipulation and political influence have taken precedence over justice in the State courts here, and that his rights are being infringed upon.

He asks of the Supreme Court an order of mandamus to compel Circuit Clerk Goldstein, a member of the Republican City Committee, to call an election by lawyers to choose a special judge to try the case, and an order to compel Circuit Judges Falkenhainer and Kimmel to transfer the case to a judge for trial, and to make such orders as are necessary to obtain a speedy trial.

In accordance with the rules of the Supreme Court copies of the petition have been served upon Goldstein, Falkenhainer and Kimmel, the rules requiring five days' notice before the filing of such a mandamus suit.

Origin of Damage Suit.

Asadorian's suit against Mix grew out of the trial of a lawsuit in which Asadorian was a plaintiff and Mix was attorney for the defendant. Asadorian alleged that at the taking of his deposition Mix assaulted him and struck him, injuring him severely.

With William T. Rutherford as his attorney, Asadorian filed suit against Mix Nov. 10, 1917. Rutherford retired, and Randolph Laughlin entered the case as Asadorian's attorney March 9 last, and immediately began attempt to get the case set for trial.

In his petition to the Supreme Court Laughlin sets out a long series of delays in Judge Kimmel's court, to which the case was sent. These delays, he said, were vexatious and were for the purpose of preventing the case from coming to trial before the August primary, in which Mix is a candidate for the nomination for Judge.

After Laughlin entered the case, the petition asserts, Edward W. Foristel, a member of the Republican State Committee, entered the case as attorney for Mix. After many delays, it is alleged, the following took place:

"Thereupon the defendant Kimmel announced he was a candidate for the nomination to the office of Circuit Judge, subject to the Republican primary to be held in August; that the defendant Mix was a candidate for the same office; that he had observed reporters in the courtroom, and that it had been brought to his attention that the publication of the evidence to be taken in said cause would seriously and substantially prejudice the chance of the defendant Mix at the primary election; that for this reason he did not think the case ought to be tried until after the primary election, but that in any event he himself would not try it until after such election.

Protested to Kimmel.

"Your relator, by his counsel, protested to Judge Kimmel, with all the vigor at his command, that the sacred majesty of Missouri justice should not be prostituted to the exigencies of a party primary, or to the desires of any candidate or politician, or to any political consideration whatsoever."

The petition sets out that Laughlin canvassed nearly all the Judges who were sitting in equity divisions of the court, but, aside from one or two whom he did not find, all had excuses for refusing to trying the case.

It sets out the request upon Goldstein, through his chief clerk, Adolph Troll, for the calling of an election for a special Judge, but that the call was refused in the absence of a court order, which Judges Kimmel and Falkenhainer refused to make.

"Your relator's cause is being prejudiced beyond expression by his inability to get a trial," the petition states. "The Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis is made an arena wherein the politician may cry 'police verso' and obtain a hearing, but the unsponsored litigant may cry for justice to deaf ears.

St. Joseph Banker Announces Construction of Homes for Newly Married.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 17.—Walter P. Fulkerson, president of the Bank of Buchanan County, St. Joseph, has begun the building of a number of houses in one of the city's most desirable residence districts, for rent to families in which there are children.

Newly-married couples also will be permitted to occupy the houses, with the provision that, if there are no children in their families at the end of year's tenancy, they shall be asked to vacate. Whenever a child is born in one of the houses, Fulkerson promises, the amount of the rental for the month will be returned to the tenant.

"I am doing this because of my love for children, and because I consider it a great wrong for landlords to place a premium upon childlessness," said Fulkerson. "I want to see just as many children in my houses as can get into them, the younger the better."

Fulkerson is a member of the School Board, and is the father of two children, a son and a daughter.

LOWDEN CONSIDERS ENTERING RACE FOR U. S. SENATORSHIP

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—That Gov. Lowden will run for the United States senatorship and Edward Shurtleff of Marengo for the governorship if a suitable agreement can be reached was an opinion expressed at the State House today. Gov. Lowden will likely issue a statement late today announcing his political intentions, it was said.

While none can say what the Governor has decided on, it has leaked out that he has been considering the senatorship with Shurtleff in on the combination as a candidate for Governor. Shurtleff had previously been mentioned as a senatorial possibility, but undoubtedly would agree to the governorship if the deal can be swung.

Senator Sherman of Springfield was closeted for two hours with the Governor today. Len Small had his session yesterday, as did Andrew Russell and Shurtleff. Frank Smith of Dwight has not yet been called into conference, but may appear late today.

PLASTERERS CALL OFF MEN WORKING ON ZOO BEAR PIT

Increase From $7 to $11 a Day Demanded for Placing of Rock Molds, Just Completed.

Five men who had been working for several months as casters of molds for the artificial rock work of the new bear pit in the Forest Park Zoo were called off the job yesterday by a business agent for the plasterers' union.

The men have been receiving $7 a day. The casts are now completed and are to be put in place. The business agent informed the Zoo Board that the work of placing the casts must be classified as plastering and that the men doing this work must receive $11 a day.

Carpenters on the same job have notified the city that they will quit work July 1 unless their pay is increased from $8 to $10 a day. It was originally estimated that the bear pits would cost $50,000. The increased price of material and the wage demands now indicate they will cost $85,000.

CAMP GRANT SOLDIER FOUND DEAD, BULLET WOUND IN HEAD

Authorities Believe He Killed Self but Do Not Connect Death With Moss Killing.

By the Associated Press.

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 17.—Private Cecil Towers, Company D, Seventy-eighth Field Artillery, was found dead in a pavilion in Loves Park, near this city, today, with a bullet wound in his head. An army pistol was near his body. Authorities believe Towers ended his life but that his death has no connection with the case of Mrs. Maude Lucille Moss, who was killed by a shot from ambush at Camp Grant Tuesday night.

Private George C. Peters is being sought by camp authorities, suspected of having knowledge of the killing of Mrs. Moss.

Peters is one of five prisoners who escaped Tuesday afternoon, and is said to have threatened to get even with Capt. Moss, his commander, for having made charges against him at a court-martial.

The body of Mrs. Moss will be taken to the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. Bion J. Arnold, in Chicago, and the funeral held today.

SEAPLANES CRASH OVER GULF

By the Associated Press.

PENSACOLA, Fla., June 17.—Two seaplanes crashed together in midair here today and fell more than 500 feet into the Gulf. According to the report to the naval station, William B. Livingston, chief electrician, was killed and his body was not recovered.

The other machine was piloted by Lieut. John Fransworth, who was not fatally hurt.

MISSING AUTO MAN VANISHED IN 1913 AFTER TAXI DEATH

As 'Arthur Raymond,' Frank A. Martin Was Indicted Then for Manslaughter in Godair Accident.

RAISED $200,000 ON $300,000 BUSINESS

Man in Charge of His Truck Business Says $50,000 of This Was Obtained on Rehypothecations.

Inquiry by the Post-Dispatch today disclosed that the disappearance last June 6 of Frank A. Martin, 31 years old, president of the Martin Motor Truck Co., 2800 Pine street, was his second disappearance from this city. His first disappearance followed his indictment on a charge of manslaughter April 4, 1913, in connection with the death of Arthur G. Godair, 4917 McPherson avenue, a wealthy livestock dealer, when a taxicab driven by Martin and occupied by Godair was struck by an Olive-Maryland car at Boyle and McPherson avenues.

Martin, at that time, was known as Arthur Raymond, and was employed by his uncle, Paul Bertrand, owner of the Star Auto and Livery Co., 4237 Delmar boulevard.

When the rise of "Frank A. Martin" in the St. Louis automobile market began to be noted, former associates recognized Martin as Arthur Raymond, who, during his stay here previous to the killing of Godair, they had known as "The Little Frog," because of his French origin.

Raised $200,000 in Six Weeks.

"Martin's" rise was meteoric, and at the time of his disappearance early this month he was able to raise approximately $200,000 here in six weeks on a business now valued at $300,000. However, Maj. E. M. Lubbeck, a representative of a truck company for which "Martin" was local agent, stated to the Post-Dispatch reporter today that approximately $50,000 of the $200,000 raised by "Martin" was on spurious paper, consisting of rehypothecation of motor trucks already hypothecated. Lubbeck, as has been told, has been placed in charge of the Martin Co., in an effort to get as much return for the creditors as possible.

As is known, "Martin" is also treasurer of the Missouri Motorbus Co., which operates the bus line running between Sixth and Locust streets and Delmar boulevard and Hamilton avenue.

"Martin's" metamorphosis in St. Louis from Arthur Raymond, a chauffeur, to "Frank A. Martin," third largest distributor in the United States of one motor truck and fourth largest distributor of another, can now be quite closely traced.

His career as Arthur Raymond was related to a Post-Dispatch reporter today by a man allied with the automobile industry. "Raymond came to St. Louis early in 1913 from Canada," he said. "He was employed by Bertrand, whose wife was an aunt of Raymond. His elder brother, Clement, already had been in the employ of Bertrand for about a year. (Clement Raymond is treasurer of the Martin Motor Truck Co. and is still on duty there.) Arthur had a pronounced French accent and among the chauffeurs he became known as 'The Little Frog.'

Made Few Trips as Driver.

"Arthur did not know a hub cup from a differential, but the chauffeurs liked him and helped him whenever they could. He was not relied on as a regular driver. He had more of a head for business than for learning driving skill. As I remember, he made only a few trips as a driver. Shortly after he came to the company he disappeared and for a time there was a rumor that he was being looked for by the police."

This coincides with the date of the death of Godair. The police records show that Raymond at the Coroner's inquest stated that he was driving about 16 miles an hour when he noted the approach of the street car to Boyle and McPherson avenues from the north. He was driving west in McPherson, he said, and reckoned that he could not stop in time to avoid the car, so increased his speed, thinking to cross ahead of the street car. His automobile was struck in the rear and Godair thrown to the street. Godair's skull was fractured and his neck broken. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of criminal carelessness.

Raymond furnished bond, but the bond was released before the grand jury indictment. When police went to seek him under the indictment they were told that he had left the city. The indictment is still pending.

Raymond went to Herrin, Ill., and there gave his first exhibition of "taking a chance." It appears that his proclivity to "take a chance" brought his undoing as it had started him. He was employed in Herrin

DENTIST 'TARRED AND LEAVED' AND MOLASSES POURED IN SHOES

Swears Out Assault Warrants Against Nine High School Fraternity Members.

By the Associated Press.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., June 17.—Warrants charging assault and battery were issued today for nine members of the Beta Sigma Fraternity of the West Orange High School, as a result of allegations of Dr. Howard Applegate, a dentist of this city, that he was "tarred and leaved" in the woods near here Tuesday night during his "initiation."

Dr. Applegate declared he was blindfolded, stripped, his body greased, tarred and covered with leaves; that he was beaten in the face, that molasses was poured into his shoes, and he was threatened with stoning if he moved. He said he remained in the woods for three hours and then made his way to a pharmacy here.

William Kilch, one of the defendants, denied that Dr. Applegate was "tarred and leaved." "The whole thing seems like more or less of a joke," he said. "Dr. Applegate was not dealt with any more severely than any of the other members who previously were initiated."

FRENCH WAR BRIDES HERE DEMAND BOOKS IN OWN TONGUE

Returned Overseas Men Also Increase Call for Foreign Literature in Public Library.

The appearance of the French war bride in St. Louis has increased the issue of books in French at the Public Library, according to the annual report of Dr. Arthur E. Bostwick, librarian, which says:

"The French war bride knows little or no English, and the preliminary negotiations are, as a rule, carried on through the kind offices of her American mother-in-law. Her coming has somewhat increased the issue of books in French, as has also the desire of the returned soldier to add to the vocabulary acquired during the war."

The library at present contains 578,945 volumes, including 88,310 unaccessioned books, mostly duplicates. The gain over the previous year was 36,036 volumes. The number of registered users of books last year was 113,370, an increase of 3620 over the previous year. The circulation for home use during the year totaled 2,010,927 volumes, an increase of 194,082 over the previous year. Books deposited in schools numbered 226,530.

TAFT-MANNING WEDDING TO TAKE PLACE JULY 15

Daughter of Former President to Be Married at Murray Bay, Canada.

By the Associated Press.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 17.—Announcement from the family today was that the marriage of Miss Helen Taft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Taft, to Frederick J. Manning, will take place at Murray Bay, Canada, July 15.

MOTOR VEHICLES FOR GUARD

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Orders were issued today by the War Department setting aside more than 6000 motor vehicles for the National Guard. Distribution of the equipment will be supervised by the Motor Transport Corps on approval of the Militia Bureau. It includes 324 automobiles, 4652 trucks of various sizes, 48 "tank" trucks, 1952 motor cycles, 1280 bicycles and 1060 trailers.

KIDNAPED CHILD'S PARENTS SWINDLED OUT OF $12,000

Case Again Put in Hands of Police When Baby Is Not Returned After Ransom Is Paid.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—State troopers, police and private detectives are running down what is considered a definite clew pointing to the identity of "The Crank," the man who swindled George H. Coughlin of Norristown, a suburb of this city, out of $12,000 on pretense that he would return his kidnaped son for that amount. With what is regarded as proof that the only letters demanding ransom which had an authetic touch were nothing but a "plant" to swindle the parents, the case now takes on a more mysterious aspect than ever, and fear is growing that Blakeley, the boy, will not be recovered alive.

The boy, 13 months old, was stolen from his crib in the Coughlin home two weeks ago yesterday, at 2 o'clock in the morning. Entrance to the nursery was gained by placing a ladder against the house under a nursery window.

Chief Charles Eiler of the Norristown police worked on the case all night. He has a definite clew as to the identity of the swindler and is working it out. "The Crank" had an uncanny knowledge of the interior of the nursery room and the habits of the Coughlin family and showed his knowledge in the letters demanding ransom. Although he refused to send the baby's garments or a picture of Blakeley, as demanded by the father, his knowledge was so great that the father decided to treat with him. The $12,000 was placed beneath a trolley station, about eight miles from Norristown, at 11:32 o'clock Monday night. The station is thought to be at Gulps Mills, but Coughlin won't tell. The baby was to be returned within 24 hours.

Believes Revenge Was Motive.

Chief Eiler learned of the plan and wanted to disguise himself as a track-walker and try to capture "The Crank," but the father refused to give permission. After the baby was not produced, however, he appealed to the police again, and yesterday they took up the investigation again. Chief Eiler believes the baby was kidnaped for revenge.

Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin are nearly prostrated by the latest development in the case. The $12,000 loss is secondary to the continued absence of their baby.

"Monday morning, following the receipt of the sixth and last letter from the crank," said Coughlin, "we decided that we would deal with him. His final letter said positively that he would not furnish the proofs for which we had asked. He said that he was through with furnishing information and that unless we accepted his terms, we would hear no more from him."

"When it reached that point, we felt that we could never forgive ourselves if we let the chance to get our baby back slip by, so we put the notice in the newspapers that we were ready to deal with the kidnapers. The statement was published in the afternoon papers on Monday.

Called Him on Telephone.

"At 10:30 o'clock that night he called me on the telephone and identified himself as "The Crank." It was the same voice which has called me a few nights before. He explained that he had seen the notice in the papers and directed me to place the money at the spot he had designated before, by 12 o'clock that night. I asked him if he had any objection if I brought someone with me, not a police officer, and he said, 'No.' I assured him that I would not inform the police. I then asked him how the baby was to be returned, and he said that we would receive him before 3 o'clock next Tuesday in a taxicab. I didn't think much of the plan then, and I think less of it now."

"Accompanied by this friend, I took an automobile and went to the spot which he had selected. It was a very fine place, not one which I would have picked myself, but admirably suited for the purpose.

WOMAN WHO HURRIED TO RECOVER LINGERIE ENTERS ELWELL CASE

Housekeeper Admits "Dark, Handsome Girl, About 24," Called for Garments Soon After Shooting.

SAYS SHE HID THEM TO SHIELD HER

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Mrs. Marie Larsen, housekeeper for Joseph Browne Elwell, who found her employer dying last Friday morning in the reception room of his home, 244 West Seventieth street, with a bullet hole in his head, has supplied Assistan District Attorney Dooling with intimate details iwth respect to the young woman whose pink silk boudoir cap and kimono hung in a closet in Elwell's bedroom.

Important developments are expected today in the investigation into the murder, Deputy District Attorney John E. Joyce declared following an all-night conference with detectives. Joyce would not disclose the basis for this prediction, other than that "detectives have been sent to places out of town besides Kentucky."

Efforts are beng made to communicate with William H. Pendleton, said to be Elwell's closest friend, who lives in a suburb. It was learned during the investigation last night that a telephone connection had been made between Elwell's home and that of his friend early on the morning of the murder.

Mrs. Larsen also admitted that before she had notified the police of the murder of her employer she had taken the precaution to hide the boudoir cap, the kimono and a pair of pink silk bedroom slippers because she "didn't want anybody to get into trouble."

She told Dooling that a young woman whom she knew as the owner of the boudoir cap, kimono and slippers had called at the Elwell home just after the gambler had been taken to the hospital. With this information, the police say, the young woman's identity has been definitely estabilished.

"About 24 and Apparently a Lady."

Mrs. Larsen admitted to Dooling she had seen this young woman in Elwell's home not more than two weeks previous, and that before that she had been an occasional caller. She did not say at what hour the young woman generally called, nor how long she remained. She described her as being about 23 or 24, hair "medium dark," figure rather short and plump, well dressed and apparently "refined and a lady."

She told of another young woman who lunched alone with Elwell in his home the Tuesday before the shooting, saying this woman, though also "short and plump," was darker haired than the lady of the lingerie, and so far as she knew had been alone with Elwell only once. During this visit, she said, Elwell and his guest were in the best of spirits until he put the visitor into a taxi about 2:30 in the afternoon.

For the first time it was brought out through questioning Mrs. Larsen that William H. Pendleton had, at least upon one occasion, entered Elwell's home with the owner's permission at 2 a. m. No significance was attached to the visit by Mrs. Larsen. When asked if she knew Pendleton or had ever seen him with Elwell, Mrs. Larsen said:

"Yes, on one occasion—it was sometime before last Christmas—Mr. Elwell went away and asked me to put the key to the front door in the vestibule under the mat, so that Mr. Pendleton, who was coming, would find it there. I put the key where he told me to and that morning at about 2 o'clock—I had to stay there later than usual—Mr. Pendleton came in alone."

"How long have the cap, kimono and slippers been in Mr. Elwell's home?" Dooling asked.

Lingerie Taken Out Once.

"Ever since I went to work for him on Oct. 5 last. Since then they were taken out once to be cleaned. I presume the young lady took them out."

"Now, Mrs. Larsen," continued Dooling, "tell me why you hid that cap and kimono and the slippers. You wanted to protect the young woman, didn't you?"

"Why," Mrs. Larsen hesitated, "of MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 17.—Republicans here are asking many pertinent questions about the Chicago convention. Was Harding the best the convention could pick? How much did Penrose have to do with it? Why wasn't Lenroot named Vice President, and is Harding a conservative who does his own thinking, or is he a conservative who takes advice from others?

The younger element in the Republican party is plainly disappointed, and, as one Republican editor expressed it, much explaining will have to be done. But he felt they would understand as soon as they were given a comprehensive story of the true situation at Chicago; how an agreement on a dark horse was the only way out of the deadlock.

Some Minnesota men are frankly prejudiced against Harding. They admit they have much to learn about the personality of the man and are willing to be convinced, yet one who was at the Chicago convention said he didn't like the way Harding went around in the early hours of Saturday morning last and electioneered for himself among his senatorial friends who had influence with different delegations. Still that may be senatorial license.

This part of the country seems to be prepared for an old-fashioned campaign, but some Republicans of the younger and more progressive type hope it will not be too old-fashioned, with too much of an appeal to the conservative forces in our social system, lest the Northwest be driven to a more liberal candidate elsewhere.

Partisan Feeling Acuate.

But the most interesting thing about the Harding candidacy is that however much it is disliked, the moment one mentions the possibility of supporting the Democratic ticket there is a shudder of disdain among these Republicans which shows that partisan feeling is rather acute hereabouts. Many are already committed to Harding without even knowing whom the Democrats will select at San Francisco and what the platform will be. There is an expectation that the Democratic platform will be much more liberal than that framed by the Republicans, but the reaction against the Wilson administration has, unfortunately for the Democrats, precluded in many cases even the possibility of weighing the respective candidates and their platforms impartially. There is mostly an impatience to have a change, and the thought of perpetuating the Wilson administration is sufficient to turn luke-warm Republicans to Harding.

Inside the Democratic camp, particularly among the progressive elements, the Republican platform and candidate are viewed as a reactionary combination that cannot prevail. Minnesota Democrats will go to San Francisco with militant step and enthusiastic expectations of outdoing their Republican rivals. Yet the delegation from Minnesota will, under the unit rule, be voted for a conservative like Attorney-General Palmer.

Bryan Popular With Farmers.

Brother Bryan is immensely popular in these parts, particularly with the farmer, a circumstance that has made more than one Democrat ask whether Edward T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture, business man and farmers' man, who happens to have the indorsement of Mr. Bryan and the Iowa delegation, wouldn't be a good man to head the ticket. Meredith is really worth watching. A ticket like Cox of Ohio and Meredith of Iowa would not be unacceptable to many Democrats, though McAdoo is much better known and is supposed to have accumulated more elements of political strength, particularly with labor, than any other candidate.

"Wilson Dynasty" Against McAdoo.

The fact that McAdoo is the son-in-law of President Wilson is again and again cited as an obstacle to his candidacy, though the cry of a Wilson "dynasty" is not so much based upon the family relationship of Mr. McAdoo and Wilson, but upon the apprehension that Wilson policies will be McAdoo policies and that to all intents and purposes the vote will be for a third term of Wilson. There is too much disaffection among Democrats to ignore this sentiment. Indeed, it is the fundamental reason for the growth of the Cox boom.

The Ohio Governor has not been a part of the Wilson administration, even though he must naturally say he approves of the Wilson administration in order to catch the support of the Wilson followers. Gov. Cox has not only carried Ohio during the period when Harding was active in Ohio politics but he is a trifle moist on the prohibition question. This should win him the support of such wet delegations as New York and New Jersey and he should absorb the western strength of Gov. Edwards, as in Michigan and Nebraska.

Meredith and McAdoo Dry.

But Edward Meredith is a dry and so is McAdoo. The only chance for Gov. Cox to be on a ticket with Meredith and earn the approval of Bryan is to say the prohibition amendment is now the law of the land and it is not the business of the future chief executive, but of the Congress to declare how much alcohol can be used in light wines and beer. That is the attitude of Vice President Marshall, who, by the way, has many friends in this section of the country.

Far from considering him in the light vein that he was discussed two and three years ago, the speeches made by the Vice President in the last year have won him many admirers, particularly among the conservatives. If this be a year of conservatism, the analogy of Harding might be Thomas Marshall of Indiana or John W. Davis of West Virginia, at present American Ambassador to Great Britain.

But the Northwest isn't expecting ultra-conservatism from the Democratic party this year. It is expecting a liberal, almost socialistic platform from the Democrats, and there would be surprise, indeed, if McAdoo isn't the nominee.

GOV. COX SAYS FIGHT TO PUT "SENATE OLIGARCHY" DOWN WILL BE BIG ELECTION ISSUE

COLUMBUS, O., June 17.—One paramount issue of the November election, according to Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, is whether the country shall continue under the domination of a "senatorial oligarchy." In giving his views to the correspondent, the Governor put it this way:

"While the Democratic platform has not been drawn in the main we know how the issues will be made up. But, regardless of the events of the very recent past out of which an issue will come, an entirely new phase has been developed.

"The people will hear very much on the subject of the senatorial oligarchy. Public opinion in the United States for the last five years has been ripe for a discussion of the proposal of setting back the Senate to its constitutional status. It has violated constitutional limitations in making tariff laws. It has intimidated the House because it has the final power of approval on public officers in whom members of the lower branch are interested. In the Senate campaign fund investigation it very adroitly put out of the running the two leading candidates who were outside the senatorial ring. Now it has nominated one of its own number for the presidency—a very agreeable gentleman of fine integrity, but still a member of the Senate oligarchy."

Cox Genial and Likable.

Gov. Cox's views are pertinent at this time because he is to all appearances, one of the leading candidates for the Democratic nomination. A word, first, about Cox himself. Like Harding, he is genial and likable; on that score it will be a standoff between the two if Cox wins at San Francisco. Both are newspaper editors—another draw. There the parallel ends.

Cox served two terms as a representative in Congress and is now in his third term as Governor. At the last election in 1918, he ran 75,000 votes ahead of the congressional ticket, and was the only Democratic State officer elected. Among the outstanding achievements of his administration have been the passage of a workmen's compensation law, which has been accepted as a model by other states, and adoption of a State budget system, preceding that of Illinois.

He is a good orator, a keen fisherman and knows the batting averages of the Reds by heart. His friends call him Jimmy Cox.

Seated at his desk in the State House at 5:30 yesterday afternoon he talked to the interviewer, kept a couple of secretaries running back and forth and answered a telephone call every few minutes. He is clean shaven and has blue eyes; looks, in fact, as any one named "Jimmy" ought to look. As he talked, a forelock persisted in falling down over his forehead. He seemed to be spoiling for a fight with the "senatorial oligarchy."

Cox's League Platform Plank.

This is the sort of League of Nations plank that Cox said he would write into the Democratic platform.

"In order to bring the war legally to an end and re-establish the affairs of the world's civilization, we will make every effort to reconcile the differences in the Senate, but will make no compromise with principle."

He would add, he said, an affirmation of the Democratic party's full belief in the principle of self determination.

That seems to squint at an Irish plank. Would Cox have a specific mention of Ireland in the platform?

He would, in this wise: "The League of Nations would give the Irish a court of appeal to the conscience of the world, whereas they have never had an appeal even to a squire's court."

"The Democratic platform," he said, "cannot deny to any race their right to hold the emotions that stirred the founders of the republic."

What of prohibition? "Personally," said Cox, "I see no more use in mentioning it than slavery. The mandate has been issued and is binding until changed by charter or statute. We have the institutions which give the people every facility to change what they don't like. The only way to demonstrate the wisdom or futility of a law is to enforce it. The public officer who does not respect the law by its enforcement is worse than the man who violates it."

Urges Americanization Program.

Declaring for a program of Americanization of aliens, Cox said: "Public opinion settles industrial controversies, but you can't expect men to be influenced by public opinion if they can't speak our own language. If government is to hold its influence, government must show interest in human welfare."

Cox's Ohio friends believe that his chance of getting the Democratic nomination has been greatly improved by the Republican selection of Harding.

Three train loads of them will go to San Francisco to proclaim that Cox is the one man who can be relied upon to carry Ohio. Cox, they say, led the fight for the progressive Constitution of Ohio adopted in 1912, while Harding opposed it. Cox they describe as an exponent of the new day, Harding the old. Pointing to the anti-Harding sentiment in the cities as shown by the victory of Wood in five out of the eight in the State primary, they assert that Cox would carry every industrial center.

"Marse Henry" Watterson wired to Cox yesterday that Harding's nomination made Cox "the inevitable and indispensable" choice of the Democrats.

"We are not afraid," said Harry M. Daugherty, the Harding manager, "Harding will carry Ohio against Cox or anybody else."

"AMERICA SAFE, SANE, SOBER," HAY'S PLATFORM IN BRIEF

Charles M. Hay, candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, today announced his "platform in brief," and a committee of 66 persons which will assist him in his campaign. Benjamin A. Wood, a lawyer in the Rialto Building, is chairman of the committee, and Fred A. Reid, an insurance agent, is manager.

The Hay platform is: "I'm for America, safe, sane and sober; kept safe through a league of nations, maintaining peace and security for all by arbitration and disarmament; kept sane by holding fast to our democracy as the golden mean between autocracy and anarchy; kept sober by preserving the integrity of the eighteenth amendment without repeal, nullification or evasion."

for instance, how did A. T. Hert of Kentucky, the Lowden floor leader, feel?" Daugherty was asked.

"Played Game Fairly."

"The Republican party has a candidate for whom every Republican can vote," said Daugherty. "We played the game fairly, and indulged in no villification. Disaffection, if any exists, will disappear by November. As for Hert, he's with us, of course. Didn't we loan him votes for his candidate?"

Daughterty said he felt like a big brother to Warren G. Harding, whom he had known intimately and admired for years.

"Harding didn't want to run for the presidency," he went on; "friends were urging him to run, Republican newspapers of Ohio were coming out for him, but he held back. At 2 o'clock one morning in December he was in my library in Columbus. I persuaded him that if he didn't come forward and give Ohio a Republican candidate for the presidency, it would be as if Ohio had seceded from the Union. "Well," he finally said, 'we'll go into the big game.'

"I like to help people," said Daugherty, "it's a fad of mine. To help a man like Warren G. Harding is better than sitting in a New York office and making a million dollars. Harding is a man of wonderful endurance, a great thinker, a quick and careful reader, as honest as Lincoln. The only trouble with Harding is that he thinks everybody is as honest as he is.

"I've learned one thing in this campaign," said Daugherty. "I've learned that if a bunch of men will work harmoniously together and keep their heads, and stay everlastingly at it, they can accomplish anything in the world that Providence will permit to happen."

"It is confidentially asserted in well-informed quarters of London that, after listening to the protests which the Turkish Grand Vizier will make on his arrival in Paris, the Supreme Council will withdraw the Turkish draft treaty."

LABOR INDORSES RAIL OWNERSHIP BY GOVERNMENT

American Federation Convention Takes Action After Bitter Fight—"Democratic Operation" Proposed.

FRANK MORRISON SUPPORTS PLANS

Declares Rail Workers Are Exercising Right of Self Determination — Mine Workers Support Proposal.

By the Associated Press.

MONTREAL, June 17.—Government ownership, with democratic operation of American railroads, was indorsed today by the American Federation of Labor convention here, after a bitter fight.

Roll call showed that Government ownership was indorsed by a vote of 29,059 to 8349. Disorder interrupted the roll call several times when delegations of the various crafts divided on their votes.

Charges of "steam roller" were hurled at the chair by James Duncan of Seattle and other delegates when it denied the right of roll call to delegations that split on the question. Applause and "boos" and hisses alternately greeted delegation votes.

The building trade delegations presented almost a solid front against Government ownership, supporting Gompers and administration forces.

The railroad workers were supported by the great voting power of the United Mine Workers, machinist unions, textile workers, garment workers and the metal trades craft.

Clash on Carpenters' Vote.

The first clash on the roll call occurred when W. L. Hutchinson, president of the carpenters' union, announced that his delegation cast its 3315 votes against the proposal. J. A. Ross of the carpenters denied Hutchinson's statement and asked permission to cast his 414 votes for government ownership. More than a dozen delegates protested when Gompers barred the Ross vote, counting the entire carpenters' vote against the proposal.

Gompers' ruling resulted in the molders' delegation casting its entire vote for the proposal, despite the fact that John Frey of their membership opposed it.

Prior to the voting Matthew Woll, vice president of the Federation, declared that neither "Government control" or "Government ownership" had been "sufficiently defined" in the propositions before the convention for him to decide which he favored, but said he was against any proposal that would indorse the Plumb plan.

Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation, demanded of the signers of the report for Government ownership if it was an indorsement of the Plumb plan. They declared it did not indorse "any particular plan."

There was another demonstration when Gompers announced that "Delegate Gompers is now recognized to address the convention." He declared he had not indorsed the report of the Executive Council for Government ownership.

Gompers Opposes Adoption.

The accepting of Government ownership, Gompers declared, would not only place the railroads under Government ownership and control, but would also "by necessity" be extended to all the "tributaries to the railway service, making all of the workers Government employes."

He warned the convention of the activities of the Government in the past in preventing Federal employes from "exercising their rights" and participating in political activities.

"No man is more loyal to the Government than I," said Gompers, "but I would not give it more power over the individual citizenship of our country."

"In casting my vote on this question," he said, "I would not want to enslave my fellow workers under Government authority in their efforts for industrial freedom. Let the future tell the story of who is right or wrong, those who stood for freedom or those who stood for the submission of their freedom of government."

Chair Overruled.

The chair was overruled during the voting when T. W. McCullough voted the typographical delegation as 236 for the proposal and 469 against. Secretary Morrison opposed the vote and demanded a roll call on the ground that McCullough had no authority to deliver it. The roll call showed the typographical vote as 236 for and 352 against, cutting 117 votes from the total announced by McCullough against the proposal. First Vice President James Duncan of Seattle, was the only member of the granite cutters' organization to vote against Government ownership.

In the debate, when Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation, took the floor and announced he would support Government ownership of the railroads, there was a demonstration by the rail workers and their supporters. Morrison declared he was only supporting the federation's reconstruction program and the executive council's report to the late convention.

"We hear a lot about self-determination," he added. "We have here a proposition from all rail workers asking assistance in securing Government ownership of railroads because they believe their trials and tribulations under Government ownership will be far less than under private ownership."

The federation's national committee for organizing iron and steel workers has been disbanded, and a new committee will be organized by the Executive Council with plans for a new organization campaign in the iron and steel district, it was announced at the federation convention here today.

The convention today called for congressional investigation into the "tyrannical, brutal and un-American suppression of free speech" in Pennsylvania. It also extended to the President of the United States an invitation to address a meeting in Duquesne, Pa., on the subject of free speech and free assembly, under the federation auspices.

Want Profiteers Crushed.

The convention yesterday called on Congress to curb profiteering, indorsed President Samuel Gompers' nonpartisan political program, approved the Irish republic, and requested withdrawal of armed forces from Ireland.

SNOW FLURRIES MARK END OF HEAT WAVE IN OMAHA

Temperature Drops 22 Degrees—Record Rain Floods Milwaukee Homes.

By the Associated Press.

OMAHA, Neb., June 17.—Flurries of snow melting when they reached the ground yesterday attended the ending of a heat wave which had extended for eight days. The temperature dropped 22 degrees.

By the Associated Press.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 17.—Milwaukee suffered the heaviest rainfall in its history yesterday when 2.19 inches of rain fell in one hour and five minutes. The western portion of the city was under 10 feet of water last night and efforts were being made to rescue residents from second-story windows. Part of the east side was flooded.

By the Associated Press.

WESSINGTON SPRINGS, S. D., June 17.—This section was recovering today from effects of the worst rainstorm in its history. Approximately eight inches of water fell within 2 hours and a half, turning every street into a raging torrent, washing out sidewalks and paved streets and tearing out railroad tracks for hundreds of feet.

DEMOCRATS PREDICT FIGHT IF BRYAN OFFERS DRY PLANK

By the Associated Press.

FRENCH LICK, Ind., June 17.—Democratic party leaders in conference here on candidates and platform planks to be presented to the national convention in San Francisco predicted yesterday that a hot skirmish would result if William Jennings Bryan attempted to insert a "bone dry" declaration in the resolutions. As a retaliatory move it was suggested that a "wet" plank might be offered for the convention's consideration.

The conference here will probably end tomorrow and the leaders will move on to Chicago where they expect to hold further sessions before going to San Francisco.

Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Charles F. Murphy of New York said today they would be in Chicago Saturday and would probably depart for the West Sunday.

The New York leaders, it is understood, have not yet reached a decision on a candidate to be favored by their support. Gov. Smith, it is said, will receive the complimentary vote of the New York delegates on the first ballot.

14 YEARS' CREDIT FOR WOUNDS

Former Soldier Gets Light Sentence on Counterfeiting Charge.

By the Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—An excellent record made by Anthony Rtelensky while serving overseas during the war, saved him yesterday from a long prison term for raising $10 notes to $50. The prisoner was wounded 14 times, and in imposing sentence Judge Thompson deducted a year for each wound. He was given one year in the Federal prison at Atlanta. The Judge told the defendant his offense called for the maximum sentence of 15 years, but that he could not overlook his fine war record.

Telensky is an unnaturalized Russian, and enlisted in a New England regiment shortly after war was declared by this country.

CHICAGO BROKER FOUND SHOT

C. B. Ensign Discovered in Bathroom of Home in Chicago.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 17.—C. B. Ensign, president of Charles Ensign & Co., a commercial brokerage firm, is in a hospital today with two bullet wounds in his breast. His condition is said to be serious. Ensign was wounded Monday, members of the family finding him lying in a bathroom when they returned home.

They would not comment on how the broker was wounded. No report was made to the police. Ensign is 60 years old.

Second Attempt to Kill Woman.

By the Associated Press.

IRONWOOD, Mich., June 17.—The second attempt in two days to kill Mrs. Mary Smolar, well-to-do owner of a local boarding house, was made today when her home was wrecked by dynamite placed in her kitchen stove. Mrs. Smolar was seriously injured. The injured woman blames a rejected suitor.

GIRL'S HEADLESS BODY IN LAKE NOT IDENTIFIED

St. Joseph Police Think She Was Killed Some Distance From Water and Body Carried to Place.

IRON RAILS MADE FAST TO TRUNK

Murderers Believed to Have Mistaken Lake for Missouri River — Abandoned Auto May Be Clew.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 17.—The theory of authorities who are at work on the case is that the young woman whose nude and headless body was discovered in Lake Contrary, near here, yesterday, by members of a fishing party, was murdered in some other city and brought to the lake here in an effort to cover up the crime. Detectives have learned that an abandoned motor car found at Armour Junction, 18 miles south of St. Joseph, contained a stained shirt and that there are stains in the car, and have gone there to investigate.

They believe the woman was murdered in some town down the river and that, after the murderers had disposed of the body, they started back to the scene of the murder and were forced to abandon their car to avoid detection.

Attached to the body, the hands and feet of which were bound with wire, were two iron bed rails meant for sinkers. The body, which had been in the water several days, had been washed to the shore. At the point where the body was discovered the lake and the Missouri River are separated by only a narrow strip of land. The police believe the murderers thought they were throwing the body into the river when they cast it into the lake.

A message to Chief of Police Watson today from Edwardsville, Ill., said a young woman was missing from that place and that a relative had started for St. Joseph to view the body in the lake with a view to identifying it.

Men were engaged all last night dragging the lake, in the hope of recovering the young woman's head, and the earth in the vicinity was dug up, but without success. It is presumed that the head was disposed of before the body was brought to the lake.

Several days ago the police here were asked to search for a young woman who had started for St. Joseph from a town in Iowa and had not reached here. It was thought she might have been the murdered woman, but today she appeared at the home of relatives.

morning and the money was gone. We waited expectantly all Tuesday morning and afternoon. By night fall the strain had become intense. But we even waited until Wednesday noon to give the "crank" nearly 24 hours on his own proposition before we again called police into the case. We have reached the point now where the fellow has absolutely proved unreliable and whether or not he has the baby is a question. We are thoroughly convinced that we have no hopes of getting the baby through him and that he is a fraud. The police are our only hope, and the matter has been turned over to Chief Eiler that they may do what they can. The family has done everything it could with the material at hand to get our baby back. We can do nothing more. It remains for the police alone now."

The events leading up to the decision to plant the demanded ransom were also told by Coughlin. Numerous communications from pseudo abductors were received and from all these "the Crank" letters were culled as bearing the most likely earmarks of genuineness.

"We received letters from Savannah, Cleveland, New York and Philadelphia demanding ransom," said Coughlin, "and out of the lot we decided that those signed a "Crank" were most likely from the actual kidnapers."

CORONER'S VERDICT ACCIDENT, IN DEATH OF JOHN BERRY

Second Inquest Into Death of Man Who Did Not Know Skull Was Fractured.

A Coroner's verdict of accident was returned today in the death last Saturday at St. John's Hospital of John J. Berry, 68 years old, 3683 Cook avenue, a private watchman. It was the second such verdict by a Coroner's jury since his death.

It was stated at the hospital that the cause of death was a fractured skull. This led to revelation to the police by members of his family that Berry had been struck on March 20 at Grand and Cass avenues by a motor cycle.

Joseph Hotsch, 23 years old, 3527 St. Louis avenue, was arrested last night and said that on March 20 Berry had stumbled against the side car of his motor cycle at Grand and Cass avenue and had been knocked down. He said that he had offered to take Berry to the office of a physician or to a hospital, but that Berry had refused, saying that he was not injured.

Two sons of Berry testified today that following the accident and prior to their fathers going to the hospital he had told them that while pursuing his duties as a watchman he had fallen on a sidewalk. There was no evidence to indicate whether Berry suffered the fracture of his skull when struck by the motor cycle or when he fell on the sidewalk.

as a clerk in the office of the Taylor Coal Co.

In 1917, by which time he had risen to a post as assistant to the manager of the coal company, he is said to have taken an option on the entire output of the mine. The price of the option was said to have been $500 and the money to have been Raymond's savings. Raymond thought he foresaw a coal shortage. It is understood here that he subsequently realized about $10,000 on the option.

Shortly afterward he quit the coal company and returned to St. Louis. He and his brother, Clement, opened a small automobile repair shop at 3300 Pine street and began soliciting business among automobile dealers. Some of these dealers now say they recognized him as Arthur Raymond but did not question his use of the name "Frank A. Martin." His business flourished and he became the agent here for Denby motor trucks. This gave him further prosperity and he moved into a large building at 2800 Pine street, the present home of the Martin Motor Truck Co.

Made $75,000 in 1919.

In February, 1919, "Martin," as he then was favorably known in the automobile business here, became the agent for the Diamond T Truck Co. In less than a year following Martin sold about 150 Diamond T trucks on which his profit was estimated by Maj. Lubbeck, who is connected with the Diamond T truck manufacturers, to have been about $75,000.

His recent disappearance came at the apparent height of his prosperity. He was not in debt to any of the motor truck manufacturers. He had bought an $8500 home at 525 Hanley road, Clayton, and had furnished it. His business was continuing to gain in volume of sales.

The only explanation his associates have for his subsequent financial difficulties is that he indulged in his proclivity to "take a chance" and played the stock market on margins. About two months ago he began to borrow money on short time loans. As these loans fell due he faced a tightening money market and inability to raise further sums. His procedure then was to raise the maximum amount on 75 trucks he possessed in storage, hypothecating some of them as many as three times, according to Maj. Lubbeck. When he had apparently reached the maximum loan he departed with his wife and child. The contents of the home on Hanley road are undisturbed.

Company's Assets $300,000.

Maj. Lubbeck estimates the assets of the Martin company as about $300,000. "The claims against it will not exceed $200,000," he said. "So far as we can learn, no part of the $200,000 Martin obtained was used for the conduct of the business. The business itself is unimpaired."

No trace of Martin has been found. His brother, Clement Raymond, stated that he last heard from him last Sunday from Cleveland.

HARDING CONFERS WITH PROGRESSIVE LEADERS

Number of Meetings Being Arranged With Various G. O. P. Groups.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Senator Harding, the Republican candidate for President, soon will begin a series of informal conferences with leaders of the various party groups, particularly with Progressives.

Decision to hold the conferences is understood to have been reached yesterday at a meeting between Senator Harding and Walter F. Brown, former Ohio Progressive leader and the nominee's floor manager at the Chicago convention. Invitations to the conferences are expected to go out at once.

Senator Harding formally announced today that his campaign as the Republican presidential candidate would not be a one-man affair; that the aid and advice of every Republican leader would be sought. He declared that this would be his policy, not only during the campaign, but later, should he be elected president.

"I will see every Republican; all Republicans look alike to me," he said.

Besides his own announcement on the subject, the Senator authorized Robert Armstrong, his publicity representative, to say that the "policy of the Senator will be to receive and invite the opinion and advice of every Republican, regardless of what part of the party he belongs to."

"The Senator desires not to be a one-man candidate any more than he desires to be a one-man President if elected," said Armstrong.

"Throughout the pre-election campaign that policy will prevail without change."

Asked if he had seen Senator Johnson of California, Senator Harding said: "I hope to see all of my colleagues. Our relations have always been very cordial."

Callers at Senator Harding's office today included R. B. Strassburger of Norristown, Pa., who was one of the principal managers at Chicago for Senator Johnson. "The selection of Senator Harding was a party nomination and I'll stand by it," Strassburger said.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa, one of the supporters of Senator Johnson in the pre-convention campaign, sent a telegram, saying: "Congratulations. Iowa will give you 60,000 majority—that ought to be enough."

The nomination was praised in a telegram from Otto H. Kahn, a New York banker, who said: "You represent and exemplify in your career that calm minded, unspectacular, resolutely American type which, equally opposed to the selfish reactionary and to the Utopian radical, believes firmly in the time-honored and tested doctrines, spirit and tradition of the American constitutional system of government, the disregard of which within recent years is largely responsible for the troubles that beset us."

ALDERMEN VIEW SITE OF PROPOSED HOSPITAL TODAY

NOW FIRST CLASS RESIDENCE DISTRICT

Members of the legislative committee of the Board of Aldermen, of which Alderman Wyrick is chairman, planned to make a tour of inspection today in the DeMun tract, west of the southern part of Forest Park, and in other tracts adjoining the park, to aid them in passing upon the proposed amendment to the city zoning ordinance, which would permit the erection of the new Jewish Hospital on the DeMun tract, facing the park. The DeMun tract, west of Skinker road between Hi-Pointe and Hillcrest, is now a first-class residence district, in which hospitals and apartments are not permitted.

About 100 persons attended a hearing, held by the committee from 4 to 6:30 p. m. yesterday, on the proposed amendment and arguments were made for and against the amendment.

Through the enforcement of the zoning law, the Sisters of St. Mary were prevented from acquiring a tract in the De Mun tract for the erection of the new St. Mary's Infirmary. They have now acquired the former site of Campbell's Forest Home, some distance southwest. A letter from the sisters was read yesterday, indorsing the request of the Jewish Hospital management, and indicating that there would be no charge of discrimination if the city were to grant to the Jewish Hospital the privilege which had earlier been denied to St. Mary's.

Waldheim Presents Argument.

Aaron Waldheim, president of the Jewish Hospital Board, made the principal talk for the amendment. He said the hospital would not impair the value of the tract for residence purposes, and said the present Jewish Hospital and St. Luke's Hospital, on Delmar boulevard, had not impaired the adjacent Washington terrace and Beverly place as residence places.

Waldheim argued that the Forest Park frontage should not be used wholly for the building of "mansions," but should also be used to give air and sunlight to the sick and poor, such as were treated in hospitals. He said no other site of the required acreage was obtainable, except one "in a hollow" at Clayton and Skinker roads, south of the park.

He further argued that the standing of St. Louis as a center of medical education required the best provision for hospitals. "It would have been a calamity to have prevented the erection of Barnes Hospital in its present location, by a zoning ordinance, if one had been in effect at that time," he said. He said that 350 feet toward Hi-Pointe and an equal space toward Hillcrest would be parked, and not built upon, and that the main building, costing $1,500,000, would be an ornament to the section.

Rabbi Harrison Speaks.

Rabbi Leon Harirson spoke in behalf of the amendment, saying that humanity, democracy and public policy supported it. He said two-thirds of the beds were for the poor, and that there was no limitation of creed. Rabbi Samuel Thurman made a similar argument.

Joseph Hauser and Theodore Ellenbeck, for the Central Trades and Labor Union, and M. J. Cassidy of the Building Trades Council spoke for the amendment. Joseph M. Hannauer, president of the Real Estate Exchange, supported Waldheim's statement as to the lack of other available sites. Julius Pitzman and J. I. Epstein spoke for the amendment.

Dr. C. E. Burford, president of the St. Louis Medical Society, and Dr. H. W. Loeb, dean of the medical school of St. Louis University, said the park site would be a help in the curative work of the hospital, and that there would be no danger of infection to the neighborhood. Murray Carleton, speaking from the experience of Barnes Hospital, argued that "Chicago or Kansas City would welcome such a building as this, even if it were in a park."

Luther Ely Smith, attorney representing objectors to the amendment, replied first to Carleton, saying that cities dominated by corrupt politics might permit the misuse of their parks, but that well-governed cities were copying St. Louis' zoning ordinance. He said there were four sides to Forest Park, and that under the zoning ordinance the east and south sides are open to hospital or apartment building.

"Keep Faith With the People."

He declared that the zoning law must be upheld, to keep faith with the people who had purchased property on the assurance that the neighborhood would be protected, under the law, as a residence neighborhood strictly.

Dr. W. H. Fuchs, a member of the City Plan Commission, argued against "making the zoning law a joke." He said that a hospital on such a commanding site would be attractive to wealthy patients, but he declared that other sites could be found. H. G. Clymer, secretary of the American Institute of Architects, and E. J. Russell, chairman of the City Plan Commission, spoke in favor of maintaining the ordinance. Dr. M. A. Bliss said the hauling of supplies to the hospital, and the presence of the sick on the premises, would impair the residence value of the surrounding property.

Harland Bartholomew, engineer of the City Plan Commission, said an attempt was being made, by political pressure, to break down the zoning regulations. If such pressure is stronger than the law, he said, the whole ordinance might as well be discarded.

Operates at Loss.

Waldheim, in a final summing up of the arguments, said the Jewish Hospital always operated at a loss, and that an annual deficit had to be made up by the Federated Jewish Societies. He said he had opposed the proposal to permit the building of a garage on Lindell boulevard, and would oppose any amendment to the zoning ordinance which was for private gain, but that the present case was different. He asked that early action be taken by the committee, as the hospital board has an option on the site, on which it must pay $500 a month after July 1.

President Carter of the Chamber of Commerce, arriving near the end of the hearing, made an argument for the amendment, saying that it was a mistake to make the park frontage residence property exclusively. He is a former member of the City Plan Commission.

WOMAN WHO HURRIED TO RECOVER LINGERIE ENTERS ELWELL CASE

course I didn't want anyone to get into trouble. I didn't think anyone ought to know about them being there. No, I did not remove the monograms. If there were any monograms, they must have been taken off when the clothes were taken out to the cleaners.

"And didn't you take the pistol you found in the room Friday morning and hide that?"

"No, sir," was the prompt answer. "I did not see any pistol. I have never seen a pistol in Mr. Elwell's house. The detectives searched it from top to bottom and there was no pistol there."

Mrs. Larsen described the visit of the dark-haired young woman to the Elwell home on the Tuesday before the murder. She said the young woman arrived alone about noon. She was dressed in a gray jersey, gray skirt with gray fur around the bottom and wore a black hat and some jewels.

"Mr. Elwell came out to the kitchen," Mrs. Larsen continued, "and asked me to get them a light lunch, as they would not want much. I prepared some chops, salad and served some strawberry shortcake. During the lunch they seemed very happy and cheerful. The young lady left around 2:30 in the afternoon and told Mr. Elwell she had had a very nice lunch. He put her in a taxi and she drove off alone.

Describes Woman's Visit.

Describing the visit on Friday of the young owner of the lingerie, Mrs. Larsen said the young woman had called her by name, saying:

"Mrs. Larsen, what is this terrible accident?"

Members of the Lewisohn theater party who entertained Elwell at the Ritz-Carlton at dinner and subsequently at the New Amsterdam roof the night before the murder have been requested to visit the District Attorney's office as a result of alleged conflicting statements with respect to the number of persons who drove away from the New Amsterdam Theater in the Lewisohn taxicab shortly after 1:30 o'clock Friday morning.

Philip Bender of the cab was examined yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Joyce. He declared positively there were only two men and a woman in his car when he drove off after Elwell had said good-by to the party at Seventh avenue and Forty-second street.

The four members of the theater party were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewisohn, Viola Kraus, sister of Mrs. Lewisohn; Octovio Figueroa, Argentine journalist, and Elwell. Members of the party have stated that they were driven to the Lewisohn home, where Mr. and Mrs. Lewisohn and Viola Kraus alighted and that Figueroa was then driven to the Ritz, where he resides.

Bender, the chauffeur, according to Joyce, said he took a party of three to a house in the Sixties, the number of which he cannot recall. There were two men and only one woman, he said. One of the men and the woman alighted and then he drove the second male member of the party to the Ritz, where he got out and settled the bill. Bender was questioned closely and stuck to his story.

Chauffeur Sticks to Story.

"I've been driving a taxi for five years on Broadway and I guess I know what I'm talking about," he said. "I drove only three persons in that party that night. Two of them were men and the other was a woman. I'll bet my taxicab on the truth of what I say."

The weight of evidence is against the chauffeur in thinking he had only three passengers instead of four. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewisohn, Miss Viola Kraus and Figeroa all tell the same story, that they left the Frolic together and went home.

Swann said he wished to correct an impression that the sending of detectives to Kentucky was for the purpose of arresting the murderer of Elwell, whose identity the police know.

"The Kentucky clew has not yet turned out to be the solution of the mystery," said the District Attorney. "It is only a very promising lead and we are following it up in the hope that it will shed some light on the matter. We know nothing very definite about any avenging father or brother or even about the girl supposed to have been betrayed by Elwell.

"The fact that Elwell left Latonia hurriedly last month seems to make that Kentucky clew plausible; but I want it clearly understood that I have no theory about who committed this murder. I have no facts to justify any theory."

Wife Was to Seek Divorce.

Mrs. Helen Derby Elwell, widow of Elwell, said yesterday she had consented to begin divorce proceedings about a month ago. She said:

'About a month ago Mr. Elwell wrote to me asking me to sue for divorce. He said quite plainly I had ample ground and would have little difficulty in obtaining my freedom. He said I need not worry over money matters as he was prepared to settle a fund upon me for life, which would be ample to care for me and for Richard, my son. I have been hunting all over the house for that letter, but I must have destroyed it. I shall make it public if I can find it.

"After thinking the subject over, I wrote Mr. Elwell and agreed with him that as there was no longer any love between us a divorce would be the best for all concerned."

Mrs. Elwell said she had planned, after securing the divorce, to go west with her son. She did not, however, begin the suit.

No fight to break the Elwell will, bequeathing all the estate to his parents has been started, and, according to present developments, the widow and son will be amply provided for.

Estate Placed at $500,000.

Although Davies, Auerbach & Cornell, the attorneys who filed the Elwell will, say they have no idea how large the estate is, Walter Elwell, brother, said he was sure it amounts to more than $500,000.

Mrs. Elwell said she was immensely pleased over her treatment by Mr. Elwell's father at the funeral in Ridgewood, N. J., Tuesday afternoon.

"He patted me on the shoulder and told me not to worry, as he intended to take care of me and Richard," she said. "That little talk cheered me up immensely and I want to contradict reports that there has been friction between the senior Mr. Elwell and myself. There has been nothing of the sort."

Walter Elwell said his brother had established a trust fund of $200,000, paying $10,000 a year. This was to guard against "going broke." He did not own the home at 244 West Seventieth street, in which he was murdered, but rented it for $1800 a year.

A vault opened after the murder contained securities with a face value of $68,000, although their actual present worth has not been computed. Elwell sold a villa in Long Beach less than a year ago to one of the wealthy packing family of Schwartzchilds. He also sold a home in West Palm Beach Fla., about a year ago for $75,000.

White Light District Toured.

An early morning tour of what remains of the old white light district of New York, made yesterday by reporters, established the fact that there is still a wide gap in the chronology of Elwell's movements on the morning of Friday last.

Where he spent the time that intervened between his good-night to the Lewisohn party in front of the Amsterdam Theater, at 1:50 a. m., and his arrival home in a rackety motor car at 3:45, is still a matter of doubt.

It has been stated, previously, that he went to the Club de Montmartre, at Fiftieth street and Broadway, and there joined a woman and two other members of the party.

But no confirmation of this was obtainable yesterday morning, during what used to be the "gay young hours," by the Post-Dispatch's fact-searchers. On the contrary, it was declared with the utmost emphasis that Elwell had not been seen in the place since last October.

Joyce gave out the story that the sportsman had gone to the Fiftieth street resort. He did not give his authority for the statement but simply announced it as an established fact. The attaches of the Montmartre believe he was misled.

"I could not have failed to see Mr. Elwell had he been there that night," said Charles, the maitre-d'hotel. "I have known his for years, as I have known most of our patrons. I have given him tables scores of times. I know his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lewisohn, and many other persons with whom he came here for supper and dancing.

"We had rather a small crowd last Thursday night and Friday morning, and I personally greeted each party that arrived, showing them to their tables or directing one of my assistants where to place them. Mr. Elwell certainly did not visit us.

"Wondered Where He Had Been."

"In fact, since reading of his death I have been wondering where he kept himself of late. He used to come here pretty often, but lately I have not seen him. Thinking this over I remembered the last occasion he was here. It was back in the fall. He came in alone—which was unusual, because he was always with a lively party—and sat down at a table over on the left side of the house. He had a bite of supper and then departed alone. I'm sure he hasn't been here since. That time, I think, was either in October or November."

There seemed litle doubt that Charles was correct in his facts. But he asked all his waiters, to make sure, and they agreed with him that it was months since Elwell visited Montmartre.

With the quick memory and suavity of his class, the maitre de hotel greeted each incoming guest or party. He was never at a loss for a name.

"Ah, Mr. W!" "Good evening, Mr. C!" "Good evening, Madame!" "Yes, sir, Mr. M.; I have your table, sir."

And he knew Elwell, he said much better and much longer than he knew most of these arriving to sup and dance.

If Elwell did not spend these hours at the Montmartre, where then did he spend them? The investigators endeavored to find out.

Another of his favorite resorts was the Little Club in Forty-fourth street, just west of Broadway, which is owned and managed by the same organization as the Montmartre.

'I don't think Mr. Elwell was here," said the maitre de hotel of this place, where—contrariwise to the French named dance—one goes downstairs from the street, instead of in a lift. "But we had an unusually large crowd that night and he might have slipped in during my absence and then out again while I was otherwise engaged. But this doesn't seem likely, for Mr. Elwell was the sort who would make himself known upon his arrival."

At the Paradise room of Reisenweber's, Fifty-eighth street and Eighth avenue, the attendants were quite certain the sportsman had not danced or supped there Friday morning, and such was the case also at the Palais Royal, in Broadway. But it was scarcely probable that he would have gone to either of those places, for the other two were his favorites.

Would Make Self Known.

The man who said Elwell was "the sort who would make himself known" spoke the truth. Elwell liked the little flattery that one receives when a maitre de hotel or even a waiter hails one by name. And he was in the habit of calling up by telephone and reserving a table, even though there might be plenty, for the sake of having his name down on the list.

With the dancing resorts eliminated, then, where did Elwell spend the hours between 2 and 3:30?

The investigators began their inquiry in front of the Amsterdam Theater just as the Midnight Frolic performance concluded and the audience began to file out. They queried taxicab starters and drivers, theater attendants, policemen and others, who had been on duty at the time when Elwell departed from the Lewisohns and started, as they said, "toward a taxi which we thought he would use to ride home."

But no one was found who could tell anything of the man's movements after he left his friends. And there was no reason for anyone with information to conceal. The investigators took a taxicab to the Montmartre and inquired of all the chauffeurs thereabouts if they had carried a man of Elwell's description, but none of them had. And so, too, was the inquiry futile about the entrances to the other dance and cabaret resorts.

In fact, about all the searchers got for their pains was a picture of what might be called "New York nowadays in the early morning." And the picture that one sees these mornings is far different from that which was visible in the old days. There is some night life left, but it is very subdued.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 17.—One theory of New York detectives, that relatives of a Lexington girl named Anne murdered Joseph Elwell, New York turfman and whist expert, is scouted here. Police here regard the statement of District Attorney Swann of New York as a blind. No instructions have been received by Lexington police regarding the case. It has developed here that a Lexington society girl, whose first name is Anne, wrote a letter to Elwell in New York, June 1, and this is believed to throw light on the basis of the New York detectives' theory. This letter, it was declared by the girl, was written to thank Elwell for flowers he had sent her while she was in St. Joseph's Hospital here, the night of May 18, when she underwent an operation for tonsilitis. The supposition drawn from this is that she did not see Elwell between May 18 and the time he left for New York.

Should a Lexington girl be involved in the mysterious case, it is considered here more likely that she is a young woman seen with Elwell in the Phoenix Hotel here the night before he departed suddenly without paying his hotel bill. Ed Doyle, hotel clerk, declared he saw Elwell with a girl in the lobby; that she weighed herself on a slot scale, and that the two then left the place. Doyle did not know the girl. New York detectives reached Cincinnati this morning, and are expected here this evening.

Detectives Question Horsemen at Latonia in Elwell Case.

By the Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—Information was sought at the Latonia race track today among horsemen by Detective Henry P. Oswald of New York in connection with the murder of Joseph B. Elwell.

Lloyd Gentry, trainer, who is racing the Elwell horses, and E. R. Bradley, a Lexington friend of Elwell, were among those questioned by Oswald. When the detective was asked whether he had any theory relative to the killing of Elwell, he replied: "I am not theorizing. It is facts I am seeking." It is reported that Oswald later went to Lexington.

COMPROMISE ENDS WALKOUT OF 2000 TRANSFER DRIVERS

Men Accept $34.20 Basic Wage and Companies Grant 9½ Hours and Time and Half for Overtime.

WORKERS MUST GO BACK IN TWO DAYS

Railroads to Lift Embargo on Freight Consigned to St. Louis With Return of Teamsters and Chauffeurs.

The walkout of 2000 transfer drivers and chauffeurs ended at 1 p. m. today after having been in effect since last Saturday morning.

The men and the employers made concessions in a compromise under the terms of which the men gave up their demand for $36 a week and accepted the employers' offer of $34.20 a week. Their pay before the walkout was $27.20 a week. In return for this concession as to wages the companies agreed to reduce the working day from 10 hours to 9½ hours and to pay time and a half for overtime.

The scale of $34.20 a week is the basic figure for drivers of two-horse teams or trucks of like capacity. The range of wages under agreement is from $26 for drivers of one-horse wagons to $40 a week for drivers of the largest trucks.

Must Return in Two Days.

Dan Murphy, local vice president of the International Teamsters' Union, today said most of the men were ready to go back to work this afternoon and that others would report for duty tomorrow. In announcing the settlement the employers said drivers who failed to return to work within two days would be regarded as having quit the service and would be replaced with other men.

The settlement negotiations began yesterday afternoon at a meeting between a committee of the teamsters' union and the wage committee of the Team and Truck Owners' Association. The terms reached at this meeting were carried to the union last night and indorsed at a meeting at Druids' Hall, Ninth and Market streets.

Some of the men who have not decided whether they want to return to work met at New Club Hall this afternoon. Two of them, who would not permit the use of their names, complained of the conditrons under which the vote was taken last night. They said that men carrying revolvers circulated through the crowd. The two declared that at a meeting at Druids' Hall this forenoon only 14 out of about 100 voted to return to work. At the request of the strikers seven policemen were assigned to the meeting this afternoon.

Embargo to Be Lifted.

Because of the drivers' strike most of the railroads entering St. Louis from the East yesterday placed an embargo on all less than carload freight consigned to St. Louis by way of East St. Louis.

It was said this afternoon that this embargo would be lifted with the ending of the walkout.

Chicago Team Wins First Polo Championship Game From St. Louis Shamrocks

Score of 6 1-2 to 5 Wins for Visitors, Who Had 2-Point Handicap—Red Birds Meet Dayton Club Today.

The Onwenstia Country Club four of Chicago won the first leg of the Midwestern polo championship at the St. Louis Country Club yesterday afternoon by defeating the Shamrocks, of the local club, by a score of 6½ to 5. The visitors were in receipt of a two-point handicap, which just enabled them to win.

Only a small crowd of polo enthusiasts, mostly Country Club members, saw the game, which was lightning fast and closely contested throughout. A high wind was blowing, which delayed the start. Onwenstia won the toss and Capt. Reynolds elected to defend the west goal with the wind at his back.

The question of new rules of the game having to do with the penalties for fouls and safeties was discussed by the players, and it was decided to do away with the quarter-point penalty for a safety, but to continue under the old rule of a half-point loss for a foul.

Clarence King and Alex Primm shot the goals scored by St. Louis, but John T. Davis, one of the veterans of the early days of polo in this country, was the backbone of the local four, saving his team time and again from being scored upon.

Bull Pup Enlivens Game.

The deadly earnestness of the play was enlivened during the seventh chukker by a very small and very black French bull pup, which escaped from one of the spectators and took a big part in the game. He dashed up and down the field, outrunning the horses and making every effort to pick up the ball and carry it away. He did not retire, although kicked about by the horses, until he was good and ready.

This afternoon the Country Club Red Birds meet the Miami Polo Club of Dayton, O., in the second match of the series. The losers of yesterday's game and the losers today will meet tomorrow, and the first winners will play today's winners for the championship Saturday. Today's game will start at 4 o'clock and all visitors will be welcome, the Country Club announces.

Yesterday's Line-Up.

Onwenstia—No. 1, G. B. Winston; No. 2, P. L. Coonley; No. 3, E. H. Reynolds (Capt.); No. 4, G. A. Seaverns Jr.

Shamrocks—No. 1, E. T. Williams; No. 2, C. H. King; No. 3, A. T. Primm (Capt.); No. 4, J. T. Davis.

Referee—Sam Davis.

Timekeeper—Hawkins.

The Game in Detail

First Period.

The gong sounded at 4:49 p. m. The referee threw in the ball and the "king of sports" was on. Onwenstia got the ball on the throw in, and carried it down near the Shamrock's goal. The Shamrocks recovered the ball and carried it down the field, barely missing the goal. Ball out of bounds. Onwenstia knocks ball in and takes it down the field, scoring first goal by Coonley. Time, 5½ minutes.

Onwenstia gets ball on throw in, and carries it down the field for goal No. 2 by Reynolds, just as gong sounds ending the first period.

Score, Onwenstia, 4 (including 2-point handicap); Shamrocks, 0.

Second Period.

Shamrocks get the ball on the throw in, and take it down the field for their first goal by Primm. Time, 2½ minutes

Onwenstia gets ball on the throw in and takes it down the field near the Shamrock's goal. Onwenstia fouls, thereby losing half a point. In this period the ball is taken up and down the field to the end of the period. Davis is the star player for the Shamrocks. Score, Onwenstia, 3½; Shamrocks, 1.

Third Period.

Shamrocks get the ball on the throw in, and take it the full length of the field, barely missing a goal. Onwenstia recovers the ball and takes it back down the field to the Shamrock's goal, but misses. Shamrocks recover the ball, and King takes it through Onwenstia's goal for score. Score, Onwenstia, 3½; Shamrocks, 2.

Fourth Period.

Shamrocks get the ball on the throw in and take it near the Onwenstia's goal. Onwenstia knocks the ball out of bounds. Onwenstia gets the ball and it is taken up and down the field by both sides, but stays away from goal posts. End of the first half. Score, Onwenstia, 3½; Shamrocks, 2.

Fifth Period.

Shamrocks knock the ball in and take it up the field. Ball is broken and time called. Referee throws in a new ball and Onwenstia gets it and Winston scores. Shamrocks get the ball on the throw in, but Onwenstia recovers and keeps it near the Shamrocks' goal. The ball is taken up and down several times and out of bounds. The players are bunching toward the end of this period. Score, Onwenstia, 4½; Shamrocks, 2.

Sixth Period.

Davis gets the ball for the Shamrocks and feeds it to Primm, who takes it all the way down the field, barely missing goal. Onwenstia recovers the ball and takes it to the center of the field, where Davis recovers and drives to King, who scores. Onwenstia gets the ball on the toss in and takes it near the Shamrocks' goal, barely missing again. Primm for the Shamrocks brings the ball down the field, barely missing the goal. Ball goes out of bounds. Onwenstia gets the ball on the throw in and carries it through the goal for a score by Coonley. Score, Onwenstia, 5½; Shamrocks, 3.

Seventh Period.

The Shamrocks get the ball on the throw in and take it near the Onwenstia goal. Onwenstia recovers the ball and takes it back to the Shamrocks' goal, where they fail several times to score. In this period there is much bunching by the Shamrock players. Davis appears to be the backbone of the Shamrock team. Onwenstia has excellent team work. The Shamrocks get the ball and take it the full length of the field, barely missing goal. Onwenstia knocks the ball in and carries it down the field, but miss goal. Score, Onwenstia, 5½; Shamrocks, 3.

Eighth Period.

The Shamrocks get the ball on the throw in and carry it down the field to the Onwenstia's goal, but miss. Ball goes out of bounds. Ball knocked in by Onwenstia, but it is stopped by Davis, who knocks it to Primm, who scores for the Shamrocks. Onwenstia gets the ball on the throw in and takes it down the field for a goal by Seavins. Onwenstia gets the ball again on the throw in and again misses the goal. Davis recovers the ball for the Shamrocks and carries it to the Onwenstia's goal, but misses. Onwenstia knocks the ball in. Primm stops it and scores just before the gong sounds ending the game. Final score, Onwenstia, 6½; Shamrocks, 5.

MAN ROBBED, BOUND TO TRACKS, LOSES FOOT

Carrolton, Mo., Man Later Run Over by Train, and Hand Also Is Severed.

By the Associated Press.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., June 17.—George M. Underwood, proprietor of a cafe and taxi service at Carrollton, Mo., was forced by two men to enter a motor car here last night, was taken to a spot near the Wabash tracks, half a mile from Excelsior Springs, robbed of $70 and was bound and gagged, face down, to a rail with barbed wire. A Wabash passenger train passing half an hour later cut off his left foot and hand.

Underwood, according to his story told to Marshal John M. Elgin, had been in Kansas City yesterday and had stopped at Excelsior Springs on his return to Carrolton.

Patient Relates Experience.

Underwood today told the story of his experiences and denied that the men had any motive that he knew of, except robbery. He said he say them both distinctly and that both were strangers to him. Underwood is in a hospital here, where he is expected to recover.

"An hour or so after dark," he said, "I was walking through the park to the Wabash station to catch a train for Carrollton (Mo.), my home. A big black touring car stopped near me and two men dismounted. They lifted the hood of the engine and I believed something was wrong with the car. I approached and asked if I could help.

"When I approached the larger of the two men drew a revolver and said, 'Get in the car.' They forced me into the car and took my watch and $70. They drove south and one of the men said 'Let's kill the ——.'

"'No,' returned the other, 'we will tie him to the railroad track.'

"We stopped once at a pile of barbed wire and one of the men left the car and returned with several long strands of it. We stopped again near there and I was forced to alight.

Tied Hands With Wire.

"While one man pressed the revolver against my ribs the other tied my hands with the barbed wire. Then he pulled off my shirt and tore it into strips. One of these he stuffed in my mouth as a gag, tying it securely.

"'Get down on the track,' they commanded, and when I refused the larger man leaped on me, throwing me to the ground. They dragged me to the east rail, with my head to the north, and tied me there. Then they left and I heard them start their engine and depart. A few minutes later, while I was struggling to escape, I heard the rumble of the approaching train. Then the headlight appeared and swept over me. I tried to scream, but the rags in my mouth throttled my voice.

"The train was coming on and I felt my mind was going. The mental torture seemed to be overwhelming. As the engine came within a few rods of me I threw all my strength into another attempt to escape. My right hand was free at last and I tore the gag from my mouth, screaming. Then I loosened my right leg and swung partly free from the track, but my left foot and hand were too tightly bound to be released.

Says He Has No Enemies.

"The engine was thundering down on me. Something seemed to sting my entire body. I could not hear my own voice above the roar of the train as it chopped off my foot and hand. I suppose I fainted for a moment, but soon I was screaming again. A farmer came from somewhere and helped untie the barbed wire which was still partly strung around my body.

"I am sure I know no one who would wish to kill me. My family has no enemies I am aware of."

A posse of officers and citizens searched the locality where the robbery was said to have taken place, but could find no trace of the men.

According to officers here, Underwood had sold two motor cars in Kansas City and it is thought the robbers had knowledge of that fact and had expected him to have the cash from the sale with him.

Underwood's watch and his pocketbook containing about $2 in change, were found today by a farmer on the railroad right-of-way a few yards from the scene. Physicians said today Underwood would recover.

STUDENT KILLED IN WHISKY ROW AT DARTMOUTH

SLAYER ARRESTED IN FLIGHT TO BOSTON

Walks Twelve Miles Pursued by Posse of Students to Get Train—Contends He Fired in Self Defense.

By the Associated Press.

HANOVER, N. H., June 17.—A student quarrel over whisky early yesterday resulted in the killing of Henry E. Maroney of Medford, Mass., a senior at Dartmouth College and the arrest of Robert T. Meads of Lagrange, Ill., a junior, charged with the murder.

Meads fled after the shooting at Maroney's rooms in the Theta Delta Chi Fraternity house. While a posse of students searched for him he walked 12 miles to Mascoma Station and boarded a train for Boston. He was captured on the train by Sheriff Murray, who took from him an automatic pistol and obtained a confession in which Meads claimed he fired in self defense.

When arraigned before Judge Burton, on the murder charge Meads waived examination and was held without bail for the September grand jury. He was taken to the county jail at Woodsville. He announced that his defense would be directed by his father, A. R. Meads of Chicago, who is an attorney.

Meads' claim that he acted in defense was not supported by details given by others. Early statements to the college authorities that a visit to Meads' room early in the morning by Maroney and other students had no connection with liquor were disputed by subsequent statements.

Harold W. Whittaker of Somerville, Mass., Maroney's roommate, told County Solicitor Newton that he and Maroney went to Meads' room in North Massachusetts Hall to purchase a quart of whisky. He agreed to sell them a pint and had gone to get it, when, Whittaker said, Maroney picked up a partly filled quart bottle, passed it to Whittaker and told him to take it away.

Fired Three Shots After Them.

Whittaker then jumped from the window to the ground, 12 feet below, and as Maroney followed Meads fired three shots after them. Neither of the men was hit and they thought it was an attempt to frighten them.

Maroney and Whittaker then went to their rooms at the Fraternity House and prepared to go to bed. They had not touched the liquor, he said.

Shortly afterward Meads entered their rooms. Maroney was in the bathroom. Meads sat down at Maroney's desk. When Maroney came out of the bathroom, according to Whittaker's story, he approached Meads. Meads reached across the desk, pressed his pistol against Maroney's side and fired. No word was exchanged between them, Whittaker said. Maroney died almost instantly, shot through the heart.

Meads ordered Whittaker, the latter told the officials, to "get out of here or I'll do the same to you." As Whittaker started to leave by one door Meads backed out of another, covering his retreat with his pistol. Two other students, aroused by the shot, rushed from their rooms, but too late to catch Meads.

Student Walked With Him.

In his flight Meads was joined by Erwin T. Weis of Hull, Ala., who said later he knew there had been a shooting, but did not know its nature and only sought to aid his classmate in what he thought was a trivial scrape. They walked to Mascoma, where Meads boarded a Boston-bound train. Weis returned to Hanover and was detained, but later released.

Both Maroney and Meads were Ensigns in the navy during the war. Maroney was president of the Dartmouth Dramatic Society and popular at college. He was suspended last year because of a drinking row, and was allowed to return on a pledge that he would abstain from liquor until graduated. President Ernest M. Hopkins expressed the belief today that Maroney had kept his pledge, although it was considered possible that, with his degree earned, he assumed that he was released from it and had arranged a spree with Whittaker.

Meads was involved in a fatal shooting of a fellow-freshman named Arnold during his first year at college, a shotgun being discharged while they were examining it. Before his death Arnold made a signed statement that it was an accident.

BOMB PLOTTER TO BE DEPORTED

Post Orders Alien Out of Country After Making Protest.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Robert Elia, one of the aliens held in connection with the bomb plots of June 2, 1919, was ordered deported today by Assistant Secretary of Labor Post.

"To deport him would be to frustrate the operation of the criminal law," said Post. "Yet this department has no other authority than to deport. I cannot lawfully hold any alien in prison indefinitely."

CHARITY PATIENT HEIR TO PART OF FORTUNE

Epileptic in Kansas Hospital Has Claim to Share of Illinoisan's Estate.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 17.—Pearl Lash, an inmate of the Kansas epileptic hospital at Parsons, is heir to an estate estimated to be worth more than $250,000. She has been in the hospital for 12 years, and since two years ago was not supposed to have any relatives. Her mother died about two years ago. Now it has been discovered that she has several brothers and a sister or two and many other relatives in Kansas, Missouri and Illinois. She was sent to the hospital as an insane epileptic and as a charity patient, one without property and entirely supported by the State. She is regarded as an incurable patient.

An uncle, A. H. Lash, died some years ago in Illinois. He had farm property near Lakin, several farms near Joplin, Mo., and a large block of land in Kearney County, Kan., and left all of this property to the children of his brother. Pearl Lash is entitled to at least one-fifth, if not one-fourth, of the estate. Officials of the State Board of Administration, in charge of all the State institutions, have just discovered that the woman is an heir to this property. The will has never been admitted to probate in Kansas or Missouri, but was filed in Illinois. Relatives have been living on the property, and, as far as known, no rent has been paid to the estate.

The State has just begun its investigations of the case, and will attempt to get for the woman her rightful share of the property.

When it becomes her property, through the operation of the will, the State will act as guardian and she is also changed from a charity to a "pay" patient. The attorneys for those claiming the property have been notified to appear in Topeka, July 16, for a hearing.

Olive and Locust From Ninth to Tenth

Sports Frocks of Radiant Silks

That Will Give Genuine Comfort and Enjoyment

$45.00 and $55.00

FOLLOWING the straight, slim lines approved in sports attire, these silk Frocks gain charm from fabric, color and style treatment. Really too lovely for strenuous wear, they are ideal for the country club.

There are long-waisted models and shirtwaist models of striped habutai, crepe de chine, shantung—silks that are especially adaptable for this purpose.

A delightful model with radium silk skirt, cuffs and collar—in checked or floral effect—has a crepe Georgette blouse and tiny tassels that give a decorative touch. A shantung model has a smart box-plaited skirt. All have slender belts.

Wherever Summer leads you, whether you stay at home or go away, a frock of this sort will fit in exactly with your needs an unlimited number of times.

Costume Salon—Third Floor.

Dainty and Summery New Blouses

HERE are Blouses that one may wear with cotton or silk skirt, that are charmingly dainty, fresh and cool.

There are several appealing models arrayed for your choice—all effectively trimmed with pretty Val. laces. Long roll collars, vestees, jabot effects, clusters of fine pin tucks and short sleeves add attractiveness and desirability.

Tubable, and not so easily crumpled as a lingerie waist, they will prove a happy addition to your Summer wardrobe.

Have You Selected Summer Rugs?

HERE they are, cool, clean and fresh, quaintly decorative with their Japanese designs.

The prime requisite for Summer Floorcoverings are three—durability, colors and designs that suggest coolness.

As usual the Japanese send us original designs executed in strongly twisted grass, giving Rugs of smoothest texture. They are offered in oval and square shapes, with plain centers and floral borders, in cool-looking shades of green, natural tan, etc.

The Domestic Grass Rugs are also receiving their share of favor because of their durability and cool effects. They are here in all the wanted makes in various sizes—all moderately priced.

Japanese Reversible Rag Rugs are wholly lovely, with their striped centers and colorful floral borders, alike on both sides these Rugs cannot fail to appeal. An interesting fact about them is their pricing which is based on "long ago" market conditions. The savings offered you here are a decided advantage.

PROSECUTION OF COAL PROFITEERS ORDERED

District Attorneys Instructed to Seek Indictments Where Charges Are Made.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A drive on profiteers in bituminous coal was ordered today by Attorney-General Palmer.

All Federal District Attorneys were ordered to give special attention to charges of such profiteering and to seek indictment where investigation warranted.

"The Department of Justice," said Palmer's instructions, "is receiving a number of letters in which complaint is made that bituminous coal prices at the mines now range from $7 to $11 a ton, with a further increase imminent. The writers say that operators are attributing the advances in price to car shortage and export demand, emphasis being placed upon the export demand.

"Production cost figures gathered by the Federal Trade Commission from 1589 bituminous coal operators in the principal production regions mining about 60 per cent of the annual output, show that during January, 1920, their costs per ton average $2.32 at the mines. Since then there has been an increase of 27 per cent in the cost of labor enhancing the production cost to $2.79 per ton. The accuracy of these figures is borne out by information in letters coming to the department from purchasers of coal, from which it appear that prices in May did not greatly exceed those furnished to the Federal Trade Commission for January.

"This situation demands the prompt attention of all United States attorneys. Please give special attention to the matter and seek indictments where investigation disclose that an unreasonable profit has been taken, advising the department of the action taken."

MAN, 44, ARRESTED WHEN HE MEETS GIRL OF 13

Sam Nellis, 44 years old who told the police that he was a salesman for a phonograph and picture store on Franklin avenue, was arrested at 9 a. m. today at Broadway and Franklin avenue, when he appeared to keep an engagement he had arranged with 13-year-old Hazel Nicholson, whom he had seen yesterday afternoon at her father's home, 3136 Brantner place.

The girl was at the appointed place, but her father, Samuel Nicholson, accompanied by Detectives McKenna and Murphy, were waiting in the background. When Nellis approached the girl and handed her 50 cents, saying he would meet her a short time later, he was arrested.

The girl said that Nellis came to her home when she was alone yesterday afternoon, insisted on showing her some pictures of bathing girls and kissed her. He then asked her to meet him downtown and have her own picture taken, she said. She added that she consented to meet him in order to get him out of the house, and informed her father when he came home.

ENGLISH REPLACES GERMAN AS LUTHERAN CHURCH LANGUAGE

Evangelical Synod Asked to Provide $2,000,000 to Replace Concordia Seminary Here.

By the Associated Press.

DETROIT, Mich., June 17.—For the first time in the church's history English yesterday displaced the German language in the ceremonies of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod, which began its sixteenth triennial convention with 1000 delegates in attendance.

One recommendation laid before the first executive session proposed the expenditure of $2,000,000 for a new Seminary to replace Concordia Seminary at St. Louis. Another proposed establishment of a Lutheran "center" at New York.

Much interest centered in this proposal. The Lutheran "center," its sponsors estimated, would cost $100,000,000, of which New York City has agreed to raise $25,000,000. Favorable action on this recommendation, it was said, may mean removal of the Lutheran Printing House at St. Louis, and headquarters of the synodical president, now at Chicago, to New York.

ENGINEER HELD IN DEATH OF FIREMAN IN COLLISION

Verdict of Carlessness Returned—Engineer Testifies He Let Fireman Run Locomotive.

A. Bittner of 4562 Clarence avenue, a Terminal Railroad Association engineer, was held by a Coroner's jury today on a charge of carelessness in the death of F. W. Chambers, 24 years old, 2940 Prairie avenue, fireman of his engine, resulting from a collision of the engine with coal cars near Brooklyn, Ill., June 10. Chambers suffered scalds from escaping steam, dying yesterday in St. Mary's Infirmary.

The testimony was that the engine was proceeding from Madison to Brooklyn, where Bittner expected to be relieved, and that he permitted Chambers to run the engine while he began to change clothes in the cab. It further was testified that Chambers ran the engine past a block signal, which resulted in the collision.

Fined for Not Weighing Ice.

Two ice peddlers, Lennon Moltin of 3027 Easton avenue and Thomas Smith, 4211 West Belle place, were fined $5, stayed upon payment of costs, in Police Court this morning for selling ice without weighing it.

JOHNSON 'TRIMMED' HEFFNER IN DEAL, WITNESS TESTIFIES

CRUSE TOLD HEFFNER OF JOHNSON'S TRICK

Defendant Left Office and Did Not Return When Explanation Was Asked of Him—Self Defense Plea.

Testimony in the case of Willis S. Johnson of 4307 Maryland avenue, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Asa Heffner, 40 years old, of West Frankfort, Ill., who was shot by Johnson in the latter's real estate office in the De Menil Building, Seventh and Pine streets, Jan. 23 last, was resumed in Circuit Judge Garesche's court today.

Charles Cruse of Abilene, Kan., the first witness, related the details of a visit he and Heffner made to Johnson's office the day before the shooting. He and Johnson had been employed by Heffner in the picture-selling business up to 1912.

Cruse said that he had repeated to Heffner a remark made by Johnson to the effect that Johnson had "put the trimmings" on Heffner. The witness explained that the remark had reference to a business deal and that the amount of money involved was about $1000. He said that he had told Johnson "that was no way to treat an old friend."

Called on Johnson.

The witness testified that Heffner suggested that they call on Johnson. They came from West Frankfort to St. Louis Jan. 22 and went to Johnson's office. Cruse said that he repeated, in the presence of Johnson and Heffner, the remark that Johnson had made, and concluded by saying to Johnson: "Now, Farmer, don't you think you did Slim an injustice?"

At this point, Cruse testified, Johnson was summoned to another part of the building to answer a telephone call and did not return to his office. Cruse said that he and Heffner waited several hours and that when they departed Heffner said that he would call on Johnson the following day.

Did Not Demand Money.

Former Circuit Attorney Thomas B. Harvey, defending Johnson, asked the witness if it was not a fact that he and Heffner called on Johnson for the purpose of demanding money. The witness replied that no money was demanded in his presence. He said that Johnson, Heffner and himself had been "closer than brothers" up to the day before the shooting.

The State contends that when Heffner returned to Johnson's office the following day, Johnson drew a revolver and that Heffner struck him with a brass cuspidor in self-defense. The defense contends that Heffner attacked Johnson with the cuspidor and that Johnson shot him in self-defense.

EDWARD BURKE ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF MURDER

St. Louis Man Found Not Guilty of Killing Charles Bower in Mitchell, Ill.

A jury in the Madison County Circuit Court, at Edwardsville, acquitted Edward Burke, 1753 Preston place, St. Louis, of a charge of murdering Charles Bower of Edwardsville, in the railroad yards at Mitchell on April 3. Burke pleaded self-defense.

One witness testified that after the first shot fired by Burke, Bower said, "In the name of the Lord, Burke, don't shoot again," while another testified that he saw Burke shoot after Bower had made a sudden move.

PLAN CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Committee to Meet Saturday at Clayton to Make Arrangements.

Plans for a suitable celebration in St. Louis County of the centennial of Missouri's statehood—1820-1920—will be formulated at a meeting in Circuit courtroom No. 1 at Clayton, Saturday at 2 p. m. One hundred representative citizens of the county have been appointed on the Arrangements Committee.

Judge McElhinney of Clayton, Enos Clarke and William V. Byars of Kirkwood are the three living members of the Centennial Committee of St. Louis County. Philander P. Lewis of Crescent and William L. Thomas of Maplewood, both deceased, were members of the committee.

NO JURY CASES THIS SUMMER

Twelve Civil Trials Go Over to Fall Because of Heat.

Announcement was made yesterday afternoon by Judge Falkenhainer, assignment Judge in the Circuit Court, that because of the heat he would not assign any more jury cases for trial this week. He said that it was unfair to jurors to compel them to serve.

As this was the last week for trial of jury cases before the October term, 12 cases, which were on the docket for this week and which had not yet been assigned, were continued generally.

PETTIS COUNTY COURTHOUSE BURNS WITH $100,000 LOSS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SEDALIA, Mo., June 17.—Pettis County's Courthouse, erected in 1884 at a cost of $100,000, was destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The blaze originated from a blowtorch being used by a tinner on the dome and within 15 minutes from the time the fire alarm sounded the dome toppled over, crashing through the floors beneath. The fire was fanned by a stiff breeze, making it impossible for the fire fighters to check the flames, which threatened to spread to other buildings through burning embers carried by the wind. The Courthouse was one of the finest in Missouri and was of Carthage stone.

When the fire was finally checked only the walls remained. County records were quickly locked in vaults and were saved. Insurance was carried in the sum of $75,000. According to estimates it would entail an expenditure of $350,000 or more to construct a new courthouse as good as the one burned. The library of the Pettis County Bar Association on the second floor was destroyed. It was considered one of the most complete and finest procurable.

FIVE IDENTIFY STOLEN GOODS FOUND IN GIRL'S ROOM

West End Residents Whose Homes Were Robbed Pick Out Jewelry and Clothing.

Jewelry and clothing found by the police in rooms occupied by William O. Holland and Joseph Pickett, at 3894 Windsor place, and in the room of Goldie Storer, 3534 Washington avenue, have been identified by five householders whose homes have been robbed by burglars in the last month. Those who have identified the property are: Alex J. Ketter, 6028 Waterman avenue; Edward J. Jarrett, 415 Belt avenue; Mrs. G. Eich, 4042 Arsenal street; Frank Eilers, 5350 Lansdowne avenue, and Edwin H. Gordon, 1148 Blackstone avenue.

Warrants charging burglary and larceny have been issued against the men. The girl is held under bond. The men deny having taken part in burglaries, and say they bought the articles.

Removes Hairy Growths Without Pain or Bother

(Modes of Today)

It is not necessary to use a painful process to remove hairy growths, for with a little delatone handy you can keep the skin entirely free from these beauty destroyers. To remove hair, make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatone and water. Spread this on the hairy surface, and in about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. To guard against disappointment, be careful to get real delatone.

Remodeling Sale

We Are Selling

Player-Pianos Now

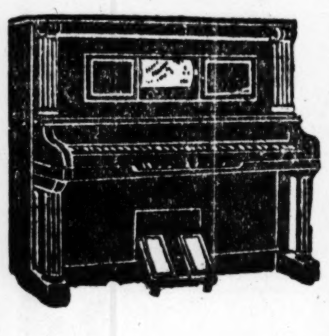
at much lower prices than they will ever be sold again in St. Louis.

New Player-Pianos as Low as $495

The terms are lower than they ever will be again. We are remodeling our entire building, that's why we are forced to do this.

Buy Now and Save From $100 to $200.

The Wurlitzer Building is being remodeled into the most comprehensive and beautiful music house in the entire West. We must make a sweeping clearance of our immense stock of Player-Pianos and Pianos and are making terrific cuts in prices rather than run a chance of having these instruments marred or damaged while reconstruction work is going on.



Here are a few features that will make Wurlitzer a byword in St. Louis for all that pertains to the modern music house appointments:

The ground floor will be remodeled with marble floors, beautiful wall cases for band instruments. This Band Instrument Department when completed will be such as never shown in St. Louis before.

15 sound-proof Victrola Record rooms where the public can sit in comfort.

Three quick service Record counters which will be an innovation in St. Louis.

Our offices will be on the mezzanine floor, enabling us to use the ground floor exclusively for salesrooms.

Second Floor. One large room exclusively for Grand Pianos, where a hundred Grands will be on display.

Third Floor. Individual rooms for Reproducing Pianos, the like of which never were shown in St. Louis before.

Fourth Floor. Six individual rooms for Band Instruments of all descriptions, and old Violins; also a display of Artstyle Victrolas.

We will have at all times a display of old Violins such as were never shown in St. Louis before.

POLITICS PLAYS PART IN WOMEN'S CONVENTION

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 17.—The biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs is in full swing. Three million women are affiliated with the organization. Several thousand are in attendance. Miss Mary Garrett Hay, New York, oracle of Republican women, is a prominent figure here. Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Texas, Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president International Council of Women and past president of General Federation, are to be present. Mrs. George Bass will stop for part of the session on her way to the San Francisco Democratic convention.

The council meeting held yesterday afternoon discussed depriving individual clubs of membership in the original federation, giving only indirect representation at the biennials. Officers seem to favor it, while rank and file of club women regard it as undemocratic. The Missouri delegates held a caucus and decided to oppose the reduction of membership by that method.

There are two political pots boiling; one pertains to the election of the president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the other to the election of the President of the United States.

G. O. P. Convention Echoes.

There are constant echoes of the Chicago Republican convention by delegates who were there. Miss Hay declares early and often that the men gave the women a "raw" deal, but says they did not mean to, they just forgot them. She is firmer than ever on the point that women should get into the parties and stick to them.

The Massachusetts delegation was set to put Miss Georgia Bacon over as president. Minnesota is offering Mrs. Alice Ames Winter. Missouri women are nearly all wearing Winter buttons. They consider Mrs. Winter a fine representative of the up-to-the-minute Middle West leader. The St. Louis delegation wins praise on every hand. The Wednesday Club sends the largest delegation of all the clubs in the State. They have six. The Atheneum of Kansas City sends four. Many clubs have two and three.

Missouri Well Represented.

The special from St. Louis brought women from Farmington, Poplar Bluff, Sikeston and Cape Girardeau. Mrs. Ess of Kansas City is on the war-path about press reports. She claims that no man-made newspaper has ever done justice to a woman's convention. "They seize on the fantastic and trivial," she said to a Post-Dispatch representative, "and the reading public never hears of the big things we do and consider."

She was informed that the Post-Dispatch had told its representative to tell of the big things. Many papers are represented here.

Soft Drink Dealers and Picture Theater Proprietors Have Chance to Correct Mistakes.

Soft drink dealers and moving picture theater proprietors who may have turned in less money than the Government was entitled to, will be permitted for the next few days to file amended returns with the local Internal Revenue office. "The policy," it is officially announced, "will be one of leniency."

That is, the Government will be lenient in cases where the amount is voluntarily paid, before the Government's investigators have to go after it. If it is left to the investigators to discover it, prosecutions will follow.

D. N. Houston, special supervisor of the Internal Revenue Department, arrived in St. Louis a few days ago, to begin the investigation into the withholding of payments due the Government on beverages, theater and picture show admissions, and all sales of articles on which special war taxes are imposed.

A number of men transferred from other cities were sent here to help him, the plan being to use men not known to the persons whose returns are being investigated. A similar movement is being carried on, at the same time, in other places, and the campaign is expected to result in the collecting of several millions of dollars in delinquent taxes and penalties. The total force engaged in the work is 2000 men.

U. S. DID NOT PROTEST AGAINST TRADE RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA

Lloyd George Tells Commons Washington Knew of San Remo Decision.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 17.—Robert Underwood Johnson, the American Ambassador to Italy, was in attendance at the allied conference in San Remo when the decision was taken to enter into commercial relations with Russia, and no protest in this connection has been received from the American Government, Premier Lloyd George told the House of Commons this evening. The Washington Government, said the Premier, had been kept informed of the progress of the conversations, an dit had nominated an expert to take part in the economic discussions.

Lloyd George added that Japan and Belgium had intimated their intention of participating in the conversations being held with Gregory Krassin, the Bolshevik Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Auto Victim Leaves 7 Orphans.

By the Associated Press.

MUSCATINE, Ia., June 17.—Albert Russell Van Dusen, 33 years old, of Wilton, was instantly killed and Fred Burkiman, a Moscow farmer, was seriously injured when the car in which they were riding was struck by the Chicago & Omaha westbound train No. 7, at a crossing west of Moscow late Wednesday afternoon. Van Dusen leaves seven motherless children.

Aircraft Board for Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 17.—A Department of Aircraft was established by an ordinance passed yesterday by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. It provides for a commission of seven to examine air pilots and issue licenses, an aircraft inspector, punishment of violators and aerial "rules of the road."

Miss Florence Markham

GARDEN PARTY TO BE ELABORATE AFFAIR

About 250 Guests Will Attend in Honor of Misses Rose and Ruth Muckerman.

ONE of the largest garden parties of the summer will be given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Muckerman at their home, 4464 West Pine boulevard, in honor of their daughters, Misses Rose and Ruth Muckerman. The spacious lawn will be illuminated by colored lights and Japanese lanterns and the tennis court will be covered with tarpaulin for dancing.

The orchestra will be on the edge of the tennis court, under a large Japanese parasol and scattered about the lawn will be garden swings of green and white to add to the summery effect. The guests, numbering about 250, will be almost entirely of the debutante and school sets.

Mr. and Mrs. Muckerman and their daughters will depart in July on their summer trip.

Miss Ruth Muckerman was graduated last week from Miss White's school and will go East in the fall to continue her studies.

Social Items

The engagement of Miss Gladys Udell and Edward Burr Orr was announced yesterday at a tea given by Miss Udell at her home for about 30 guests.

Miss Udell is the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Udell of 5323 Vernon avenue, with whom she has made her home for several years. She has been in the service organization of the Red Cross for two years, and is a graduate of the University of Missouri, and a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Mr. Orr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Orr of 3231 Lafayette avenue, and was graduated at the University of Wisconsin.

The wedding will probably take place in the fall.

Mrs. F. W. Markham of 715 Central avenue, Clayton, and her daughter, Miss Florence Markham, will depart on a motor trip July 5 to Delavan, Wis., where they will spend the summer. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Markham's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ruler of Clayton.

Mrs. Stanley M. Masters and her daughter, Miss Jane Masters of the St. Regis Apartments, have departed for Spring Lake, N. J., where they have taken a cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Claggett of 5155 Lindell boulevard, and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Claggett, will depart July 1 for Wequetonsing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hurd of 6379 Waterman avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goddard of Brentmoor and their family will depart today for Detroit to attend the wedding of Mrs. Goddard's brother, Floyd Augustine, to Miss Mildred McDonnell, which will take place June 19 in Detroit.

Miss Marian Shanks has chosen June 19 as the date of her marriage to Herbert W. Meinholtz. Miss Shanks is the daughter of Mrs. H. M. Shanks of 768 Clara avenue.

The marriage of Miss Grace Bissland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bissland of 6002 Maple avenue, and Thomas Watson takes place this afternoon at 4:30 at the West Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Lampe officiating.

The bride will be attended by two flower girls, Misses Helen Brooks and Dorothy Ann Campbell, and Samuel B. Watson Jr., brother of the bridegroom, will be best man.

The bride's gown is in orchid georgette of an afternoon model and a hat of the same material. She will carry a shower bouquet.

Mr. Watson is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Watson of St. Charles. The couple will reside in St. Charles.

Mrs. J. C. Norris of 5271 Waterman avenue and her daughter and son will depart this week for Lowell, N. C., where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. M. C. Younglove of 320 Skinker road, and her daughter, Miss Mary Platt Younglove, will depart about July 1 for Castle Park, Mich., where they have a cottage. Miss Younglove is expected home today from Smith College.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Esserman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Esserman of 5555 Pershing avenue, and Edward Glik took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents. The guests were limited to the immediate members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Glik will pass their honeymoon in Estes Park. On their return they will be at home at 754 Westgate avenue.

:Miss Madalyn Ewing of Nevada, Mo., is the guest of Mrs. Charles C. French of 6015 Pershing avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shapleigh of Santa Monica, Cal., will depart tomorrow for their home, after having been the guests of Mrs. J. Will Boyd of 4623 Pershing avenue.

EVELYN NESBIT SEEKS DIVORCE

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Evelyn Nesbit, once the wife of Harry K. Thaw, began yesterday a counter suit for divorce against her husband, Virgil James Montagni, better known on the stage as Jack Clifford. Clifford served Miss Nesbit in a divorce action not long ago.

The plaintiff in the cross-suit, like her husband, named a corespondent. In fact, Miss Nesbit named two. Both are well known moving picture stars. They are generally regarded as being exceptionally handsome women. Miss Nesbit said that one of the alleged co-respondents is now at the Clifford summer camp at Merrill, the Adirondacks.

KOPLARS ARE SUED BY THEATER CORPORATION

Failure to Comply With Sale Agreement Transferring 16 Picture Houses Alleged.

The Famous Players' Missouri Corporation, a holding concern for moving picture theater properties, has filed suit against Harry Koplar and his three brothers, Sam, Nat and Sol Koplar, and against several theater companies, to compel them to comply with an agreement for the transfer of titles and leases to the Famous Players.

Sixteen theaters and three airdomes were involved in the $1,250,000 deal, the Famous Players Corporation alleges, and of these the airdomes and three theaters have not been transferred in compliance with the terms of the agreement. It is asked that the defendants be required to transfer the titles and leases. The three theaters are the Cherokee, Royal and Arco, and the airdomes are the Rex, Russell and Compton.

Koplar's Story of Deal.

Harry Koplar's story of the deal for the 19 amusement places, in which he built up a dominant interest from a beginning of one 5-cent tent show, has been told in recent issues of the Post-Dispatch. He has represented that he suffered heavy loss through his failure to insist that certain parts of the agreement be placed in writing.

The corporation alleges that $25,000 is due to Fred L. Cornwell, an attorney, for commissions in the deal, and that $15,000 is due to Max Goldstein. Cornwell has been named by Koplar as having persuaded him to accept verbal assurances, which Koplar declares have not been carried out.

The corporation, it is stated, took possession of the theaters March 20, under its contract. It is declared that the Koplars have failed to carry out their agreement, and have interfered with the corporation in its occupation and control of the houses. The Court is asked to prevent further interference. The corporation alleges that it has made the payments on the purchase price, $100,000 thus far, and has paid bills and other obligations.

Previous Suit Filed.

The corporation has previously filed suit to restrain the Koplars from interfering with the management of some of the theater properties.

The plaintiffs in the case are the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, the Famous Players Missouri Corporation, the Greater Amusement Co., the William Goldman Amusement and Investment Co., Maxwelton Amusement Co., Sam Hamburg Jr., William Goldman, Delmonte Investment Co. and Fred L. Cornwell. Hamburg is a brother-in-law of the Koplar brothers, and he and Goldman were formerly associated with the Koplars in the Consolidated Theaters Co.

ARKANSAS GOVERNOR FOR OWEN

Announces He Will Second Oklahoman's Nomination at San Francisco.

By the Associated Press.

MUSKOGEE, Ok., June 17.—Gov. Charles P. Brough of Arkansas said in an address here last night he would second the nomination of Robert L. Owen for the presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket at San Francisco and would work for Owen's nomination.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 17.—It was announced here today that Mrs. T. T. Cotnam of Little Rock, one of the Arkansas delegates at large to the Democratic national convention, has been chosen to address the convention, seconding the nomination of Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer for the presidential nomination. Mrs. Cotnam is president of the Arkansas League of Women Voters and has been in charge of the Palmer Western headquarters for women in Chicago.

NAVY SCHOOLS FOR YOUTHS

Boys 16 to 20 Can Join Reserves for Six Weeks' Instruction Course.

The navy has established two experimental summer schools, at Great Lakes, Ill., and Hampton Roads, Va., for boys from 16 to 20 years of age. The number of boys accepted from Missouri will be 71. The schools will open July 15. The course will be six weeks, and will be largely instruction in physical development. To take advantage of the course boys must enroll in the U. S. Naval Reserve and pass a physical examination. High character qualifications will be insisted on.

Parents' consent will be necessary. It is probable that all boys will be disenrolled at the expiration of the course. Uniforms will be furnished and boys will be paid $33 per month for period of enrollment. Applications and all further information can be had at the navy recruiting station, Seventh and Chestnut streets.

HAS BEEN PASTOR 60 YEARS

The oldest active Evangelical minister in the United States, the Rev. Henry Buchmueller, yesterday was honored at his Red Bud, Ill., home with a gathering participated in by about 300 ministers and old friends.

The Rev. Mr. Buchmueller, who is in charge of the church at Red Bud, Ill., last Saturday observed the sixtieth anniversary of his ordination as a minister. He is 83 years old, and his wife is 81. Both are in exceptional health. In his three score years as a minister he has had only five pastorates—at Cappelin, Mo.; Eleroy, Nashville, Millstadt and Red Bud, Ill.

The three sons of the Rev. and Mrs. Buchmueller are connected with ministerial work, and their two daughters are the wives of ministers.

MEAUX WATER MILLS BURN

Wheat and Flour Worth Several Million Francs Lost in Blaze.

By the Associated Press

MEAUX, France, June 17.—The great flour mills on the Marne, just outside Meaux, took fire early today and all hope of saving them was abandoned, the firemen confining their efforts to an attempt to save adjacent buildings.

The celebrated water mills, which were built at least a century ago, survived the battle of the Marne. They were constructed on pile work in the center of the river. The mills were filled with wheat and flour valued at several million francs which will be a total loss.

CHARGES WIFE KISSED ANOTHER

Eugene R. Methudy Files Amended Petition in Suit for Divorce

Eugene R. Methudy, president of an automobile tire service company, yesterday filed an amended petition charging that his wife, Edna, whom he is suing for divorce, remained after dark on the golf links of a club in St. Louis County with a male companion and that they were seen to embrace and kiss.

Methudy also avers that his wife wanted to be divorced and suggested that he make a cash settlement. The Methudy home was at 1722 Waverly place.

FRANCE AIDED BY ROCKEFELLER

Donations to Fight Tuberculosis $1,600,000 a Year Since 1917.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, June 17.—Donations averaging 8,000,000 francs (normally $1,600,000)) per year have been made by the Rockefeller Foundation since 1917 for the purpose of carrying on the campaign against tuberculosis in France, according to a statement made by the Maurice de Rothschild during a debate in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

During this time 5,000,000 pamphlets have been distributed, and more than a million persons have heard lectures on the subject of tuberculosis.

SIX CLERKS SAY THEY WERE HELD UP IN FRISCO OFFICES

Men Working Overtime Report Being Robbed of More Than $300 on Seventh Floor of Building.

Six Frisco railroad clerks employed in an office on the seventh floor of the Frisco Building, Ninth and Olive streets, went to police headquarters about 8 o'clock last night and reported that at 7:20 p. m. they were held up and robbed in the office by two men with revolvers.

The clerks and their reported losses were: George Dedert, 1926 Clara avenue, $93; Charles Pratt, 1813 Nebraska avenue, $92; James E. Basham, 1813 Nebraska avenue, $61; Harry J. Brown, 5945 Lillian avenue, $45; Alfred Bradgett, Wheaton, St. Louis County, $9 and Harry J. Stadin, 2420 Ferry street, $2.50 and a gold watch valued at $150.

Yesterday was payday for the clerks and most of them had their wages in their pockets when the robbers entered. The clerks said they were working overtime.

Stadin told policemen he attempted to put his watch in a water cooler to prevent the robbers from getting it but it fell to the floor and one of the robbers said: "Pick that up and give it to me or I'll plug you." He obeyed, he said, but while stooping to pick up the watch he put a diamond ring down his shirt collar, thus saving it. Bradgett said he saved a purse containing $63 by throwing it behind a radiator.

The clerks described the robbers as being coatless and without collars. They said that after the robbery the thieves got in an elevator and pointed revolvers at Maude Bland, the elevator conductor, a negress, and forced her to stop at the third floor, where they got out and went down the stairway.

175 CHILDREN ON FIRST INDUSTRIAL FARM OUTING

Appeal for Support for Institution Near Eureka Made by President.

The first outing of the Children's Industrial Farm Association started this morning, when 175 children, ranging from 6 to 12 years old, were taken to the farm near Eureka, Mo., for a vacation of two weeks. Miss Edna Newcomb, in charge of the Hearthfire Girls, will be at the farm during the season.

Children who took the trip were accompanied by the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Low, Julia Wegman, Julia Burdette, Gertrude Garvin, Irene Kimble, and Lillian Kissing. The party left at 7:50 o'clock over the Frisco. The children were sent by the Jewish Alliance, Greeley Memorial Church, Niedringhaus Social Settlement, Meyer Dental Clinic, Holy Communion Church, Neighborhood House and Kingdom House.

President Frank Wyman has issued an appeal for funds for the support of the farm, which contains 82 acres and 41 buildings, and states that it now costs $10 to give each child a fortnight's stay at the place instead of the $5 which formerly sufficed.

NEGRO JANITOR ROBBED OF $254

Oglin Guthrie, negro janitor in apartments at 3737 Washington boulevard, told policemen yesterday that $254 had been stolen from a shelf in a basement room there a short time after he met a strange negro who displayed what he claimed was $1100 and was advised to put it in the bank by Guthrie, who took the stranger to his rooms to show him his bank book as a recommendation to a "good bank."

Try a cheese dish on Friday

FRIDAY is now Cheese Day, instead of Fish Day. We are learning that cheese is a most nourishing "meat food" supplying all the body and strength building elements of lean beef in condensed form.

Kraft Cheese in Tins is the sanitary new way to buy cheese. It is the cleanest, most convenient and wasteless way. Kraft Cheese is sterilized, blended to insure uniform quality, then packed and sealed in parchment lined air-tight tins. It will keep in any climate.

Kraft Cheese can be served uncooked, it is just right to spread, or it can be prepared in scores of delicious ways. It comes in 8 delicious varieties, Cheddar, Pimento, Chile, Rarebit, Swiss, Roquefort, Camembert and Limburger. At all dealers in foodstuffs.

To Have Curly, Wavy Hair "Like Nature's Own"

In three hours you can have just the prettiest curls and waves! And they remain a long time, when liquid silmerine is used before doing up the hair. When the hair is combed out it will be nice and fluffy. Silmerine is perfectly harmless, of course, and is easily applied with a clean toothbrush. It can be obtained at drug stores and at toilet counters generally, directions accompanying each bottle. It serves also as a splendid dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy.

Silmerine is fine for the outdoor girl, as it prevents the hair from stringing about the face and neck, even when the day is quite warm or windy.

REFINERIES TO PRO RATE SUGAR TO FRUIT CANNING CONCERNS

Head of Preservers Predicts Output of Jam and Jelly Will Be Increased 40 Per Cent.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Distribution of sugar to preserve manufacturing and canning concerns pro rata, according to refinery capacity, was determined upon at yesterday's conference between A. W. Reilly, special assistant to Attorney-General Palmer; Marcus Blakemore of Louisville, Ky., president of the National Preservers' and Fruit Products Association, and representatives of two large sugar refineries.

Blakemore wired the members of his association, which is said to represent 90 per cent of the jam and jelly output of America, that "therefore the sugar crisis is ended, as refineries have agreed promptly to supply sugar where needs are urgent."

He pointed out at the conference that sugar represents 60 per cent of finished jam and jelly products. He predicted that as a result of the refineries' agreement, there would be an increase of 40 per cent in the output of those products next winter.

W. H. TABACNIC NOT ARRESTED IN STOLEN GOLF BALL INQUIRY

Druggist, Upon Learning 23 Balls He Had Purchased Were Stolen, Surrendered Them to Police.

The Post Dispatch on June 8, in connection with an account of the arrest of druggists on charges of buying stolen golf balls, incorrectly stated that among those arrested was W. H. Tabacnic, proprietor of a drug store at 5898 Delmar boulevard.

The fact was that 23 golf balls, stolen from golf clubs by former caddies, were turned over to the police by Tabacnic. There was no charge against him. Tabacnic explained that three boys offered the balls, saying they had received them for caddying.

Chief of Police Kills Man.

By the Associated Press.

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill., June 17.—Frank E. Slanker of Mount Carmel, engineer, employed by the Big Four Railroad, was shot and killed in the business district here yesterday by J. M. Bunn, Chief of Police. The shooting followed an argument brought about, according to Bunn, by remarks he asserts Slanker made about Bunn's family. Bunn surrendered to the Sheriff, and was removed from Mount Carmel for safe-keeping.

F. L. WENDLER RELEASED FROM FEDERAL PENITENTIARY

Former Barr & Widen Official Had Served 2 Years and 8 Months of 8 Years' Sentence.

Frederick L. Wendler, formerly of 5615 Bartmer avenue, was released today from the Leavenworth Federal penitentiary, according to a message received from him by his brother-in-law, Harry M. Bohn, president of the Bohn-Lenartz Commission Co. Wendler has served two years and eight months of an eight years' sentence, following his conviction in Chicago with eight other officials of the Barr & Widen Mercantile Agency, on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Wendler's message to his brother-in-law did not say whether he had been released on parole or had obtained a commutation of his sentence. Bohn was active last winter in endeavoring to obtain Wendler's release, and visited Washington for that purpose.

Wendler said in his telegram that he would be in St. Louis tomorrow.

The Barr & Widen Co. did a collection business, and it was alleged in the trial of Wendler and the other defendants, that it represented itself, in its advertising, as being able to obtain money for creditors from bankrupt concerns. This promise, it was charged, was not fulfilled.

Joseph B. Widen, one of the founders of the agency, killed himself after the investigation into the company's affairs began.

ST. MARY'S ASYLUM BENEFIT

A patriotic reunion and picnic for the benefit of the St. Mary's Asylum, a Catholic orphanage for girls, will be held July 5, according to plans made by the parishoners of 36 Catholic churches, in the north end of the city, last night at St. Teresa's Hall, Grand avenue and North Market street. Members of South End churches also met to formulate plans for a benefit outing for the St. Joseph Boys' Orphan Asylum.

St. Louis was recently divided into two sections, north and south, for the purpose of facilitating charity work for the two orphan asylums. The North End has undertaken to raise money to pay the indebtedness of St. Mary's Asylum, and the South End will do the same for St. Joseph's. Tickets for the picnics will be distributed among the parishes.

DEMOCRATS WANT GRAVES TO HELP DRAW PLATFORM

St. Louis Delegates to San Francisco Propose Supreme Court Judge for Member of Resolutions Committee.

A movement upon the part of St. Louis delegates to the Democratic national convention in San Francisco to bring about the election of Judge W. W. Graves of the Missouri Supreme Court, a delegate-at-large to the convention, as the Missouri member of the platform committee, will be opposed by the Missouri Anti-Saloon League and by "dry" rural members of the delegation, according to information which reached St. Louis today.

Judge Graves is known as an advocate of a moist plank in the platform, and has told friends in private conversations that he believed any party which "had the nerve" to include a beer and light wine plank would sweep the country.

State Senator Kinney is a promoter of Graves for membership on the platform committee, and is understood to have all of the St. Louis delegates and "wet" delegates from out in the State with him.

Woman May Oppose Graves.

The "drys," whose opposition to Graves probably will be directed by the Rev. W. C. Shupp, superintendent of the Missouri Anti-Saloon League, have not definitely picked upon a delegate to oppose Graves for the committee place, but they are reported to be considering running a woman against Graves, probably Mrs. Charles F. Carter of Kirksville, a delegate from the First District, and the wife of former State Senator Carter, who, for two sessions, was the "dry" leader of the Missouri Senate.

The Rev. Mr. Shupp is on his way to San Francisco, where, in addition to directing the dry fight in the Missouri delegation, he will join with other Anti-Saloon League superintendents in an effort to get a strict law enforcement plank in the platform.

To Meet in Kansas City.

The members of the Missouri delegation and other Missourians who will attend the San Francisco convention will gather in Kansas City Monday and Tuesday, and will depart at 3 p. m. Tuesday in a special train, over the Missouri Pacific, for San Francisco, arriving there the following Friday. About 200 reservations for the train have been made.

Arrangements for the train are in the hands of Joseph T. Davis, acting for Edward F. Goltra, National Committeeman from Missouri. There will be a stop of one hour at Glenwood Springs, Colo., and three hours in Salt Lake City, where a concert in the Mormon Temple will be attended.

CALL OF COMMITTEE BY COLE IS RECEIVED LIGHTLY

Republicans Insisting on "Housecleaning" Say Move of Chairman Is Impotent.

Announcement by W. L. Cole, chairman of the Republican State Committee that he will call a meeting of the committee to inquire into the campaign fund transactions of Republican candidates for Governor and United States Senator was received lightly by the Republicans, who are insisting upon a party "housecleaning." They insist that Cole's effort to direct the guns of the State Committee upon those who have subjected him and National Committeeman Babler to criticism is impotent, for the reason that the committee has no power to subpena witnesses or in other ways force testimony before it.

They assert that the only investigating the committee can do is into the behavior of Cole and the six committeemen who accepted money from presidential candidates. Cole admits having taken $1250 from Senator Harding's campaign manager, and E. L. (Liv) Morse, Lowden paymaster in Missouri, has said that Cole took $500 of Lowden money. Cole has said he thought the $500 was a personal contribution from Morse.

Cole departed last night for Columbus, O., to complete his transaction with Harry M. Daugherty, Harding manager, to whom he said he would return the unexpected portion of the $1250. He did not say how much is left.

The "housecleaning" committee met in the office of former Circuit Judge Matt G. Reynolds in the Central National Bank Building this afternoon to prepare a communication to the State Committee.

Only two women members of the committee attended the meeting, Mrs. Frank B. Hayes, 5555 Pershing avenue, and Mrs. Robert Atkinson, vice president of the Republican Women's Club, but with their approval and that of, Mrs. Virginia Harris, Republican City Committeewoman from the Twelfth Ward, Reynolds wrote a letter to Cole, requesting a meeting of the State committee to go into campaign fund transactions as far as the committee's powers would permit.

Salesman Dies on His Porch.

Luke Cates, for many years a traveling salesman for a Cincinnati wholesale clothing company, died suddenly of apoplexy at his home, 340 Gray avenue, Webster Groves, last evening. He was sitting on the front porch when he was stricken and died almost at once. He would have been 65 years old today. Mrs. Cates and a daughter, Mrs. George Pisker of 5649 Kingsbury boulevard, survive.

ONE-DOLLAR RIVER OUTINGS
—Refreshingly Different

Too crowded. Late in starting. Everybody scrambling for chairs. Not enough tables. Dance floor packed—hot, too. Return delayed. All tired out—rather stay home.

You'd "give anything" for a different kind of outing. One dollar (including war tax) for adults and children is all you need give. Then ho! for those daily De Luxe Outings aboard the —Passengers strictly limited to one-half capacity.

New Steamer J. S.

—No organizations on De Luxe Outings No passes. No free tickets.
—Starts on the stroke of the clock. 25c refunded if 15 minutes late in returning.

Two Armholes Weren't Enough—for Jenny!

So she put three in this brick-coloured velours de laine coat—a grateful surprise in a blasé world.

It doesn't require an extra half-Parisienne either, for it goes twice over the right arm and once over the left, and then buttons so as to exhibit some of its foulard lining.

But of course if you prefer a travelling coat with the orthodox number of armholes—one that you just put on, instead of walking into—

You'll find it, together with capes in plaids and pleats with no armholes at all, new clothes and accessories for sport and travel, evening and daytime wear, in the

VOGUE

In this issue Paris travels in frocks and wraps of cool fabrics and soft colours. And Jenny, Beer, Lanvin, Piquet, and others show models in misty grey tulle, beaded taffeta, silver and chiffon, for the dining-and-dancing stay-at-homes.

The couturiers of New York, as well as the great designers of Paris, help to fill this issue of Vogue with their creations for travel, touring, and the diverse gaieties of midsummer.

Photographs of the two most important New York weddings, an article on airplaning and its appropriate clothes, the place of taffeta in a Paris Summer, a page of transparent hats hid in lace—in this issue of Vogue.

And—just to be thorough!—there's "Seen in the Shops", "Vogue Patterns", sketches and articles about Paris and New York, "Dressing on a Limited Income", and the usual authoritative reviews of art, music, and the stage.

All shoes in our Stores were made from leathers and materials purchased long before the high peak was reached in leather prices.

Many years ago I decided that the best way to protect my customers against excessive profits was to stamp a fair and square retail price on the soles of my store shoes, based on the actual factory cost of labor and materials.

By enlarging my production from year to year I have been able to keep this selling price remarkably low in spite of the greatly increased cost of all materials and labor.

I have always felt that it was better policy to make many shoes at a low profit than a few shoes at a larger profit.

Emerson Shoes are not marked up at one season of the year just to hold so-called "Marked Down Sales" at another season. I never ask you to pay more for a shoe than it is actually worth.

The fact that I have increased my sales TEN TIMES in the past six years is proof positive that the general public appreciates this policy.

Come into our store and put this to the test. Inspect our styles and prices,—and if you aren't convinced that you are getting more for your money in Emerson Shoes than in any others, I will not expect or want you to buy.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS WITH CITY FOR AVIATION FIELD

Tract in Forest Park Near Mounted Police Station to be Used as Mail Plane Landing.

A formal contract between the city and the Federal Government, which provides that the landing field for mail airplanes, which will be loaned by the city on a tract west of the Mounted District Police Station in Forest Park, shall be used for no other purposes except those of the postal department, was drawn up yesterday at a conference between Mayor Kiel, Associate City Counselor Hamilton, Park Commissioner Pape, Postmaster Selph and J. Agee, a representative of the aerial mail service.

While the approval of the Board of Police Commissioners will be required to the contract, the Police Department has already permitted the Government to erect a steel hangar adjacent to the site.

Mayor Kiel explained that a specific contract was desired on account of the experience of the city in loaning the former city infirmary to the Government. It was understood that this was to be used for wounded soldiers during the war period only, but Government emergencies have compelled its continued use by the Federal authorities.

The contract, as agreed on yesterday, provides that the Forest Pork site, if abandoned as a mail landing field, shall revert at once to the city. The property, in that event, will be restored to its original condition by the Government.

DUTCH GEOLOGIST BUYS BRENTMOOR PARK RESIDENCE

Willem A. J. M. Van Waterschoot Van Der Gracht, president of the Roxana Petroleum Corporation, an American subsidiary of the Royal Dutch Shell Group, has purchased the residence of Stanley Stoner at 6 Brentmoor Park, and will make his home there.

He is a noted geologist and is a past president of the Geological Society of the Netherlands, a fellow of the Geological Society of London and member of the Geological Societies of France, Germany and Belgium. He has written a number of books on technical subjects in Dutch, English and German. "The Deeper Geology of the Netherlands" is the best known of his works. He is a mining engineer and petroleum expert, and has served the Dutch Government and private companies in Europe, the East, Africa, South America, the East Indies and the United States.

The Royal Dutch Shell Group took over the Roxana Petroleum Co. of Oklahoma in 1915 and recently moved the headquarters from Tulsa to the Arcade Building here.

Van Der Gracht was born in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1873, the son of a Senator of the Netherlands. His wife was Josephine, Baroness Hammer-Purgstall of Graz, Styria. They have four children, Idesbald, Arthur, Walter and Marie-Gisele. Idesbald, who is 18 years old, just finished his first year at Washington University. The family will occupy the Stoner home in the autumn. It is a two-story white stucco residence in a two-acre park. The purchase price is understood to have been in excess of $50,000, much more than the cost of erection eight years ago.

The Stoners have gone to Colorado Springs, Colo., for a year or more. Van Der Gracht has been living at 6481 Ellenwood avenue, the home of David O'Neil, who is now in California.

ARMY OF HARVESTERS BRINGS IN OKLAHOMA GRAIN CROPS

Farmers Face Storage Problem Caused by Acute Car Shortage.

By the Associated Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., June 16.—The song of the mower and the header is being heard throughout the Southwest and under the hot June sun the army of harvesters is "knee deep" gathering the 1920 grain crops.

Like a great wave, the horde of harvesters that has come from all parts of the country to garner Oklahoma's grain will sweep northward as the fields turn golden and are ready for the sickle. Cutting already is in progress in the southern fringe of Kansas and the season will be in full swing in that State by June 20, according to Federal and State agricultural authorities.

Oklahoma wheat went into the harvest with a condition estimated by the State and Federal co-operative crop reporting service at 83 per cent of normal. It was expected at that time that 35,000,000 bushels of grain would be harvested, as compared to an estimate of 27,000,000 bushels a month ago.

The problem of storing the larger part of the 1920 grain crops in the State confronts the farmer this year, owing to an acute car shortage. A State-wide campaign has been conducted to interest bankers and business men in financing the farmers to enable them to construct adequate storage facilities. Twenty-five thousand new elevators are needed to hold the crop, according to John A. Whitehurst, president of the State Board of Agriculture, and 5,000,000 bushels of the 1919 crop still remain to be moved.

TURKS ATTACK BRITISH TROOPS

By the Associated Press.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 17.—Turkish nationalist troops yesterday attacked a company of British Indian troops on the Ismid front who were withdrawing under an agreement. The Turks wounded 30 and captured a rBitish intelligence officer.

Reinforcements were sent to the assistance of the Indians, while warships kept the Turks off by shelling their positions.

Baldness Conquered

A veteran business man, who was almost completely bald and had tried tonics, lotions, shampoos, etc., in vain, came across an Indians' elixir by which he grew a complete crop of healthy hair he now possesses. The hair elixir is called "KOTALKO." Others—men and women—have reported remarkable aid to hair growth, relief from dandruff, cessation of falling hair by using Kotalko.

When Bald

In a vast number of cases, when hair falls out, the roots are not dead, but remain for some time imbedded in the scalp, like seeds or bulbs, needing only fertility. The usual hair tonics, etc., are of no avail. The Indians' method is purposed to nourish the hair and stimulate the growth. It costs so little to try Kotalko it would be a pity to lose the boon which this might bring to you.

Wonderful results reported. For men's, women's and children's hair. If you are bald, or losing hair, or have dandruff, you should try KOTALKO; it may be what's needful for your scalp and in such case it is a pleasure to observe the starting of new hair and its steady increase until prolific growth. You may obtain a full box of genuine Kotalko at any busy drug store. Or a proof box will be mailed if you send 10 cents, silver or stamps, to John Hart Brittain, Station F, New York, N. Y.

PESKY BED BUGS

Bedbug (Cimex lectularius). The origin of the name bedbug is unknown, but is supposed to be naturally suggested as it is descriptive. There are many local names for these parasites, as for illustration, around Boston they are called "Chinches," from Baltimore comes the name "Mahogany Flat," in New York they are styled as "Red Coats," around Pittsburgh they are called "Pesky Devils," in Cincinnati and the South "Nightriders," in St. Louis and Chicago district "Crimson Ramblers," the great West "Pilgrims." The old saying, "the bedbug has no teeth, but they get there just the same," is correct. Instead of teeth they possess a piercing and suckling beak to draw and rob you of your blood for their own body.

Bedbugs, no matter what you may call them, or where they came from, science has found a way to rid them if you will use faithfully the new chemical, Pesky Devils' Quietus, "P. D. Q." A 35c package makes one quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants or cooties, and their eggs as well. P. D. Q. will not injure bedding, and each package contains a patent spout to enable you to get them in the hard-to-get-at-places. Impossible for Pesky Devils to exist where P. D. Q. is used. Sold by Judge & Dolph, Wolff-Wilson, Johnson Bros., Merker's, East St. Louis, and other leading druggists.

Care and Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for, the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

CASTORIA

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrups was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

COUNCIL'S DECISION ON PERSIA CRITICISED

London Times Characterizes It as Pompous Farce and Humiliating.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, June 17.—Sharp criticism of the decision reached by the Council of the League of Nations to postpone action on the plea of Persia for defense against the Bolsheviki is expressed in some quarters here, and one section of the press openly attacks the council for its action.

Some of those present at the meeting of the council, it is declared, were given a bad impression, and it is understood Prince Mirza Firouz, Persian Foreign Minister, notwithstanding his outward acquiescence, was considerably disappointed, although he comforted himself in the confident hope that in the event that Bolshevik troops did not withdraw from Persia the league would take active steps to protect his country.

The Times captions its editorial on the subject "A Pompous Farce," and calls yesterday's proceedings "humiliating." It says: "Malice was the cause of discredit being brought upon the league."

Secrecy Is Criticised.

"This body (council) was pledged to the furtherance of open diplomacy," complains the Daily News, "but threw no light on the text of the correspondence which has passed between the Persian and Soviet Governments and certain conditions alleged to have been imposed. This is one way of killing the league."

The case of Persia versus Soviet Russia, the first bit of international adjudication taken by the council of the league, was remanded yesterday, pending the result of the Bolsheviki promise to cease aggression in Persia and withdraw the landing party operating in the neighborhood of Enzeli.

The supporters of the league anticipated action by the council on the Persian appeal for intervention as the first practical test of its power to settle international disputes, but the council, after two days' deliberations, concluded that it was desirable in order to give every opportunity for success of the exchanges going on between Teheran and Moscow, to await the fulfillment of Moscow's declared intentions before determining the manner of bringing the league's machinery into play.

Statement by Curzon.

Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, bringing up the subject at the public meeting at St. James Palace, said that the council had tendered its sympathy to the Persian Government in the difficult position in which it had been placed and agreed that it had done right in opening discussions with the Russians.

Sir Eric Drummond, dealing with the subject of the council sending an investigating commission to Russia, announces that the council could do no more than note Moscow's refusal of May 26 to receive such a commission. The grounds for this refusal were stated in the Soviet reply to the council's first request for permission to investigate the country, when the Soviet Foreign Minister, M. Tchitcherin, said that "the question of safety prevented it from receiving the commission until the situation created by the Polish offensive had taken a more favorable turn."

COUNTY WOMAN, 80, FALLS DEAD

Nancy Wertheimer, 80 years old, who was said by her neighbors to be unmarried and to have no living relatives, fell dead at her farm house on the Valley and Stricker roads in St. Louis County this morning. A coroner's jury determined that apoplexy caused death.

County officials, in a search through the place, discovered $800 in cash secreted in various parts of the house, $350 being found in an old shoe box. The farm occupied by the woman is valuable and is leased out to several tenants. She lived from the rentals of the place.

AUTO INJURES BOY, GOES ON

Sam Grodsky, 9 years old, son of Jacob Grodsky of 1508 Wash street, was struck by an automobile in front of his home at 11:55 a. m. today. The automobile did not stop. It bore a license issued to Guy Boyd of 3242 Swan avenue, but he has sold the car since the license was issued.

At the city hospital it was said the boy suffered a fractured skull.

YOUR COMPLEXION CAN BE MADE WHITE, SOFT AND YOUTHFUL

By the Use of the BLACK and WHITE Beauty Treatment

Every woman wishes to appear beautiful. The savage maiden tattoes her skin, fixes rings in her nose and uses other crude ornaments to make herself more attractive. An example of present-day beauty among civilized women is a soft, velvety skin and a radiant complexion.

To improve your complexion you should not use anything that hides your faded, pimply, blotchy skin. Such applications last only a few hours, and are injurious to the delicate skin tissue in many cases.

You can make your complexion beautiful by removing the faded, dark, sallow, blotchy skin with the BLACK and WHITE Beauty Treatment, which consists of a creamy ointment and soap. This beauty treatment will not injure the skin, and is easy to apply. Before retiring you thoroughly cleanse the skin with BLACK and WHITE Soap; then mix and apply BLACK and WHITE Ointment according to directions.

The BLACK and WHITE Beauty Treatment will also remove pimples, sun freckles, insect bites, skin blotches, liver spots and other unsightly blemishes of the skin. Remember that the BLACK and WHITE Beauty Treatment is different from other cosmetics in that it removes—does not cover or hide—the blemishes.

You can buy BLACK and WHITE Ointment and Soap at all good drug stores for 25c each a package, or the manufacturers will send both paid on receipt of 50c.

You can get a free sample, literature and a BLACK and WHITE Birthday and Dream Book if you will clip and mail this advertisement to BLACK and WHITE, Box 913, Memphis, Tenn.

BOYS SELL WILD FLOWERS FOR MILK AND ICE FUND

Day's Contributions for Babies Small—Woman Friend of Little Ones Sends Her "Mite."

CONTRIBUTIONS.

Previously acknowledged	$610.76
Sale of wild flowers, McPherson and Euclid	1.00
Wm. Steele, 1021A Franklin	1.00
Ed. M. Smith	.50
Dr. Louise Young, 4496 Laclede avenue	1.00
Mrs. R. D.	25
M. M. Jennings, Alton, Ill	5.00
Total	$619.51

Yesterday's contributions to the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund amounted to only $8.75, bringing the fund to a total of $619.51.

Three boys from the neighborhood conducted a sale of wild flowers at McPherson and Euclid avenues recently and earned $1 for the babies. The boys were: Benjamin Harrison Arthur Rbutti and Paul Clancy.

Cash donations to the fund were received from the following friends of the Milk and Ice Fund work: William Steele, 1021A Franklin, $1; Ed M. Smith, 50 cents, and Dr. Louise Young, 4496 Laclede avenue, $1.

Another friend of the little ones who requested that her contribution be acknowledged "Mrs. R. D.," wrote: "Enclosed find my mite—a quarter—how I do wish it were more! Your work for the poor and unfortunate is splendid."

M. M. Jennings of Alton forwarded $5 to be used in the Milk and Ice Fund work, and said: "This is indeed a good work that you are carrying on, and I trust that the people of St. Louis and vicinity may awake to its need."

PAYNE TAKES STEPS TO AID DEVELOPMENT OF ALASKA

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Co-ordination of Federal control of Alaskan lands and resources and consolidation of the two American shipping lines serving Alaskan ports were among recommendations made to Secretary Payne by a special committee of officials of the Department of the Interior appointed to report a plan for accelerating Alaskan development.

Payne approved the report and instructed the committee to put its program into effect as soon as possible.

"Alaska's immense natural resources have never been developed properly," said Payne. "During the war the white population of the territory actually decreased from 50,000 to 36,000, and the output of minerals and other industries showed a similar decrease.

"Exploitation of the resources of the territory will not be turned over to one interest or group of interests. Improvement of shipping and railroad facilities is undertaken with the purpose of admitting fresh capital and opening the country for settlement by American citizens."

Other plans include the co-ordination of Federal road construction and the development of a plan for a comprehensive system of roads and trails to serve the entire territory.

Heat Victim Kills Himself.

Louis Schleichtdinger, 35 years old, of 2201 Gaty avenue, East St. Louis, an employe of the American Steel Foundries, died last night from a self-inflicted bullet wound. He shot himself in the head yesterday morning when suffering from the heat.

Lithographers for 40 Years

ARTISTS who draw in black and white, artists who paint in colors, engravers who cut in stone and prepare for offset work, presses of the newest type for lithographing from stone and by offset—a complete lithographic organization—such is the lithographic service this house has developed during the past four decades, with every detail of the work done on the premises under expert supervision. You do business with principals, with the consequence that results of the most pleasing character are achieved at all times.

It is for these reasons that Buxton & Skinner lithography is the best procurable.

Distinctive envelopes, letterheads, checks, inserts, booklets, labels, in fact everything within the scope of lithography is done here in a first hand way.

Lithography offers possibilities frequently beyond the range of letterpress printing, especially in rich color effects. It should be of interest to any concern contemplating the publication of advertising literature to investigate the truly remarkable resources of lithography.

1500 HERE FOR JUNIOR C. OF C. CONVENTION

Subject of Waterways Development to Be Chief Feature—Reception Tonight.

The first annual convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of the United States opened this morning at Hotel Statler. More than 1500 delegates and representatives of Junior Chambers of Commerce from 50 cities are in attendance.

Problems pertaining to the growth of the nation were discussed at the opening session.

A Federal appropriation of $500,000,000, to be spent at the rate of $100,000,000 a year for five years for the development of inland waterway transportation facilities, was advocated by Henry Giessenbier, Jr., of St. Louis, president of the national organization.

He urged Junior Chamber members to co-operate with farmers to promote increased production and outlined a program of sample activities for their organization, as follows:

Extend the application of safety first as a humanitarian measure and a commercial economy; develop the best public parks and recreation facilities; improve housing and other living conditions; develop an extensive Americanization system; advance educational movements; study public markets and similar problems.

Speakers on Program.

Among the other principal speakers are: Joseph H. Defrees, Chicago, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, "The Junior Chamber of Commerce and Its Part in the Constructive Program of the Nation;" Niel Brown, assistant editor of "America at Work," "Our Relations With South America and the International Significance of the Monroe Doctrine;" Carl J. Baer, manager of the Production Bureau of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, "Production;" John G. Lonsdale, president of the National Bank of Commerce, "Production and Its Relation to Finance," and Charles Nagel, secretary of Commerce and Labor during President Taft's administration, "Immigration in Relation to Production."

Special emphasis will be laid on increased production through a closer relationship between the city and rural community. Chief among the contemplated activities of the organization will be the formation of a production bureau for the organization of Junior Chambers throughout the United States. There are 27 junior chambers now affiliated with the national body.

Tonight a reception will be given for the delegates by the St. Louis organization at the home of Ambassador David R. Francis, which was recently turned over to the local Junior Chamber, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Boy Scouts as headquarters for 10 years without cost.

To See Ball Game and Opera.

A luncheon at Hotel Statler followed this morning's session.

The delegates will be the guests of the St. Louis organization at tomorrow's ball game, and will attend the municipal opera in the evening.

Saturday the convention will close with an inspirational banquet at Hotel Statler in the evening. Members of the Junior Chambers who, in their early 20s, have attained positions of prominence in the business world, will be the principal speakers.

EFFORT TO SINK SHIP REVEALED

Seacock Opened While Vessel Was En Route Between Texas Ports.

By the Associated Press.

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., June 17.—That an attempt was made to sink or damage the Mallory steamship San Marcos by opening a seacock four weeks ago was revealed here today when an insurance adjuster offered for sale 75 tons of news print, hundreds of bags of coffee and a large quantity of Texas school books which were damaged by water.

The damage was caused from the opening of a great seacock on the San Marcos while en route to Port Arthur from Galveston on its first trip to this port after the Mallory Line had diverted its traffic from Galveston owing to the longshoremen's strike. Later the seacock was closed as secretly as it had been opened, and Federal authorities who are investigating announced they had been unable to fix responsibility.

GROUND BROKEN FOR CHURCH

Ground was broken this morning for the new Church of St. Philip Neri's parish at Thekla and Queens avenue. The Rev. Father Thomas E. Kennedy, former senior chaplain of the Thirty-fifth Division, rector of the parish, officiated.

Father Kennedy, who, before the war, had been an assistant pastor of St. Teresa's Church, Grand avenue and North Market streets, was placed in charge of the new parish by Archbishop Glennon in recognition of his work in France. The property is in Durant Park, in the northwestern industrial district of the city.

DA VINCI MASTERPIECE IN U. S.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The painting, "La Belle Feronniers," said to be one of the five original works of Leonardo da Vinci known to exist, was shipped yesterday to the Kansas City Art Museum, where it will become part of the exhibit. It is valued at more than $500,000 and is owned by Mrs. Harry J. Kahn, wife of a former American aviator now a resident of Junction City, Kan. Mrs. Kahn is a daughter of Capt. Lardoux, a French army officer, whose family had possessed it for several generations.

The painting was kept in the Louvre, Paris, during the war. It is said to be the first of Da Vinci's masterpieces to leave Europe.

Are your clothes on the line or—Are you just beginning the tiresome task of rubbing, rubbing?

AT nine o'clock on Monday are you just beginning the day's dreary rubbing of clothes? With all the boiling and bluing and starching and hanging out still to do?

Begin this week the new way of washing—have your clothes in the sun by nine o'clock!

Soak your clothes clean

When you wash with Rinso, the new form of soap for the family washing, absolutely all you have to do is to soak the clothes and rinse them.

The pure, Rinso granules are so cleansing, they loosen all the dirt while the clothes are soaking.

There's not a bit of solid soap to stick to the fabrics and injure them. There are no harsh cleansing agents to "eat" the cloth. Rinso suds are so mild, your tubful of clothes is as safe as in water alone!

You soak the clothes overnight or for three hours in the morning.

Then you rinse—and the washing is done!

No boiling—except occasionally, if you wish, to sterilize.

No rubbing—except very soiled spots—and those only lightly between your hands.

You cannot believe the difference Rinso will make on Monday, until you have tried it.

Begin using Rinso this week

Follow the easy directions on the Rinso package—wash without boiling, without rubbing. Soak your clothes clean and get the whole morning's sunshine on them!

Your grocer or any department store has Rinso—order a package today. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

You need not rub

You need not boil your clothes

Shining white!—without boiling—without any real rubbing

ACCIDENT VERDICT IN BOY'S DEATH BY TRUCK

Witnesses Say Negro Driver Did Not See Child Who Ran After Ball.

A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of accident today in the case of Aaron McKenzie, 4 years old, who was killed yesterday under the wheels of a trailer to a motor truck, nearly in front of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKenzie, 1321 South Seventh street.

An iceman, and a man who saw the accident from his porch, testified that the boy, having dropped his ball, followed the ball across the street, and ran under the wheels of the trailer after the front of the truck had passed. They said they did not think the driver saw the boy, and the driver, Oscar Jones, a negro, said he did not see him or know of the accident at the moment.

On March 26, on the same block, Edgar Timmerman, 4-year-old son of Oscar Timmerman, was killed by a motor vehicle. There was a conflict of opinion at the time as to which of two vehicles struck the boy. One of them was the same truck which figured in yesterday's accident, but not with the same driver. This matter was not cleared up at the time.

British Organization is Headed by Prince of Wales and Will Honor Many Americans.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—To commemorate the services of the men who initiated aerial warfare and practically revolutionized it, an organization has been formed in England under the presidency of the Prince of Wales, to raise a fund of about $2,000,000.

There is to be erected a commemorative monument to the fame of the officers and men of the Royal Naval Air Service, the Royal Flying Corps; the Australian Flying Corps and the Royal Air Force, including the officers and men who joined the force from the overseas dominions. In this last class are many Americans, who enlisted in the Canadian armies before America got into the war.

It also is proposed to establish places of residential education for the children of airmen and to make allowances for the children of officers, and generally to care for disabled, sick and infirm officers and airmen and their dependents.

Believing that many Americans will be interested in the memorial, the Air Attache of the British Embassy in Washington, Commodore L. Charlton, will furnish them any desired information.

AUSTRALIA TO MINT SQUARE COINS OF SMALL VALUE

British Dominions Only Peoples to Attempt Use of Square Tokens.

By the Associated Press.

SYDNEY, Australia, June 17.—Australia is about to mint square pennies and half-pennies of nickel. These will go into circulation concurrently with the present copper coinage, of which, it is understood, no more will be minted.

So far the only people to attempt to use square coins are those of British dominions. India has had a square 2-anna piece since 1918, Ceylon a square 5-cent piece since 1910 and the Straits Settlements a square cent since last year. The action of the Melbourne mint officials is probably dictated by the fact that square coins leave less metal in the sheets from which they are cut and they pack better when boxed.

LOAN AGENT ASKS THAT SUIT FOR ACCOUNTING BE DROPPED

Oliver Frazier Says He Has Carried Out Agreements, and Made Loans Only on Good Security.

Oliver Frazier, St. Louis agent of the Commonwealth Finance Corporation of New York, filed his answer today in Judge Shields' Court, to the suit of the company for an accounting of his dealings as agent estimated to amount to $400,000, and for a receivership of the effects of the St. Louis agency. He asks, in his answer, that the suit be dismissed.

The Commonwealth Finance Corporation conducts a loan business, with motor vehicles as security. Frazier says his contract with the company was signed Oct. 5, 1917, and has been carried out faithfully. He denies having loaned money otherwise than as authorized in his contract, or having loaned money on inadequate security. He says he is having an audit of his books made, and declares that the company failed to send auditors at a time previously agreed upon for an audit.

WOMEN WANT SPECIAL CARS ON PARIS SUBWAY TRAINS

Say Traditional Gallantry of France Has Become Dead Letter in Rush Hours.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, June 17.—So bad have the traveling conditions become on the tubes here that the women workers, including the midinettes and modistes of the fashionable shops have demanded that a special carriage on each train be reserved for women.

They protest indignantly against the pushing to which they are subjected. "The traditional gallantry of France is a dead letter," said one typical business girl. "Traveling on the metro at certain hours of the day has become nothing more nor less than a battle in which the weak have no chance against the strong."

A man's clothes in summer

Comfortable, light and cool—sure! But a suit of clothes is a suit of clothes in summer as well as winter. And just because you demand comfort is no reason why you should sacrifice appearance.

It takes custom tailoring to give you the well dressed look to which you are entitled—takes it even more in the light-weight fabrics than in the heavier woolens.

Alkali in Shampoo Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

PRICES ARE LOWER IN SLOW CATTLE MARKET

NATIONAL STOCKYARDS, Ill., June 17. Today's estimated receipts: Cattle and calves, 4350. Hogs, 7500. Sheep, 4000. Horses and mules, 150.

CATTLE—Another slow and draggy market got under way in the cattle department on anything other than choice quality. All grades reflected a lower undertone, losses averaging 25c on bulk of transactions. Receipts were fair in volume, but included few decent steers or yearlings. Veal calves averaged 25c lower, bulk of choice lights selling from $14.25@14.50, a few odd head scoring up to $14.75.

HOGS—Hog market was very little changed from the late basis yesterday, or about a dime lower than the high time. Top was $15.55 outside of a piece of a load at $15.60. Bulk of the hogs sold from $15.25@15.50. Packers were slow getting in and bought sparingly of the light run. Pig market was a quarter higher than the general trade Wednesday, with $14@14.50 taking the choice 130 to 140 pound stock. Rough hogs little changed, with $12.50 being paid for the bulk.

SHEEP—Sheep and lamb market continues to decline on excessive receipts. Today choice lambs except for a few cases were 50c lower, while culls were off a dollar. Top lambs $16, with bulk from $15@15.50. Fat sheep were 50 cents lower than the high time yesterday, going at $7.50 per cwt.

HORSES—Offering of horses today was not large and market showed no material change from the preceding day. Practically all grades are materially lower from two weeks ago, losses averaging $20@25 in some instances.

MULES—There is very limited outlet for mules in the commission department and shippers are advised to first communicate with their commission firms before sending in material.

TRANSACTIONS IN STOCKS SMALLEST SINCE ARMISTICE

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial review today, says:

"Most of the interest which attached to today's financial markets had to do with the rapid advance in sterling and the action of silver bullion. The stock market fell to the smallest volume of transactions of any day since the termination of the war. Except for an early sharp decline and subsequent recovery in the industrial shares, there was no development of any importance.

"The early stock market was influenced by the dividend policy announced by the Crucible Steel Co. after the close of business yesterday. The reduction in the quarterly stock dividend to 16 2-5 per cent as against the 50 per cent declared in March, was not unexpected; there is a natural limit to payment in share certificates out of surplus. But the reduction in the quarterly payment from 3 per cent to 2, was a somewhat different matter, especially when Wall Street's dividend chronicles had announced last spring that Crucible Steel was now on 12 per cent annual basis.

Expectations Unreasonable.

"There was abundant reason in the money market situation for the company's policy of reducing cash disbursements. The policy itself is distinctly wise. It was foreshadowed, though somewhat vaguely, in the chairman's recent annual report. Even an 8 per cent annual rate must fairly be judged in the light of the fact that nothing at all was distributed to holders of the common stock before last July. The stock itself, at its closing yesterday, had recovered 28⅝ points from the price of three weeks ago. But the obvious reason why the stock market today received the announcement with such evidence of chagrin was the pitching of hopes and expectations, in the excited markets of last year, at a pitch that was utterly unreasonable in view of the money situation. This, however, was the story of the entire market for stocks of this kind in a year of inflated speculation.

"In foreign exchange the notable incident was a 4-per-cent advance in sterling to $3.98¾; the highest rate since April 9, when the market was declining from the year's high mark of $4.06¾, reached four days before. Exchange on France and Italy also advanced; but the real cause for the day's movement was undoubtedly London's operations in connection with the Anglo-French maturity.

"The action of the silver market was unusual. Tuesday's London price of 44-pence per ounce and yesterday's New York price of 80 cents were, respectively, the lowest quotations reached since March, 1918, and August, 1917. Today the London price rose 4¾ pence, making a recovery of ¾ since Tuesday, the preceding decline, however, even during the present month, having been 13½ pence. The New York price also advanced today but with silver bullion quoted for the first time in the history of the market at two different prices according to its origin 'domestic silver' sold at 99½ cents per ounce 'foreign silver' at 90

Interpretation of Law

"It was yesterday's announcement, regarding the mint's proposed interpretation of the Pittman law, which caused the discrimination. Every one knows that the recent speculation for the rise in silver had been pivoted largely on the provision of that act providing for purchase of silver bullion by the mint in quantity equal to the contents of the silver dollars melted up and sold for export. Most people also know that the speculators overlooked the clause in the law which restricts such purchases to 'the product of mines situated in the United States and of reduction works so located.' All such purchases were made to make $1 per fine ounce; or, say, 99⅝ cents to the miner. Today's announcement showed that the Government had arranged to resume such purchases; it bought a million and a half of ounces and the market price for silver proved to be the output of American mines and smelting works rose to that price accordingly. But foreign silver, not being eligible for such purchases, recovered in price in our market barely half as much. This creates an extremely curious position. The yearly American output has in recent years been about one-third of the whole world's new production, but sales of 'foreign silver' now comprise also the wholly undetermined amount of silver coin of the European continental nations, driven out of circulation by depreciated paper currencies and melted up for the bullion market."

Form of Silver Quotations Changed.

NEW YORK, June 17.—As a result of the arrangement made by the Treasury Department to purchase silver from domestic producers under the terms of the Pittman act on the basis of $1 an ounce, dealers in the metal today changed their form of quotation to differentiate between United States and foreign metal. Domestic was quoted at 99¼ cents an ounce, with foreign at 90 cents, the latter being based on the London equivalent.

Bar Silver.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Bar silver mined in the United States, 99½c and in foreign countries, 90c per ounce. Mexican dollars 68⅝.

LONDON, June 17.—Bar silver, 40¼d per ounce; money, 4¼ per cent; discount rates, short bills, 6¼ per cent; 3 months' bills, 6 11-16 per cent.

CURB MORE ACTIVE ON OUTSIDE ORDERS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Trading was slightly more active on the curb market today, due to some extent to moderate orders from outside sources. Professional operators continued more active than usual, but it was noted that there was more activity on the part of insiders in some of the leading issues.

General Asphalt, after strength, reacted from the highest. Retail Candy, Aetna Explosives, United States Steamship and others were steady. India Packing was pressed for sale and declined. Oil shares were more irregular than the miscellaneous issues. Simms Petroleum declined a point after an early small advance.

There was some pressure against Texas & Pacific Coal and Oil at the opening, causing a fractional loss, but after this supply had been absorbed the stock moved upward more than a point.

Fair activity developed in the mining list, but price changes were small.

Bonds were quiet, with the exception of the German issues. There was buying in some of these at advances, the demand apparently reflecting the improvement in the quotations for marks in foreign exchange circles.

Foreign Exchange and Domestic Money

NEW YORK, June 17.—The foreign exchange market was strong for practically important centers in Europe and Asia with the exception of Calcutta. Sterling was influenced largely by higher cables and various developments in London including the cessation of Government grain purchases. Demand advanced over 4 cents to $3.98¾. One of the large banks that had been noted as a persistent recently was a quiet seller in this movement, and this supply caused a reaction in the afternoon. French and Italian made further progress to higher levels and German was in increased demand, marks cables advancing to 2.61. Scandinavian and Spanish shared in the upward movement. Asiatic exchange was directly influenced by the advance in the price of silver, rates on Hong Kong and Shanghai making violent advances.

Wall Street News and Comment

—SPECIAL DAILY—

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 17.—It was another dull, uninteresting stock market today, with interest confined to a dozen or so special issues moving for special reasons. In the general list there was scarcely any tendency one way or the other, but inasmuch as the specialty moves were all on the side of higher prices, the prevailing tone in the market generally was steady. At the opening, the street professed to be disappointed at the action of the Crucible Steel directors in reducing the cash dividend to 8 per cent, after distributing the extra stock dividend, but it was figured out that, with the 75 shares of new stock which goes to every holder of 100 shares of the old, the yearly cash distribution to present owners will be 14 per cent instead of the previous 12. Actually Crucible Steel went down because the good news, long expected, was out, and even 15 points off from its top, as the stock was, there were tempting profits still left in speculative hands.

The sharp decline in Crucible which has been one of the market leaders, furnished a test for the whole list as business began. During the first hour or so prices came down a half point to a point, but there was no selling of consequence and traders short of stocks soon started to take in their contracts. This covering, along with fresh buying in a number of selected stocks, brought about a rally at midday, after which the market settled down into extreme apathy. Some of the individual moves were interesting. Industrial Alcohol shot up nearly 4 points in the space of a quarter of an hour. Haskell and Barker had a similar swift advance. The buying in the chemical shares concerned in the merger deal continued, carrying Barrett above 150, and bringing new high prices for National Aniline and General Chemical.

The stocks of shoe manufacturing companies, which last month were among the weakest, rallied on what looked to be short covering. Sugar shares were again decidedly strong.

The reasons for the special strength in all these stocks have so often been pointed out that they must be thoroughly familiar. The striking thing today was the extreme ease with which stocks like Industrial Alcohol and Haskell and Barker went up, indicating the scarcity of offerings around anything like their recent selling prices. United States Food Products made a fair response to the declaration of the regular dividend and the accompanying announcement that the entire year's requirements had been covered out of the profits of the first quarter. A large part of these profits are being derived, of course, from the scale of denatured alcohol, which is now commanding fabulous prices.

Sterling Exchange.

Had the market been capable of responding to anything it would have had to take some account of the further jump in sterling exchange which carried the rate up above $3.98 and completed an advance of over 10 cents in the pound sterling within little more than a week. As already pointed out here, this upward movement in sterling, along with the persistent and heavy accumulation of gold by the Bank of England, are precisely the same developments that four months ago preceded the transfer of $50,000,000 in gold from England to this country. The Bank of England statement today reported a further gain of nearly $5,000,000 in its holdings of gold, making for the last three weeks a total addition of $26,000,000. It is hardly doubtful that this is the preparation for another considerable gold shipment. Other foreign exchanges were carried upward by the strength of sterling and there was particular improvement in francs and lire. Silver had its second sharp rally within a week. It was disappointing to many, but hardly out of keeping with the stagnation of the market, that the news of the arrangements to export a large quantity of copper to France following the allowance of credits by the Copper Export Association, to French buyers, failed to have any effect upon the metal stocks.

Gould Shares.

The peculiar weakness in Missouri Pacific preferred, St. Louis-Southwestern common and Denver & Rio Grande preferred, continued today and was the subject of much comment because it was so obviously not a part of any general downward movement in this class of stocks. For the most part, low-priced rails were very little dealt in and were only slightly changed in price. Even Missouri Pacific common was dull and steady, while the preferred was coming out in large blocks. All this indicated that the selling was of a special sort unconnected with considerations of value or with the railway situation in general. It had been thought yesterday that the liquidation in these particular members of the Gould railway group was coming from abroad, but today it developed that these three stocks were being sold for account of the Gould estate in connection with the suit which one brother and sister started some time ago against another brother for an accounting. This selling was described as "necessitous" and like the same selling which has been going on for the last week at intervals, was handled by only two or three houses.

The Sugar Stocks.

The sugar stocks continued to be strong today. The sharp advance in this group this week has been due in great part to technical conditions and the running in of the short interest. However, it can be said also that there has been some very good buying for long account in the sugars at the present level of prices. It is explained by Wall street's sugar experts that while all of the companies have made big profits this year, they stand to better this year's earnings next year. The case of Cuban cane sugar is one in point. This company sold quite a bit of its crop at around 7 cents, with a yearly average of 11 cents. However, it is said that the next crop will undoubtedly be sold at an average of 15 to 17 cents. There has been some talk of a dividend on Cuban cane common at the next meeting, but this is thought hardly possible in certain quarters.

The Bond Market.

Liberty Bonds lost today all of what little they gained yesterday, but the net fluctuation of the two-day period was too trifling even to be considered. Trading in United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of all classes was extremely heavy, but with the exception of the 5½s of the 1929 issue, which were up a fraction, prices were unchanged. The King of Italy 6½s continued to be dealt in at 93¼ and the City of Paris 6s at 92¼. Railway bonds were irregular. Baltimore & Ohio 6s, which were sagging yesterday, continued weak, getting down to 86, and New York Central debenture 6s were off a trifle. The new equipment notes held their ground and appeared to have a very satisfactory market despite the large output of this class of securities. The Pennsylvania 7s around 101 are believed to have completed the necessary reaction after their rise to close to 103. No new flotations were announced during the course of the day, but the Great Northern plan, the object of which will be to meet the $20,000,000 notes maturing in September, is looked for very shortly.

Food Products.

Directors of the Food Products Co. met today, and, as expected, voted to pay the regular quarterly dividend at the rate of 6 per cent. It was also given out after the meeting that the full year's dividend had been earned during the first quarter of the year. In other words, the first quarter's earnings were running at the rate of $24 a share per annum.

CORN PRICES OFF IN LOCAL MARKET; SPOT IRREGULAR

Corn closed lower on the Merchants' Exchange today after an irregular early range. Cash markets were down. Besides the belief became rather general that the technical position of the market suggested a reaction was to be expected. Oats were quiet, there being no trading locally.

Spot wheat was steady.

The early grain market found conditions about on a par with recent days. Because of the situation in the cash grain market due to the transportation conditions many traders fear to take the selling side of the market and at the same time do not care to buy, except on recessions, owing to the high point at which the market now is.

The weather map showed lower temperatures with some rain. England was said to be showing little interest in wheat market for export. The weekly Government weather report indicated favorable conditions surrounded corn during the week.

Receipts today were 29 cars local and 28 cars through of wheat; 45 cars local and 21 through of corn, and 14 cars local and 5 through of oats.

Cash Grain Markets.

Spot corn was irregular. Mixed and yellow corn was 1c to 3c higher, but white was 2c higher to 3c lower. Spot oats were steady to ½c lower. Sales quotations were:

No. 2 red winter wheat, $2.89; No. 3 red winter, $2.85; No. 3 hard, $2.85; No. 1 corn, $1.90@1.92; No. 2, $1.89@1.90; No. 1 yellow, $1.93; No. 2 yellow, $1.91@1.93; No. 3 yellow, $1.88; No. 6 yellow, $1.81@1.85; No. 2 white, $2.05; No. 3 white, $2.02; No. 2 white oats, $1.17½; No. 4 white, $1.16; No. 2, $1.19.

The Ohio Fuel Supply Co. declared an extra dividend of 2 per cent payable in Victory 4¾ per cent bonds and the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent. Both dividends are payable July 15 to stock of record June 30.

FINANCES STILL BAD IN JAPAN

Dispatches Indicate Continued Uncertainty in Silk Market.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Japan's balance of trade for the first 10 days of June was "very unfavorable" and the general financial and industrial depression showed no sign of improvement, said a dispatch today to the Department of Commerce from its representative at Tokio. The Mogi bank at Yokohama which was forced to suspend on May 24, failed to open last Tuesday. The dispatch added that this indicated continued uncertainty in the silk market and the failure of the banks and silk merchants and manufacturers to reach an agreement as to the security value of silk.

CHICAGO CORN MARKET UNSETTLED AT THE CLOSE

CHICAGO, June 17.—Corn prices weakened today as a result of larger receipts here. Some bearish sentiment was due also to belief that chances of a serious squeeze in the July delivery had been lessened. Board of Trade directors having issued a call for a statement of all open contracts on June 30, selling, however, did not become aggressive. Opening quotations, which ranged from ¼c to 1c lower, with July $1.78 to $1.78¼ and September $1.68¾ to $1.69, were followed by moderate further declines and then something of a reaction.

Cooler weather with rains gave a downturn to the oats market. After opening ¼c to ⅝c lower, including September at 84⅝c to 85c, the market underwent an additional sag.

Provisions reflected the weakness of grain and hogs. Buyers were scarce.

Withdrawal of shippers led subsequently to a decided setback in values. The close was unsettled, 1⅜c to 2c net lower, with July $1.77¼ to $1.77⅝ and September $1.67½ to $1.67⅝.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET QUIET AND STEADY AT CLOSE

NEW YORK, June 17.—Continued good weather and unfavorable news from the textile trade led to further selling in the cotton market at the opening today. First prices were 3 points higher on July, but generally 3 to 14 points net lower, and active months sold 10 to 20 points below last night's closing figures right after the call, with July touching 37.50 and October 34.38. There was local and Southern pressure, but houses with Liverpool and other foreign trade connections bought on the decline, and while there was no change in the news prices rallied several points on covering before the end of the first hour. Cable advices from Paris said that the Marseilles sewing cotton spinners are about to close their plants two days a week, owing to the fall in prices and short time among woolen mills in this country is increasing.

The early break extended to 37.40 for July and 34.30 for October, or 20 to 30 points below last night's closing quotation, and about 88 points below the high level of yesterday morning. Recent sellers showed a disposition to take profits on this decline and there were rather sharp rallies later in the morning, on prospects for unsettled weather in the Southwest, although some thought showers there would not be altogether undesirable after the past 10 days of dry weather in most sections. July sold up to 37.53 and October to 34.59, or back to about last night's closing quotations on new crop months, with the market quiet but steady around midday.

The detailed weather reports showing maximum temperatures ranging from 100 to 105 degrees as many Eastern belt points led to more general covering during the afternoon and active months sold 15 to 27 points net higher with October touching 34.77.

Cotton futures closed steady. July, 37.45; Oct., 34.54; Dec., 33.30; Jan., 32.57; March, 32.05.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 17.—F. M. Troeh of Vanvouver yesterday won the Pacific Coast amateur shooting championship at single targets with 297 out of a possible 300. Troeh also had high average on 400 registered targets with 394. The Washington State team won the five-man team championship.

NEW PARTY IN FRENCH CHAMBER

Body Favors Abolition of Right to Strike.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, June 17.—A new party recently formed in the Chamber of Deputies, comprising 260 votes, is one which it is expected any future Premier will have to take into account in preserving his majority in the chamber. Charles C. A. Jonnart, Senator from Pas de Calais, has been elected President. The party represents remnants of the radical party and elements of the national bloc holding seats in the center and right center of the Chamber.

The new party is called "the Alliance Republican-Democratic of Social Action and National Reconstruction." Francois Arago, a national bloc leader, has given the party his adherence and along with him more than 150 of his followers. Seventy radicals have followed suit. The party's program as outlined by Senator Jonnart includes abolition of the right to strike except for special reasons.

JAPANESE COUPLE TIE SELVES TOGETHER AND LEAP INTO SEA

By the Associated Press.

HILO, Island of Hawaii, June 17.—Strapped together as they leaped into the sea to fulfill a double suicide pact, Uye Tafaburo, a Japanese of North Kohala, and Makino Kukuyama, wife of another Japanese, partly failed in their endeavor. Tafaburo was drowned but the woman was pulled from the surf by W. Pinehaka, jailer of North Kohala.

Pinehaka saw the pair with ankles and bodies tied leap as one into the sea from the rocks below Hawi on the North Kohala coast. He scrambled down to the water's edge just as the tide washed the woman back to shore, the bonds that tied her to her companion having broken.

Later Tafaburo's body was recovered by Hawaiian divers.

The woman's infant child, wrapped in her obi, or girdle, was found hanging in a tree not far from the spot where she had failed in her attempt at suicide.

GERMANS SEEK WORK IN JAPAN

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, June 17.—More than 700 of the German prisoners of war set free by Japanese troops in Siberia are desirous of finding employment in Japan. All are graduates of technical schools and experienced in electric, mechanical and railway work. The Japanese authorities to whom they have applied have referred the matter to the Tokio Chamber of Commerce, which is trying to find employment for them.

Pal Moore Easily Defeats Tremaine

It was the third time the two had met. Tremaine got the decision in the other bouts. Moore weighed in at 116 and Tremaine at 117 pounds.

Tremaine got in wrong with the 3000 fight fans who witnessed the fray when he hit Moore a savage blow in the tenth, while shaking hands. Moore had just knocked Tremaine down, while his foe was slipping, and was shaking hands to show Tremaine he did not do it purposely. The crowd roundly hissed Tremaine for his actions, and continued their hissing all through the remaining rounds.

Moore electrified the crowd by his flashy boxing, and dazzled Tremaine with his fast foot work. Carl tried hard to win, but most of the time his blows hit the air. He put up an aggressive fight, however, but could not penetrate Moore's peculiar defense successfully. The three rounds he won he gained by some effective left jabbing to Moore's face.

While Moore easily won the fight his blows did not hurt Tremaine in the least. In the second round Moore caught the Cleveland boxer off balance in his corner, and knocked him down, but he was up in an instant, rushing the Memphis flash.

Babe Asher Stops Sullivan in Fifth

SCOTT'S BLUFF, Neb., June 17.—Johnny "Babe" Asher of St. Louis signalized his return to active fighting last night by knocking out Yankee Sullivan of Omaha in the fifth round, following a series of hard smashes to head and body.

Asher appeared to outclass his foe. He floored him in the third round for the count of six, and had his foe practically at his mercy for the rest of the contest.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 17.—Jess Haines, Rickey's powerful right-hander, was sent to the hill this afternoon, to oppose the tail-enders of Gavvy Cravath in the first game of a series of four. Dilhoefer again went behind the bat for the Cardinals, Vernon Clemons being still a bit incapacitated by the finger injured last week. Witherow was the Phillie catcher.

According to indirect information from Philadelphia, via Sportsman's Park, Rogers Hornsby, injured by a thrown ball in Tuesday's game, resumed his place at second base this afternoon.

RAY EPSTEIN DEFEATS FINGER IN HARD MATCH; OTHER TRIPLE A RESULTS

The first upset in the tennis tournament for the championship of the Triple A Club occurred yesterday afternoon when W. J. Skrainka defeated C. D. P. Hamilton Jr., 6—0, 1—6, 6—4. The match was somewhat irregular. Skrainka won the first seven games, and Hamilton followed by taking the next nine. Strainka then won the third set at 6—4.

George Finger surprised by forcing Ray Epstein to a three-set match which Epstein won, 6—3, 3—6, 6—4. Other results follow:

H. A. Boettler defeated J. K. Goodwin by default; W. R. Schneider defeated Fred Thorburn, 3—6, 6—4, 6—1; P. Oehler defeated D. P. Bogy, 6—3, 6—0.

MAUPOME WINNER OVER LOCAL ANGLE PLAYERS

Pierre Maupome, Mexican three-cushion star, was returned the winner in his two exhibition matches with local players at Peterson's yesterday. In the afternoon he won from Dr. Macklin, 50—46, in 71 innings, while in the evening he defeated Allan Hall, 50—26, in 80 innings. Dr. Macklin scored a high run of 12 in the third inning. Maupome also gave an exhibition of fancy shots.

Today Maupome will oppose Thomas and Krembs.

DEFENDER CUP TRIAL IS AGAIN POSTPONED

NEW PORT, R. I., June 17.—The ninth race of the series between the Resolute and Vanitie, to determine which shall defend the American Cup off Sandy Hook next month, again was postponed today because of a heavy rain. Expectations are that the races will be held every day next week. Resolute now has five victories to Vanitie's three.

"BABE" RUTH GETS HIS 19TH HOMER OF SEASON

Favorites Beaten at Golf.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Defeats of three of the leading players in the women's Western Golf Association open tournament featured the first match round at Midlothian yesterday. Mrs. Perry Fisk of Kishwaukee, the present title holder, Mrs. J. S. Pritchard of Midlothian, who, as Miss Myra Helmer, won the Western championship, and Mrs. E. E. Harwood of Olympia Fields, were entered on the losing list.

Billy Friel Umpires.

Billy Friel, the Browns' scout, acted as umpire on the bases in the game between the White Sox and Yankees at Chicago yesterday. Friel took the place of "Brick" Owens, whose arm was fractured by a thrown ball in a recent game at Detroit. Friel will continue as an umpire until Owens is able to return to harness.

Reds Exhibit Rowdyism.

According to the New York critics, the world's champion Reds exhibited a lot of rowdyism in their contests with the Giants at the Polo Grounds, which ended with the suspension of Sallee and Roush and Wingo being fined $50 by President Heydler.

DECKER DEFEATS BOCK

Low Medalist in Qualifying Round One of Few Kansas Cityans to Survive.

SUNSET HILL COUNTRY CLUB, June 17.—Favorites, almost without exception, won their first round matches in the State golf championship here this afternoon over a course that was perfect and weather that was well-nigh ideal.

Only four Kansas Cityans survived the first match play and one Springfield (Mo.) player came through. This left 11 St. Louisans to play in the second round championship, including such strong candidates for the title as Clarence Wolff, Chris Kenney, Jimmy Manion, Richard Bockenkamp and Walter Kossman.

Kossman had the best record of any player, the runner-up in the district championship beating his Midland Valley opponent in the first 10 holes successively, taking the match 10 up and 8 to go.

Two matches were decided on the ninteenth green, and in both of them out-of-town players were the winners. Ralph Sackman of Milburn defeated John Morrison of Algonquin, while Dr. Paul R. Talbot of Springfield put E. R. McClelland of Kansas City into the consolations.

Following are the results and pairings.

Today's Results.

RUTH GETS HIS 18TH HOMER OF CAMPAIGN; HAS .344 SWAT MARK

George "Babe" Ruth, slugging outfielder of the New York Yankees, yesterday rapped out home run No. 18 against Urban Faber of the White Sox in the eighth inning of the game at Comiskey Park, Chicago. One man was on base when Ruth hit for the circuit. The slugger now has hit a homer in each of the Western cities he has visited this season.

The $125,000 beauty has a batting average of .344 for the season with 55 hits in 160 attempts. Only 22 of his raps have been singles. In addition to his 18 homers, he has 11 doubles and four triples, making his total base count for the season 128, an average of 2.3 bases per hit.

He has scored 49 runs in 48 games and on averages is the leading run-getter in the major leagues.

ACCOUNT OF CARDINAL GAME DELAYED

Johnston Easily Defeats Ritchie In London Match

Fifty-Year-Old British Tennis Star Humbled, 6-2, 6-2; Tilden Also Victor.

LONDON, June 17.—William M. Johnston of San Francisco, American singles champion, defeated M. J. G. Ritchie in the fifth round of the London lawn tennis championship tournament here today. Johnston won in straight sets by scores of 6—2 and 6—2.

William Tilden of Philadelphia, the only other American remaining in the tournament, also was victorious in the fifth round. He beat B. I. C. Norton, 6—2 and 7—5.

The elimination of the 50-year-old veteran English internationalist, who won decisively from R. Norris Williams II of Boston yesterday, indicates that the Californian has reached the height of his form and will be a formidable contender in the British championships at Wimbledon, beginning next Monday.

American Doubles Team Wins.

Johnston, paired with William T Tilden Jr. of Philadelphia, scored an impressive victory in the fourth round of the doubles. The American pair defeated the international pair, consisting of Randolph Lycett of Australia and H. Roper of England, two out of three sets, by scores of 6—4, 3—6, 6—2.

This was the strongest team that the Americans have been called upon to face in the tournament, to date. Barrett has held the British singles and doubles championships on several occasions during recent years, while Lycett is one of the most prominent of the Australian players, with a record of having won many Antipodean, continental and English championships on both open and covered courts.

SOUTHERN CLUBS REFUSE TO PLAY LITTLE ROCK WITH SMITH IN LINEUP

ATLANTA, Ga., June 17.—Managements of the Atlanta, Mobile and Chattanooga clubs of the Southern Association announced today that no further games would be played with Little Rock as long as Casey Smith and Tom Seaton, formerly of the San Francisco team, Pacific Coast League, appeared in the Little Rock line-up.

The two players were signed by Little Rock after their release by San Francisco on charges of alleged unsportsmanlike conduct.

Manager "Kid" Elberfeld declared he intended to use Smith as pitcher in today's scheduled game with Atlanta.

"The charges against Smith and Seaton is all hearsay evidence," Elberfeld said. "In justice to these players the charges should be investigated thoroughly."

Directors to Consider Smith Case.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 17. — A special meeting of the board of directors of the Birmingham club has been called to consider the Smith case.

U. S. RUGBY TEAM TO SAIL FOR ANTWERP AUG. 5

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., June 17.—Names of 20 athletes to be included in the rugby team that will represent the United States at the Olympic games were announced today by W. Harry Maloney, president of the California Rugby Union.

One week of intensive training before the team leaves Stanford on July 29 is planned. The players expect to sail from New York Aug. 5.

Several games with Belgian teams are being arranged to precede the Olympic games, which are set for Aug. 30 to Sept. 5. A tentative schedule calls for the following games after the Olympic contest:

Sept. 8, Brussels, Belgium; Sept. 10, French at London; Sept. 18, Plymouth, England; Sept. 20, Canborns at Cornwell, England.

Included in the squad are nearly all of the men who composed the California team that defeated the strongest rugby teams in British Columbia last winter.

MOTORCYCLISTS TO HOLD GYPSY TOUR ON JUNE 20

The St. Louis Motorcycle gypsy tour, held annually as one of the nation-wide tours under the sanction of the Motorcycle and Allied Trades Association, will be held on June 20, to High Ridge, Mo.

The riders will meet at Lindell avenue and Skinker road, and will start about 10 a. m., the route being over Skinker to Clayton road, to Denny road, thence to Gravois road and out to the grove at High Ridge.

The tour this year is being handled by the St. Louis Motorcycle Club, with Mr. G. M. Laxton, its vice president, as tourmaster.

It is expected that as in the past, there will be from 300 to 400 motorcycles out for this trip. There will be a hill climb, 100-yard dash, three-legged race and many other stunts on the program.

Mrs. Wasson Only St. Louis Golfer Left in Tourney

Glen Echo Woman Defeats Mrs. Greenlease of Kansas City; Reaches Semifinal.

Mrs. L. E. Wasson of Glen Echo created somewhat of a surprise this morning, at Bellerive Country Club, when she eliminated from the Missouri women's State golf championship Mrs. R. C. Greenlease of Hillcrest, Kansas City, 4 up and 3 to play.

Mrs. Greenlease was low medalist for the qualifying round, with a 91, and was expected to go straight through to the semi-finals. Mrs. Wasson has shown great steadiness, in her match play, and decisively earned her way to tomorrow's semi-final round.

Mrs. Wasson's victory saved the St. Louis representation from total eclipse, Kansas City entrants winning all of the other championship round contests this morning.

The result will bring Mrs. Wasson against the 16-year-old marvel, Miss Miriam Burns of Milburn, Kansas City. Miss Burns had a hard time defeating Mrs. C. E. Hill, 1 up, yesterday, and there is a good chance that Mrs. Wasson's reliability under pressure will gain her a place in the final round.

In the lower half of the bracket Miss Carolyn Lee, the title holder, won a decisive victory, 7 and 6, over Mrs. F. E. Newberry. Mrs. Morrison, another Kaw City player, will be Miss Lee's semi-final rival, tomorrow, by virtue of a victory over Mrs. Obear today..

Following are the results and pairings:

Today's Results.

AMERICAN TENNIS STARS WELL PLACED BY DRAW IN BRITISH TITLE EVENT

LONDON, June 17.—The quartet of American tennis players entered in the British championship tournament which begins at the Wimbledon Turf Courts Monday, are well placed in the draw announced here yesterday.

William M. Johnston of San Francisco, R. Norris Williams II of Boston and C. S. Garland af Pittsburg meet P. M. Flavele, N. Field and O. G. M. Turnbull, respectively, in the first round. The latter trio are not considered dangerous opponents by English authorities.

William T. Tilden of Philadelphia will face H. R. Fusel of Oxford University, who has won the varsity blue in tennis, and has an excellent record in competition. Johnston will be obliged to play the veteran, J. C. Parke, in the second round.

BUCHAN, ASCOT WINNER, WINS GOLD CUP STAKES, BUT IS DISQUALIFIED

ASCOT, England, June 17.—Viscount Astor's Buchan finished first in the Ascot Gold Cup race run here today, but was disqualified for fouling and the race awarded to Sir W. Nelson's Tangiers, which finished second. Henri Balsan's Juviegneur was given second place and Lord Derby's Keysoe placed third.

Odds of 100 to 15 were laid against Tangiers in the betting; against Juveigneur, 100 to 8, and against Keysoe, 10 to 1.

Said Rooter-on-Parade.
"They seem to have an awful punch,"

"Who let the bloomin' strangers in?"
Said Rooter-on-Parade.
"The pennant they are out to win,"
The Center Fielder said.
"While the Brooklyn Trolley Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds,
Were standing of each other on their blawsted, bloomin' heads,
And they're hangin' John McGraw tomorrow mornin'."

Said Rooter-on-Parade.
"They threw him down and took his taw,"
The Center Fielder said.
"It must have been a bitter dose,"
Said Rooter-on-Parade.
"The Giants still are comatose,"
The Center Fielder said.
For those Cardinals are fighting like they had been eating meat,
And at the present writing they are mighty hard to beat:
While the fans are sore at Muggsy in his hour of defeat

A COINCIDENCE.

Not that there is any significance in the fact, but we notice that on the day Jack Dempsey was acquitted of the charge of evading the draft, Georges Carpentier booked passage for home.

If the heat continues and the Browns and Cards keep on winning, the manager of the house out on Arsenal street will soon be turning 'em away.

We have been informed that Tuesday was the last to pay income tax. Would it were true.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Stricter Rules for Safety.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

After a close observation of the conduct of chauffeurs and owners of automobiles in propelling automobiles along the streets I believe I can solve, to some degree, the problem of decreasing fatalities. In crossing streets it is impossible to figure out which direction a machine will take, even though a person watches the signals of traffic officers. For instance, if they signal north and south, machine going north or south will, without warning, dart around close to the curb, to the east or west; or when the east and west signal is given a machine going east or west will suddenly dart to the north or south, whereas, if, when the east and west signal is given, all drivers going north and south wishing to go east or west would do so, and when the north and south signal is given, all drivers going east or west, wishing to go north or south, would do so. This would give pedestrians a chance to be governed by traffic signals. Then, again, drivers should not be permitted to drive machines close to the curb, but stay in the middle of the street. I have also noticed machines going to the left when they should be on the right. They will dart to the wrong side from behind a street car to speed up. Also, when a signal is given to stop they should be compelled to remain behind the chalk mark of the crossing to give people an opportunity to cross, and not go between machines to get across. This happens at Locust and Twelfth, to Market and Twelfth, Locust and Eighteenth, Jefferson avenue, Grand and Lucas and Delmar. They should also be compelled to slow up when approaching a crossing to give people a chance to get to safety.

This "go as you please" driving is the cause of the greater number of accidents, injuries and deaths. If these suggestions were made a rule or law it would not shift all the responsibility of vigilance on the people. Courts have also been too lenient in passing on cases of speeding. Drivers must also look to the safety of the public; they don't own the streets.

Unless rules of this character are established we will continue increasing our fatalities. A. EDWARDS.

Morgue Will Be Rebuilt.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Is that old stinkhole they call the morgue going to stay there? I necessarily pass it twice a day—going to and coming from work. I read in your paper that the morgue was to be rebuilt. Is this true?

A SPRUCE STREET STENOGRAPHER.

(The morgue amendment was carried by a small margin. This means that the present morgue will be replaced by a new, modern building.—Ed. Post-Dispatch.)

Soldier's Mother's Plea.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Permit a patriotic mother to answer "Perplexed," who perhaps never heard a shot fired or had anyone from his family in the war. When the United States called for volunteers, both of my sons told me they were going to enlist, and although it broke my heart to see my two sons, who both had pretty fair jobs, leave, I consented, because I figured it a mother's duty to her country. This left the burden of supporting our family on my husband, who worked overtime trying to make both ends meet, and we also managed to buy Liberty bonds. Both of my boys were wounded with the 138th Infantry, but only get $15 a month compensation from the Government. My husband's health has failed and the burden of supporting the family is now on the two wounded boys, neither of whom is able to do the same kind of work as before they went in the army, and they cannot afford to lie around a Government hospital. None of the boys that saw real fighting is as good as before he went over. This is my answer to "Perplexed," and it is one of the reasons the radicals are appealing to the ex-soldiers. The bonus tax is not on any poor people. What poor people deal on the Wall Street Stock Exchange?

Hoping a real American mother can also get a line, I thank you.

MOTHER OF TWO EX-SERVICE MEN, FORMERLY OF THE 138TH INFANTRY.

Dogs and Autos.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The Post-Dispatch of June 10 contained an article—signed F. A. G.—claiming that the city is no place for dogs. And the writer attempts to justify his claim by the fact that on June 4 four people were bitten by a rabid dog.

"All the dogs in this city," says "F. A. G.," "are not worth the life of a single person."

Now, if "F. A. G." will take the trouble to glance at the front page of the issue in which his article appeared he will see the headlines: "Woman, 65, Hit by a Motor-Bus on May 1, Dies."

"Fatality Is 46th Since First of Year.

How many human lives is an auto worth? Clearly, according to the logic of "F. A. G.," the city is either no place for autos or no place for people; I leave it to "F. A. G." to figure out which.

OLD TIMER.

MR. WHEELER'S DRY PLANK.

In his statement blacklisting Gov. James B. Cox of Ohio as candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, Wayne B. Wheeler, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League, outlines his organization's demand of the National Democratic Convention.

The plank insisted upon by Mr. Wheeler reads: "We declare for the effective enforcement of the eighteenth amendment and laws pursuant thereto as construed by the Supreme Court of the United States."

There can be no objection to a plank of this kind, if it is followed by a protest against the invasion of the rights of the states and of individual citizens and the enlargement of Federal bureaucratic control encroaching upon and overriding local self government and the liberties of citizens.

The laws adopted by Congress and the State Legislatures ought to be enforced as construed by the courts. But neither legislative adoption nor court construction determines whether the laws are good or bad, or are in accord with sound political principles upon which the welfare of the people rests.

The United States Supreme Court did not assume to say whether the eighteenth amendment was in accord with other provisions of the Constitution, guaranteeing the rights of the people and of individuals or whether the Volstead act encroached upon local rights and personal liberties, or whether the Federal prohibition policy embodied in the laws was sound or unsound, safe or dangerous. It merely decided that the eighteenth amendment was adopted in accordance with the Constitution and that Congress under the Constitution had the power to enact the Volstead law; that both were valid and enforceable.

The Democratic party cannot without violating American principles stand for anything but the enforcement of law, but on the other hand it cannot, without violating American principles and abandoning the principles it professes, stand for anything except opposition to laws which strike down the right of local self-government and the fundamental rights and liberties of citizens which are inherent as well as embodied in the Constitution. If the Democratic party does not pledge itself to square the prohibition enforcement law with the principles of constitutional and inherent rights and liberties, it will be faithless to its professions and unworthy of its name.

If the Democratic party in its platform ignores principles and evades specific issues by vague generalities, the people will have the final proof that both the leading parties are bankrupt in principles, convictions and courage. So far as they are concerned the election will be a fight for power and a scramble for spoils.

TEMPERATE ZONE CONVENTIONS.

The sufferings endured by the Republicans during that Chicago week of swelter are of wilting record. Many of the victims have grimly resolved never again to foregather on the brim of the magnified oyster stew that appears on the map as Lake Michigan. And now comes a warning from San Francisco to the Democrats to bring their overcoats.

Chicago and Frisco have collaborated rather successfully, it seems, to condemn as intolerable the present practice of selling conventions to the highest bidder. This verdict is reinforced by the fact of women's participation in the proceedings. Those parliaments must be held in the temperate zone. Equatorial Chicago and Arctic Frisco, if the latter's fears should be realized, are equally unavailable. We know what the weather did in Chicago. Penrose may have been the first in command but he had a most stalwart ally in the temperature. It was not with a thrill of ecstasy that the delegates concluded their labors on the tenth ballot; it was the dread of a broiling week-end in Chicago.

A similar outcome may happen at Frisco, though at the other end of the mercurial tube. A Harding counterpart may be the choice of a zero hour. Our presidential candidates ought not to be determined by the whims of the weather. Delegates to conventions should neither be roasted nor frozen.

MR. TAFT AS INTERPRETER.

Champ Clark offers the best hat a celebrated manufacturer can produce to the man that can tell what the League of Nations plank in the Republican platform means. Mr. W. H. Taft is candidate for that hat. As contributing editor of a Philadelphia paper the former President avers that "the Republican platform and the assured Republican victory mean that the United States will enter the League with the Lodge reservations."

It should be acknowledged, however, that Mr. Taft reached that conclusion only by squirming through an impenetrable entanglement of non sequiturs and by leaving logic bleeding at every pore. In his role of interpreter Mr. Taft has had to be historian as well as polemicist. He has had to remind us that when Mr. Wilson first returned with the covenant, Will Hays consulted Mr. Root and persuaded the latter to sit down and write a letter about the whole proceeding. Moreover, in his first hurried draft Mr. Root favored Article 10, but later he came to see the fell purpose of that paragraph. We cannot venture from anything Mr. Taft says, whether Mr. Root has perceived the malignity of Article 11, or whether Borah is the only man on this side of the Atlantic who has sensed the deadly intent of those seemingly harmless words.

It is rather a pity that Mr. Taft did not also mention the startling chromatic fact recently discovered, namely, that Alexander's right eye was blue and his left eye brown. A few intimate glimpses, too, of the architecture of the Cro-Magnons would have been helpful—would have been about as apposite, anyhow, as Will Hays' electioneering maneuvers or the Epistles of Elihu.

The plain truth is that, whether a Republican or Democrat is elected to the presidency next November the United States will enter the League of Nations and on pretty much the same terms in either event. The United States cannot remain outside of the League. The Republican party's eminent dialectician drafted a plank to serve a partisan purpose, namely, to appease Hiram Johnson and prevent a bolt. That is the most it was meant to accomplish. Our former President could be more happily engaged than in spinning out columns of casuistry to give the tricky verbiage of that plank a meaning or dignity that is not to be found in its content.

THE BARGE LINE'S TURNING POINT.

"Wanted—A National Railroad Program," is a subject on which Frederic C. Howe writes in a recent issue of the New Republic.

He states as he sees them the terms of the transportation problem with which Congress had to deal and finds that those terms were largely overlooked or disregarded in the act as passed. Here is one of the specifications on which he based his plea for a comprehensive, permanent, unified program:

> For 50 years Congress has been spending millions on the Great Lakes, on the inland rivers, on harbors. Yet water transportation remains where it was a generation ago. The railroads will not permit these waterways to be used. They refuse rail connections, they shut water traffic out of cities and terminals. They control almost all the water frontage on the Great Lakes and a great part of the frontage on the inland rivers and coast cities. The railroads will not permit water transportation to be developed, despite their own inadequacy to meet our needs and the fact that it costs about one-fifth as much to ship by water as by rail.

Notwithstanding handicaps that should be removed, it is hardly true that water transportation on the Great Lakes remains where it was a generation ago. But there special conditions prevail.

So far as the internal rivers are concerned it is true that no progress had been made in a generation up to the coming of the war. In fact there had rather been a decline in river uses. In this fact is found one of the most cogent reasons for conserving the advance made in recent months and preparing for the dispositions irrevocably linking the river system with the rail system in the transportation of the future.

A turning point in the history of the barge line was reached in May, when the gap between barge income and barge outgo was reduced to only $5000—when the service lacked only that comparatively small sum of being self-supporting. The hostility of the railroads on the resumption of private operation has already been felt. The provision of the Cummins-Esch bill for perpetuating the fleet as a valley institution had to pass many hidden pitfalls.

As barge line facilities increase with more economical power and craft of larger capacity, and especially as its traffic grows, its competition will begin to be felt and its potential menace to the rail monopoly will be more keenly appreciated. A crisis is coming when the railroads' assumption of cynicism and indifference toward the barge line will be succeeded by open and stubborn hostility and a campaign of misrepresentation. The greater the area of territory over which barge line service is expanded and the larger the number of shippers and consignees who enjoy its benefits, the more formidable will be the forces opposed to intrigues for handicapping and ultimately destroying its usefulness. The joint rail-and-water rates should be extended to all the chief shipping points of the valley, both in the South and North. Our preparedness against the inevitable day when the very life of river service must be battled for will depend on the interest shown, the measures taken, the defensive organization perfected in the next few months.

NATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, JR.

The first Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed by St. Louis young men. Like organizations were formed in many other cities and the first meeting at which they were federated into a national association was held in this city. Today the first convention of the national body will begin here.

What Chambers of Commerce do for mature men of business, the Junior Chamber of Commerce is designed to do for younger men. It enables the power of organization to be invoked in behalf of worthy ends. For the young man just starting his career it offers a training in the higher ethics of business, in the larger efficiency of business, in those responsibilities of business to the public which are steadily gaining wider recognition. Not merely the value but the need of co-operation on a broad scale, which some older men learn with difficulty, are taught in this organization from early life.

The special interest St. Louis has in this body of associated young Americans is natural. It has been afforded a prior view of its members and has found them alert, intelligent and seriously impressed with the duties and opportunities of the future, as well as invested with the charm of youth. In their mental equipment and attitude toward the world can be discerned the type of the coming business men of the country.

The Chamber of Commerce, Jr., if it may so be written, is now an institution of every representative city and has possibilities of usefulness not surpassed by those of any other organization.

PANETELA.

YES, Luella,
McAdoodle
Sits as pretty
As you please;
One can scarce
Believe him pestered
By the biggest
Of the bees.
All the same,
A lot of prophets,
Each one seeing
What he can,
Almost every Day assure us
McAdoodle
Is the man.

After that
Disgraceful scramble
In which millions
Were arrayed,
What a contrast
Has our hero
Here in dignity
Displayed!
After having Seen the office
Chased from Beersheba to Dan,
Just imagine
This reversal,
Where it seems
To seek the man!

That is all,
My little girlie:
All we need
To do at all
Is to stir
The recollections
Of the voters
In the fall.
Quite aside
From all the issues
Which shall take
Us to the mat,
All we need
Is that the people
Think of this
And then of that.

So we have it:
McAdoodle,
Nothing spended
Or denied,
Seems to have
The nomination
Rather nicely
Roped and tied.
Where the giants
At Chicago
Fought with all
Their tainted gains,
Lo, it seems
That McAdoodle
Cops the honor
With his brains.

Sweet Luella!
What assurance
Have we here
In the face
Of all the perils
Crowding in
Upon the year!
Let us then
Be up and doing,
Each at Liberty's behest
Proudly pointing
Out the moral,
Leaving Frisco
To the rest.

If the Bell company had to call the Public Service Commission up on the phone and ask for an increase in rates it would have a fine time getting it.

We know our apostrophe hounds are disappointed over our failure to get a plank for preserving the apostrophe in the Chicago platform, but it could not be helped. The following bit of dialogue from the record of the meetings of the Resolutions Committee will explain what happened:

Mr. Hays: We are in complete sympathy with the movement to save the apostrophe, but we are afraid our stump speakers would not feel competent to discuss the apostrophe with better informed persons who might be in the audience.

First Apostrophe Hound: It would be possible for only educated persons to involve your stump speakers in that way, and educated persons are too much in sympathy with saving the apostrophe to do anything of the sort.

Senator Smoot: I am against such a plank. The first thing the Democrats would do would be to hire educated persons to heckle our speakers upon the subject.

Chairman Watson: A good point, Senator. It does well enough to say that educated persons are too much in sympathy with saving the apostrophe to do such a thing, but old politicians like you and I know better. I intend to speak a great deal in Indiana, and I don't intend having somebody from De Pauw drawing me out on what I know about the apostrophe and its uses. Such a man could chase me all over Indiana.

Second Apostrophe Hound: We appreciate that such a plank conjures up difficulties, but if we can get it in the Republican platform we can make the Democrats adopt it. The Democrats don't know any more about the apostrophe than you people do, but they could not afford to omit mention of it in their platform if it were already in the Republican platform. That would make it appear the Republicans are better educated than the Democrats, which they could not abide.

Congressman Hess: Nevertheless, if we leave it out of our platform the Democrats are not going to put it in theirs and give us a chance during the campaign to ask them what they know about it.

This seemed to be the settled conviction of the committee, and the plan was lost. We are to make another attempt at Frisco. No matter what happens, the fight shall go on and still on, as Joaquin Miller says.

For President—William Jennings Bryan.

For Vice President—Mary Pickford Fairchild.

Of course, there isn't any such person as Mary Pickford Fairchild. Inasmuch as there did prove to be such a person as Warren Gamaliel Harding, we are afraid the Republicans would have an advantage.

Bridge needed a good murder to take it out of namby-pambyism and put it in the same class with poker. It is really a good game, but poker has had the advantage of so many murders that until now there has been no hope of doing anything for bridge. Poker had this same difficulty, really getting its start when Hoyle was murdered.

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

AMERICA'S GOLDEN AGE.

PHILIP EBBS in Harper's for June.

I LOOK for a Golden Age of literature and art in America which shall be like our Elizabethan period, fresh and springlike, and rich in vitality and promise. I am bound to believe that out of the fusion of races in America, and out of their present period of wealth and power, and out of this new awakening to the problems of life outside their own country, there will come great minds, and artists, and leaders of thought, surpassing any that have yet revealed themselves. All our reading of history points to that revolution. The flowering time of America seems due to arrive, after its growing pains. Be that as it may, it is clear, at least, that the destiny of the American people is now marked out for the great mission of leading the world to a new phase of civilization. By the wealth they have, and by their power for good or evil, they have a controlling influence in the reshaping of the world after its convulsions. They cannot escape from that power, even though they shrink from its responsibility. Their weight thrown one way or the other will turn the scale of all the balance of the world's desires. People of destiny, they have the choice of arranging the fate of many peoples. By their action they may plunge the world into strife again or settle its peace.

PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION.

From the Christian Science Monitor.

PROPORTIONAL representation is a thing "not every fellow can understand." An acute politician who was asked what it was, admitted that he subscribed to the funds, but that he could not explain it; though he added, "It is a good thing." Someone "in the know" was asked to explain, and began: "Well, it is like this, you see." But no one ever does see the same likeness in things. Perhaps Lord Robert Cecil and Sir Frederick Banbury, or Mr. Joseph Devlin can make it plain, as they contend that it promotes good will and co-operation, elects the best men and women of all parties, and gives justice to all. The Irish Times and the Dublin Evening Telegraph (Freeman's Journal Edition) agree that the system of proportional representation has come to stay, and has established all the virtues that were claimed for this method of feeling the popular pulse, while the Irish Times (Belfast) declares that in a self-governed Ireland all popular contests should be decided on the same basis. So it is quite easy when you really know it, but you have got to know it first.

"HOME-BREW" PENALTIES.

From the United States Bulletin.

ALTHOUGH the prohibition laws have been in effect since 1920, many persons are in ignorance of the fact that the Government can tax violators of these laws heavily. Such taxes are separate and apart from the fines which may be imposed by the courts and have no connection with the prison sentences which may be given under the law. A person manufacturing, for instance, in violation of Federal and state laws, 10 gallons of distilled spirits might be liable, without even court proceedings, to maximum assessments of taxes and penalties amounting to $8124.25. The United States Government is determined to make prohibition violations so expensive they will in no wise be attractive or profitable.

The liability of the "bootlegger" or operator of a "blind tiger" for assessment of taxes "upon evidence," apart from any court proceedings, is also interesting. Such persons violating the Federal and state laws would be subject to the following maximum taxes and penalties: Five hundred dollars under the national prohibition act, $3000 under the revenue act of 1918, $50 under section 3244, Revised Statutes; $256.25 under section 3176, Revised Statutes, making a total of $3806.25.

Said the Lady to Larry O'Gorman by Holman Day

(SECOND INSTALLMENT.)

AFTER a little while the protectress lifted wet eyes and regarded the somber father over the daughter's shoulder. "Won't you listen to any reasons why you shouldn't do this awful thing?"

"It is not an awful thing for a girl to have a good home and a kind husband, mam'selle. Tomah Danah, who stands there, knows that he has not a roof over his head, nor a foot of land and no money in the bank. Some day, if he stays a good boy, he will have land and house and can choose a fine girl."

"If it's only money—listen to me—I have money!"

"Yes? Use it for yourself and among your own kind, mam'selle," retorted the governor, his pride touched.

He shoved his arm between Esther and Zarlona and took his daughter along with him when he strode away.

Nicolin halted.

"When does this wonderful wedding take place?"

"This foolish girl ran away on the day set for the wedding. So it will be for tomorrow night, before the priest in the chapel at Pattagamon."

The governor met her flaming gaze with the dignity of one who had triumphed.

"Where is Pattagamon?"

He pointed his finger. "Ten miles down the river."

Esther caught the sullen eye of Docite Carriveau and bobbed a curtsy that was a mere flash of deference. "I was wrong when I disputed your opinion of me, monsieur! I am cheeky! For I'm inviting myself to your wedding, Governor Nicolin, may I come?"

"It is for all, mam'selle! Our village is open. The word has gone out!"

"You're not wonderfully cordial, but I thank you for the invitation just the same." She put away her air that was half mockery, half defiance. "I don't really meant to be disrespectful or flippant, sir." She hastened to the girl and folded Zarlona's trembling hands between consoling palms. "I'll come to your wedding, dear!" she faltered.

After the sachem canoe had departed Esther sat down under the big tree and surveyed Tomah Danah. He stood for a time and gazed straight away at a a distant loom of the mountain range, as if his simple nature found a steadying influence in the contemplation of the serene heights.

Larry O'Gorman came whistling down the trail, followed by his men on their way back to the boss.

"Mr. O'Gorman, may I hire Tomah for the rest of the day? I must get back to the hotel."

Mr. O'Gorman searched all the surrounding landscape with his eyes and then looked up into the heavens as if in search of a maiden who might have acquired wings during his absence.

"Something wicked has happened. Her father is the governor of the Tarratines and he has come and taken her away with him."

"You may have Tomah, miss! And so the old man took the colleen?"

"Yes, sir. She is to be married tomorrow evening to a man named Docite Carriveau."

Larry had pulled off his hat when he had seen Miss Esther coming toward him. He slapped it back on his head. Then he took it off and bit into the brim.

"Marry-mar-mar-mar!" he growled, worrying the hat, pulling his head from side to side. "Marry Canuck Carriveau—that horn-snouted old parrakeet of a Quedaw? Two wives a-ready has he had—and one of 'em was the colleen he stole when he told her I'd been sluiced on the snubbing-slope at Misery Gore. Why he—"

He put on his hat. "Excuse me, miss! I'm going down and express meself to yon kingfisher on the popple stub. He'll understand! He has a way of language of his own when he dives and misses his minnow."

Boss O'Gorman hurried away.

Esther went to the Indian. "Tomah, Mr. O'Gorman says you may go as my guide."

"Yes."

"You may walk on, Tomah, and get the canoe ready. I'll follow you in a moment."

She walked to meet the returning boss.

"I feel better, miss, but only a bit! What I have said to the bird has been raw and rough and only in my own poor way on the spur o' the moment."

"I feel exactly as you do, Mr. O'Gorman! I indorse all that you said to the fish-bird!"

"Thank you, miss!" But Mr. O'Gorman's memory of what he had been saying caused him to shift his eyes from hers in considerable confusion.

"But of what use is talk?" Indignation surged up in the girl. "Men only talk these days! They take it out in talk! They allow talk to kill all the spirit that's in them. That old governor talked to Tomah—and Tomah wilted. O, for the spirit of young Lochinvar."

"Yes'm," meekly agreed Boss O'Gorman, though he had not the least glimmer of knowledge about this Lochinvar person. But he had a standing of his own to preserve in the estimation of this sophisticated young lady from the city. "I make so bold as to say that the lad would know what to do."

"In his case talk would be of some use, Mr. O'Gorman! One word to him and such a dreadful sacrifice of a sweet girl would not happen."

Esther ran away. "Isn't it a pity that Lochinvar hasn't a hand in this affair, Mr. O'Gorman? I'd say a word to him and he'd be the man for me," she called over her shoulder.

Larry wrinkled his forehead and narrowed his eyes and watched her out of sight, rubbing his ear. Nils Uppling came trudging down to dip a drink of water from the stream.

"Ay ban tank I don't know dat feller, sir!"

A few tailenders of the crew were loading themselves at the pile. The boss noted that they represented a fair assortment of nationalities and he went to them and asked whether anybody in the gang knew Lochinvar. All shook their heads.

But the matter of the identity of this Mister Lochinvar, spoken of so highly by a young city lady who undoubtedly knew what she was talking about and who needed such an agent in her business, had become an obsession in the case of Larry O'Gorman by the time he had finished his supper and was settled on the deacon seat with his pipe going full blast.

"Who knows a laddybuck, name o' Lochinvar?" he shouted.

"The braw laddie, Lochinvar!" scoffed old Angus Bain. "Next I'll hear, will be somebody speerin' who is Jock o' Hazeldean?"

"If you knew aught, Old Oatmeal Cake, out with it!"

"Why, there's a fine bit of portry about the young Lochinvar," the red-headed cookee shouted, with the haste of youth to display superior knowledge.

"Ay, by Sir Walter's ain hand 'tis writ," said old Angus.

"I've been too busy with me own poems to bother me head about the scribblings of others," stated Larry, defending his lack of general information. "Cookee, you have a memory for my songs—your head and your mouth are full of 'em. So be, do ye know the jingle of the other pote?"

"Sure! I used to speak it for a piece in school."

Through all the wide border his steed was the
He rode all alone—and he—'"

The cookee gulped and paused and rolled his hands in his apron.

"'He rode all alone—and he rode all alone—'"

Angus Bain rose and beat his fist down on his palm. His face was ridged by the furrows of indignation. "Ut's sacrilege," he shouted. "Nowt else!"

"Well, then, kiss it with your mouth—and let's have it!"

"I hae too much vener-ration for the bard to keep his noble lines in my noddle—along wi' the tillyvally sculch thot's aye yammered in my ears."

"Ye're not making riference to aught that the lad has sung of my songs past-back, eh?" was Larry's baleful query.

"Ut was not in my thoct, sir!" But old Angus blinked hard and looked away.

"I'm glad it was not. I'd be losing me respict for the caution of a Scot, that's always the boast o' the tribe o' ye! D'ye know this Lochinvar, that's the point?"

"Eh! The braw laddie? Who does not know? Though I canna tirl the varse—"

"Never mind the varse! It's not so much! As it was running it's not half a pome, without a chorus. The story, man! The story! I have need of it. Waste no word!"

O'Gorman was on his feet, wagging his forefinger with the threatening violence that always drove his men to quick action.

"Then ye shall hae it! The laird o' Netherby was making sair fash for young Lochinvar—for the laird was giving his dochter to a cogging knave o' nae guid. Into the wedding at the laird's hall came young Lochinvar, and he saw the tears in the lassie's een, and he spied the carle of a limmer who was waiting for the lily white hand o' her, and then the lad gave her a touch on the ar-rm and a word in her ear—"

"Now I remember," piped the cookee—but O'Gorman made a vicious palm swoop that sent the boy ducking.

"On with the yarn, Angus!"

"And awa' he flew wi' her on his lightsome naggie, and all the swankie chasers couldna fall foul o' them, and so they lived happy aye after!"

"There! There ye have it!" proclaimed O'Gorman. "That way it should be, and a happy end."

"Won't you let me speak off what I remember, now that I have had the jog?" implored the cookee, taking advantage of the boss' enthusiasm.

"Ye may!"

"'There was racing and chasing on Cannobie lee,
But the lost bride of Netherby ne'er did they see.
So daring in love and—tum-tum—in war,
Have ye e'er heard of gallant like young Lochinvar?'"

The boss crawled into his bunk and lulled himself to sleep by muttering the last lines.

"And so that's what she had in her mind when she said the word to me, eh?"

The cookee's morning song while he rattled the pans in the dingle fayed with O'Gorman's waking dreams.

"'—and sure I bent me knee,
'Cause I do whate'er a ladee says when she says
a thing to me.'"

His men found much abstraction in the manner of Larry O'Gorman all the forenoon. But when Esther marched down the carry path just before noon O'Gorman came out of his preoccupation. Tomah walked behind her, carrying a canoe on his shoulders like a tortoise bearing its shell. And he was exhibiting a tortoise-like sluggishness in his gait.

"Of that young Lochinvar ye were speaking!" exploded Larry. "So daring in love and a divil in war—ye were right about him, miss."

But the maiden showed no interest in the hero she had vaunted the day before. Her forehead was puckered with a frown. She broke in on O'Gorman impatiently. "I want to go to the wedding of Zarlona Nicolin. I have been invited. I'm taking along Mrs. Jocelyn." She directed Larry's attention to a matron, whom he had not noticed in his absorption in Miss Virabell. "But Tomah says he cannot guide us beyond here."

"I must work for the Great Telos."

"I give ye the day off!"

"I cannot go to Pattagamon," declared the Indian.

Larry turned to Esther. "You'll have a guide to take you to the wedding, never ye fear. I order ye to go, Tomah Danah!"

"I cannot go."

"Who is bossing this crew, me man?"

The Indian shifted his gaze from the scowling overlord to the ground, after a lingering and piteous appeal with his eyes.

"Please, will you walk aside with me for a moment, Mr. O'Gorman?" Esther invited.

"Of course you understand why he doesn't want to go, sir," said Esther when the two were out of earshot.

Larry expressed himself promptly as to Tomah's quality as a Lochinvar.

"O, that's not it!" declared the girl disconsolately. "There's no more of that spirit left in this cut and dried world. I'm not dragging him down there to make him reckless or miserable. But I have something to say to Governor Susep Nicolin. I'm hoping that I'll find him in a more reasonable state of mind. I need Tomah with me when I talk."

"I'm always strong meself to play a hunch, miss."

"I don't dare to explain my plan to Tomah just yet, Mr. O'Gorman. I'm finding Indians such obstinate creatures!" she complained.

Mr. O'Gorman fondled his ear. He had discovered, according to his own appraisal of the situation, a great deal of significance in the earnest stare she was giving him.

"But I must have your help, Mr. O'Gorman. You understand!"

"I have a wit of me own that has never gone back on me in a pinch," admitted Larry complacently. "I'm on! Bless ye, I'm in, too! L'ave it to me!"

Esther was bewildered by this headlong spirit of co-operation.

"We have come to an understanding, and I take the main burden on meself. When a lady has used her head, it's for a man to use his hands. Niver ye fear! And I have reasons of me own."

"Make me the humble Umbrella which shieldeth him from the wind and the rain and the storm, and protecteth him whem the sun beateth down upon him—but may be 'stood in the corner' when it is not wanted.

"Make me as the Hot-water Bottle, which cometh to his aid in times of suffering, yet doth not follow him about urging him to wear his overshoes, and asking continuously if he loveth it.

"Yea, verily, verily, give me the voice of a dove, the eyes of a houri, the smile of a Pollyanna, the blindness of a well-trained butler, the sweetness of pink ice cream, the ambition of a door mat, the faith of a collie dog, the patience of Griselda, the originality of an echo, the wisdom of the sphinx and the mystery of a Ouija board, that I may be ALL things that a man requireth of ONE woman!

"And when thou hast endowed me with these Virtues, oh Fate, lead me among men, wheresoever thou wilt, and I shall take my CHOICE!

"For, all men will be unto me as one man—and that one Wax!"

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

An Honest Member of the Rat Family.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

An honest name is worth far more
—Old Mother Nature.

EVERYONE, even Prickly Porky, was on hand to hear more about the Rat family, for there wasn't one who wasn't personally acquainted with one or more members of it.

"Yesterday," began Old Mother Nature, "I told you that today I would tell you about some of the cousins of Robber the Rat who are not bad. But first I must tell you about one who while not as bad as Robber is none too good, I am sorry to say, and so isn't thought well of. He lives way down in the Sunny South and his name is Little Robber the Cotton Rat. Though small for a Rat, being little larger than Striped Chipmunk, he looks the little savage that he is.

"He has short legs and is rather thick-bodied, looking much like an overgrown Meadow Mouse with a long tail. The latter is not naked like Robber's, but the hair on it is very short and thin. In color he is yellowish-brown above the whitish underneath. His fur is longer and coarser than that of other native Rats.

"He lives in old fields, along ditches and hedges, and in similar places where is plenty of cover to hide him from his enemies. He burrows in the ground and usually has a nest of dry grass there, though often in summer his nest is on the surface of the ground. He does not live in and around the homes of men as Robber the Brown Rat does, but he does a great deal of damage by stealing grain in the fields. He eats all kinds of grain, many seeds and meat when he can get it. He is very destructive to eggs and young of ground-nesting birds. He has a bad temper and will fight savagely. He has several large families in the course of a year. Foxes, Owls and Hawks are his chief enemies.

"But there are other members of the Rat family far more interesting and quite worth knowing. One of these is as honest as Robber is dishonest. He is Trader the Wood Rat, in some parts of the Far West called the Pack Rat and in the mountains known as the Mountain Rat. Wherever he is found his habits are much the same, and make him one of the most interesting of all the little people who wear fur.

"Next to Jerry Muskrat, he is the largest of the native Rats—that is; of the Rats who belong in this country. He is about two-thirds the size of Robber the Brown Rat. Though he is of the same general shape, so that you would know at once that he is related to Robber, he is in all other ways wholly unlike that outcast. His fur is thick and soft—almost as soft as that of a squirrel. His fairly long tail is covered with hair. Indeed, some members of his branch of the family have tails almost as bushy as a Squirrel's. His coat is soft gray and yellowish brown above, and underneath is pure white or light buff. His feet are white. He has round ears and big black eyes, with none of the ugliness in them that you always see in the eyes of Robber. He has long whiskers and plenty of them."

"But why is he called Trader?" asked Peter Rabbit impatiently.

"Patience, Peter, patience;" chided Old Mother Nature. "I'm coming to that. He is called Trader because his greatest delight is in trading. He is a born trader if ever there was one. He is honest. He doesn't steal as other members of his family do, but trades. That is, he puts something back in place of what he takes. It may be little chips or pebbles or anything else handy, but whatever it is, it is something to replace what he has taken. You see, he means to pay for what he takes. He just loves to trade."

LOVE LETTERS OF THE CZARINA ◆ TO THE CZAR IN WAR TIME

By ISAAC DON LEVINE.

Article 26—Czarina Fights Duma.

Alix Seeks to Steel Her Husband Against Demands of Duma for Constitutional Government.

Thinks Ill of Trepov's Counsels and Wishes She Might Be Able to Hang Him.

WHEN the Duma and the nobility took up the fight for constitutional government and against the dark forces, the notorious "black hundred" organization came to the aid of the Czarina and Rasputin. Its official name was the "Union of the Russian People," and in the last days of the monarchy it numbered only several hundred members. Yet to the Empress "their voice is Russia's as against that of the Duma and society. She takes up the cause of the "black hundred" sheet, the Russkoye Znama, which was barred from the army by the supreme command because its editor, Dubrovin, favored a separate peace with Germany. And she rages against the moderate and even conservative statesmen. "I should hang Trepov, the Prime Minister, for his bad counsels," she exclaims. Prince Lvov, Alexander Gutchkov, Paul Miliukov and Gen. Polivanov she would exile to Siberia. Gen. Brusilov, now reported at the head of the Red army, she calls a fool for his favoring a cabinet responsible to the Duma.

"Be Peter the Great, John (Ivan) the Terrible, Emperor Paul. Crush them all under you," is the naive command of the Czarina to her pitiful husband. "If in battle you had to meet the enemy, you would never waver, and go forth like a lion, be it now in the battle against the small handful of brutes and republicans, be the master and all will bow down to you." The Czar apparently took all this punishment as a matter of course.

From the letter of Dec. 28, written 30 hours before the assassination of Rasputin, we learn that the monk after a long period of seclusion in his home, appeared on the streets of Petrograd again on Dec. 27. It will be recalled that Rasputin had been warned many times of an attempt on his life and it was only by a trick that he was lured from his home on the night of his death to the palace of Prince Yusupov, where he met his fate.

Tomorrow the last installment of this correspondence will appear, ending with the Czarina's letter of the morning following Rasputin's assassination.

Fighting the Duma.

"Tsarskoye, Selo, Dec. 14 (27), 1916.

"My beloved Sweetheart:

"7 degrees of frost and thick snow. Scarcely slept this night again, remaining till luncheon in bed as all aches still and have a slight chill. Such loving thanks for your dear letter. Trepov was very wrong in putting off the Duma now and wishing to call it beginning of January again, the result being (which no, Rodzianko and all counted upon) that nobody goes home and all will remain, fomenting, boiling in Petrograd. He came to you meekly, as then was sure to succeed with you, had he screamed as usual, you would have got angry and not agreed. Lovy, our Friend begged you to shut it 14th—Ania and I wrote it to you—and you see, they have time to make trouble about forbidding the 'nions' to unite, you got Kalinin's paper through Voyeikov yesterday. He also wrote to Trepov begging it should be behind closed doors. Trepov never deigned to answer him—so he wrote to Rodzianko, who did as Kalinin wished, only, of course, said by Kalinin's wish, toward Trepov would not take it upon himself. Whatever you like, Trepov behaves now as a traitor and is false as a cat—do not trust him, he concocts everything with Rodzianko together, it's only too well known.

"That paper I sent you yesterday, Rodzianko himself wrote, he has no right to print and distribute your conversation and I doubt it being literal as he always lies, if not exact then be the Emperor and at once, have his courtdress taken from him, don't ask Frederick's or Trepov's advice, both are frightened, though old man would formally have understood the necessity, now he is old. Already one spread in town (Duma) that the nobility in Bobr did not receive me, and when they read that we even drank tea together they became crushed. About Kaufman one is very pleased—you see, your firmness is appreciated by the good—so easy to continue when once begun—forgive me tormenting you with these letters—but only read the two telegrams I wired to you, you will again see what the right say—and they turn to me to beg you.

"If you hear from Kalinin again and he begs to close the Duma—do it, don't stick to the 17th, time is money, the moment golden, and if dawdled over difficult, impossible to catch up and mend again. I do hope it's not true Nikolasha comes for the 17th—formerly it went perfectly without Vorontsov—that has nothing to do with the Caucasus, our front here. Keep him away, evil genius. And he will mix into affairs and speak about Wassiltchkoff. Be Peter the Great, John the Terrible, Emperor Paul, crush them under you —. now don't laugh, naughty one—but I long to see you so with all those men who try to govern you—and it must me the contrary. * * * And here the contrast, telegram from the 'Union of Russian People' asking me to give over things to you. One is rotten, weak, immoral society, the other healthy right thinking devoted subjects, and to these one must listen, their voice is Russia's and not society or the Duma's. One sees the right so clearly they know the Duma ought to be closed and to them Trepov won't listen. If one does not listen to these, they will take things into their own hands to save you and more harm, unwillingly, may be done—than a simple word from you to close the Duma, but till February, if earlier they will all stick here.

Would Hang Trepov.

"I could hang Trepov for his bad counsels—and now after the papers Kalinin sent Vayeikov with those vile, utterly revolutionary representatives of Moscow nobility and 'Unions' which have been discussed at the Duma, how can one keep them even one day on still. I hate false Trepov, who does all to harm you, backed up by Makarov. Had I but got you here again—all was at once calmer and had you returned as Greogry in 5 days, you would have put order, would have rested your weary head upon wifey's breast and Sunny would have given you strength and you would have listened to me and not to Trepov. God will help I know, but you must be firm. Disperse the Duma at once when you told Trepov 17th, you did not know what they were up to.

"I should have quietly and with a clear conscience before the whole of Russia have sent Lvov to Siberia (one did so for far less grave acts), taken Samarin's rank away (he signed that paper from Moscow), Miliukov, Gutchkov and Polivanov also to Siberia. It is war and at such a time interior war is high treason, why don't you look at it like that, I really cannot understand. I am but a woman, but my soul and brain tell me it would be the saving of Russia, they sin far worse than anything the Sukhomlinovs ever did. Forbid Brusilov, etc., when they come to touch any political subjects; fool, who wants a responsible cabinet, as Georgie writes. Remember even Mr. Philips said one dare not give constitution, as it would be your and Russia's ruin, and all true Russians say the same. Months ago I told Sturmer about Shvedov to be a member of the Council of the Empire to have them and good Maklakov in, they will stand bravely for us. I know I worry you, ah, would I not far, far rather only write letters of love, tenderness and caresses of which my heart is so full—but my duty as a wife and mother and Russia's mother obliges me to say all to you, blessed by our Friend.

"Sweetheart, Sunshine of my life, if in battle you had to meet the enemy, you would never waver and go forth like a lion, be it now in the battle against the small handful of brutes and republicans, be the Master and all will bow down to you. Do you think I should fear, ah no, today I have had an officer cleared out from Marie and Anastacia's hospital, because he allowed himself to mock at our journey, pretending Protopopov bought the people to receive us so well, the doctors who heard it raged—you see Sunny in her small things is energetic and in big ones as much as you wish—we have been placed by God on a throne and we must keep it firm and give it over to our Son untouched—if you keep that in mind you will remember to be the Sovereign, and how much easier for an autocratic sovereign than one who has sworn the Constitution.

"Beloved One, listen to me, yes, you know your old true Girly. Do not fear the old woman recluse said, and therefore I write without fear to my agoowee one. Now the girlies want their tea, they came frozen back from their drive. I kiss you and hold you tightly clasped to my breast caress you, love you, long for you, can't sleep without you—bless you. Ever your Own Wifey."

DISHWASHING HINTS

MANY minutes will be saved in dish washing if cold water is turned into pans and pots immediately after they are emptied and allowed to stand until washing time.

Never put dishes with egg on or egg beater in hot water; it sets the egg.

When cooking a custard or heating milk, rinse pan in water before using and the milk will not stick to the bottom.

When breakfast cereal adheres to the pan in cooking, pour cold water into the pan after emptying and set on a hot stove for a few minutes.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague

DO THE MOVIES UNDERMINE THE MORALS?

Despite their gentle bringing up, the Borgias, in their time,
Had few, if any, equals in the higher walks of crime.
They practiced theft and forgery, and arson now and then,
They always kept around the house a thousand strong-arm men;
And woe betide the hapless guest they asked around to dine,
And gave, to wash his dinner down, a stoup of poisoned wine!

The Borgias' hearts were wicked,
They dearly loved to slay;
Their craft supplied a homicide
To Florence every day.
What made them so inhuman—
So base—do you suppose?
They never spent a single cent
On moving picture shows!

Who plotted bloody murders on a most extensive scale.
The fiendish ingenuity with which he plied his wiles
Spread pallid terror roundabout for miles and miles and miles.
He was a bit too bad in fact, and that's the reason why
They hanged him on the gibbet he had built for Mordecai.

Haman was a scoundrel,
Haman was a crook,
With hands and brains, exceeding pains
In plotting crimes he took.
Yet one cannot imagine
How Haman got that way,
For not a plot he ever got
At any picture play.

Sweet and Low.

It is not good that a man should live without a woman in his heart. And on that particular spring day—one of blue and gold— I bore a strangely sorrowful heart because of my utter loneliness. I sat at my window and stared out without seeing anything.

There was no one in the house but the landlady, myself, and the landlady's daughter—a beautiful brief thing, whom I called the "Pongee Princess" by reason of her blonde hair, an acquisition precipitated through a reckless use of peroxide.

She was calm, pretty and silent. The more I thought of her the more she intrigued my fancy. I remembered she was downstairs at this very minute rearranging the pillows on the davenport that seemed to have spent a sleepless night. I thought to myself: "Ah! if she were only here by my side that she might pass her cool white hands over my eyes, my depression would be lifted as if by magic."

I was interrupted by a timid knock on the door. I was startled for a moment. It was foolish to think that—and yet—

I called eagerly: "Come in."

Trials of a "Jazz" Artist

On the occasion of his daughter's coming of age, a well-known merchant gave a dance for which the jazz band of the local music hall was engaged. During a brief interval for refreshment, even the grinning features of the negro conductor displayed expression of dismay on being approached confidentially by the merchant.

"My daughter is going to sing 'Two Eyes of Gray' in English," he explained, "and as it is a very pathetic song, I want your band to put a great deal of feeling in the accompaniment."—Exquella (Barcelona).

Needless.

"Can your little baby brother talk yet?" a kindly neighbor inquired of a small lad.

"No, he can't talk, and there ain't no reason why he should talk," was the disgusted reply. "What does he want to talk for, when all he has to do is yell a while to get everything in the house that's worth having?"—New York Evening Post.

Not Her Idea of Heaven.

The conversation around the long dinner table ended, as do most conversations nowadays, with the subject of spiritualism. The guests and the members of the family gave their opinions as to whether or not the dead could communicate with the living, but it remained for "Sweet Sixteen" to present the only original thought on the subject.

"It's hard enough now for me to keep up my correspondence," she said. "When I die I want a rest."—New York Evening Sun.

As Usual.

"Oh, Mr. Mark, please buy a ticket to our entertainment! It is for a most worthy cause, I assure you."

"Certainly, Mrs. Clatter! And what is that cause?"

"Paying the expenses of the entertainment we gave last week for a worthy cause."—Kansas City Star.

A Popular Author.

"It took me nearly 10 years to learn that I couldn't write stories."

"I suppose you gave it up then?"

"No, no. By that time I had a reputation established and didn't have to."—Kansas Brown Bull.

Unqualified Indorsement.

"Are you in favor of votes for women?"

"Why ask such a question at this late day?" inquired Senator Sorghum in return. "How can a statesman hope to get 'em if he isn't in favor of 'em?"—Washington Star.

Civilian Clothes.

"Oh, she didn't mind those so much, but she drew the line at the fashionable clothes city girls wear in private life."—Youngstown Telegram.

Meeting of Corporation.

Councillor Jones: Owing to the urgency of the matter, I propose we have the cemetery extended as soon as possible, and have the ground consecrated ready for use.

Councillor Muggins—I rise to second the proposal, and in regard to having the ground consecrated—well, it's 10 years since I had my back yard done with it, and it's still wearing splendidly.—London Telegraph.

A Costly Sneeze.

"Well, that certainly was the limit," said the Customs Inspector.

"What now?" asked his friend.

"Why, a woman tried to smuggle in some pearls in an elephant's trunk."

"And you examined the trunk?"

To Be or Not to Be.

I'd rather be a Could Be
If I could not be an Are;
For a Could Be is a Maybe,
With a chance of touching par.
I'd rather be a Has Been
Than a Might Have Been by far;
For a Might Have Been has never been,
But a Has was once an Are.
—Stanford Chaparral.

Barber-ous.

Deep gloom and difficulty, the experiment required mineral wool. He scratched his head and muttered: "What the h—— is mineral wool?" Then the idea dawned. He set out to shear a hydraulic ram.—Mass. Tech. Voo Doo.

Entertainment.

"Fine," replied Jud Tuntkins. "The singin' doesn't amount to much yet, but some of the arguments are full of first-class repartee."—Washington Star.

300 RUSSIAN BRIDES OF SOLDIERS IN MANILA

By the Associated Press.

MANILA, May 20.—Three hundred or more Russian "war brides," who have come here from Siberia with their American soldier husbands, are to be sent to the United States by the Government as soon as transportation is available.

These brides come from every station in life from the peasant girl to the college graduate, and a number had been accustomed to the luxuries of life before war and revolution drove them from their homes.

Their experiences in Manila, probably have been a disappointment to most of them, as their soldier husbands on their meager pay of $36 a month have been unable to support a family, house rent and food prices having almost doubled here within the last year.

To prevent these Russian girls from actually suffering, the Red Cross and other charitable organizations have provided them with shelter and food.

They are willing to work, but having no knowledge of English or Spanish, they are unable to find employment in any of the stores of Manila and native men and boys are preferred for house servants.

After several weeks of investigation as to the best disposition to make of the war brides and their soldier husbands, the army authorities decided that they, with few exceptions, should be sent to the United States and there distributed among the army camps and posts, where quarters are available for married enlisted men. These the Department of the Phillipines is not able to provide. Only those enlisted men with wives, who have an income in addition to their army pay, will be permitted to remain in the Philippines.

Some of the Russian girls who were disappointed in not obtaining soldier husbands at Vladivostok, disguised as American soldiers stowed away on transports and came to Manila, so eager were they to escape from the turmoil and suffering which have prevailed in Siberia almost since the beginning of the war. These stowaways were turned over to the authorities here to be deported to the country whence they came. Several of them were married at the pier while awaiting to be put on board a transport for the voyage back to Vladivostok, which made them American citizens and gave them the right to remain here.

One of these stowaways, clad in male attire, when about to be placed on board a transport for deportation, with several thousand Russian rubles in her hands, appealed to the crowd at the pier for some man to marry her and save her life from what she said would be certain death if she were returned to Siberia. The Russian money which is now of little or no value, appeared to have no influence toward bringing forth a husband for the woman, and she was sent back to Siberia.

Prices Still Falling in France.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, June 17.—Prices of various commodities in every day use continue to decline in this city and newspapers state that coffee costs less in Paris than in Havre and less in Havre than in Brazil. Cotton, which for several days was firm, has again undergone an important decline in Havre.

City News in Brief

MISCELLANEOUS

WILLIAM VICTOR TODD AND MISS Leone Baumeister, both of St. Louis, were married yesterday at Jerseyville. They said they were supposed to be on a boat excursion.

THREE HUNDRED BOYS, MEMBERS OF the North Side Y. M. C. A., will be taken in automobiles on an all-day outing at the Chain of Rocks Saturday. A program of athletic contests and games will be held. The North Side "Y" boys' swimming team will hold a swimming contest by telegraph tonight with the Dauville, Ill., team.

POLICE ITEMS

BURTON THOMAS, PROPRIETOR OF A confectionery at 2830 Olive street, went to the rear of his store to investigate a noise last night and on re-entering the store saw a negro boy running out with his cash box containing $45. The noise at the rear had been made by two other negro boys pelting the back of the place with rocks, apparently to attract his attention.

A BURGLAR IN THE HOME OF BEN Lippman, 1424A Biddle street, took $100, a check for $80.41 and a watch from Lippman's trousers and a watch from the clothes of Harry Landis, a roomer, while both were asleep last night.

JAMES K. CARR, 5561 WATERMAN AVenue, yesterday asked detectives to investigate the theft of a la valliere set with diamonds and valued at $400 which was stolen from a dresser in his apartment between June 4 and 15.

MRS. WALTER SCOUFI, 3958 LINDELL boulevard, left a handbag containing $90, baggage checks and keys in a Pennsylvania railroad coach when she arrived at Union Station last night. Returning a few seconds later she found the purse had been stolen, she told the police.

BURGLARS IN THE HOME OF MRS. Dennis Blandford, 1443 Benton street in her absence yesterday stole jewelry valued at $340.

MRS. ERNEST C. KLIPSTEIN OF 6244 Washington boulevard yesterday asked detectives to help her recover a diamond bar pin set with 7 large diamonds which disappeared from her waist while she was shopping downtown Monday.

NATHANIEL L. FARHA, 2056A LAFAYette avenue, an interpreter, reported to the police last night that "sometime in March" burglars invaded his home and stole a case of old whisky he valued at $300.

MRS. EDNA HALE, 5067 VERNON AVenue, awakened at 3 a. m. today by a noise in her bedroom, aroused her husband, Eugene, who got up in time to hear the front door slam. Investigation revealed a burglar had taken a purse from Hale's trousers in the bedroom and a purse from another room. They contained $7 and some Masonic receipts.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble

Gas and wind in the stomach, accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of so-called "acid indigestion." Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive, and is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

As we have no information bureau, it is impossible to answer queries by mail or telephone. Query for Sunday must be mailed a week beforehand.

EVERY-DAY.—The chances would be about 10 to 1.

ONE INTERESTED.—Apply to the Board of Education for the information you desire.

G. O. P.—The Democratic National Convention met earlier than the Republican National Convention in 1888 and 1896.

J. M. C.—Robert Louis Stevenson is the author of the line: "Desire is a wonderful telescope, and Pisgah the best observatory."

MR. YUNG MAN.—The lowest temperature in this section last winter was on Dec. 10, 1919, when it was 1 degree above zero.

N. C. C.—"White Lies" is a novel written by Charles Reade and the title was changed by his publishers to "The Double Marriage."

R. C.—Confucius is the originator of the following quotation: "If you would know the character of a nation, study the music it practises."

R. JAMES.—The least you can register with a micrometer is one ten thousandth of an inch. An automatic gun fires faster than a pump gun, as the mechanism on an automatic is almost instantaneous.

C. S.—The longest novel in the world belongs to Japan. Its author is Kiong Te Bakin. He commenced writing it in 1852, and published it volume by volume as it came out over a period of years. The complete copy weighs 130 pounds.

H. E. HOERMANN.—The great Italian architect of the fifteenth century, Leone Battista Alberti (1404-1472) quoting from his Latin texts, wrote the following words: "A common thing with the ignorant is to despise what they do not understand."

D. T.—Spenser's "Faerie Queene" is easily the longest poem in existence, even as it stands, and had he attained his object and reached the twenty-fourth book, no other poet could have compared. As it stands it is only a quarter of the original plan.

AMBITION.—To enter West Point you must secure an appointment from your Senator or Congressman and be capable of passing the entrance examination. For further information write to the Superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.

Z. B.—Marion Harland is the pseudonym under which Mrs. Mary Virginia Terhune (born 1831), a Virginian of New England ancestry, became known for a number of short stories, novels and miscellaneous matter. Her fiction is of the romantic type. Some of her stories are: "The Hidden Path," "Moss-Side," "Miriam," "Husks" and "A Gallant Fight." She has been editorially connected with a number of juvenile magazines.

LEGAL INFORMATION.

(Prepared by a Member of the St. Louis Bar Association.)

F. W. S.—You do not have to see the Justice in person to appeal your case.

A. B. C.—We are sorry that your question is not clear. Please write again, as clearly as possible.

GOTT.—See answer to Joe O. F., which appeared with the Legal Information in this column on May 29.

J. B. B.—We do not know how you can have the firm restrained from sending you their advertising matter.

A READER.—Let parties 1 and 2 fight out their rights to possession of the premises. Report the case of tuberculosis to the Health Commissioner.

H. A. M.—You can sue the party who agreed to buy your property, paying earnest money, for his failure to perform his part of the contract.

DUBIOUS.—After the death of the uncle each of the nephews would probably have been entitled to 1-15 of the Ohio land; but the Virginia land would probably be divided into quarters, one for the descendants of each brother or sister. You should consult a lawyer.

X. X. X.—The legality of the notice depends on whether the rent day is in fact the first or fifteenth. If they have been paying rent on the fifteenth, you can give them notice on or before June 14, to vacate July 15. If they have been paying on the first, you can only give them notice to vacate Aug. 1.

E. A. G.—The operation of the Workmen's Compensation Law has been suspended pending the decision of the Missouri Supreme Court, which is expected soon. Under the law the girl would be entitled to 2-3 of her wages for the time she was incapacitated, plus compensation at the same rate for 40 weeks, but not more than $15 per week.

MEDICAL QUESTIONS.

(Answers prepared by a physician of authority. Health and sanitation questions of public interest only will be considered. Diagnoses or treatment of individual cases will not be given. Questions that cannot be publicly discussed, if showing evidences of sincerity, will be answered when accompanied by stamped envelope.)

MRS. L. F. J.—Please repeat your question, inclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

J. M. HOWE.—Crossed eyes are remedied by operation, often also by glasses. We would advise consulting an oculist.

20-YEAR READER OF THE P.-D.—You might procure a breast pump sold in drug stores. Use this daily and pull out with the finger tips. Persistency in this will likely develop them. No external remedy to be applied will serve.

MUCH OBLIGED.—The first noticeable symptoms of the disease are manifested about from eight to 14 days after exposure, when a sore develops, on the order of a pimple, hard, and as a rule, not painful. In one to two weeks a rash appears, flat and red, like measles. At this time there may also be sore throat, sore mouth and enlarged glands.

Myocarditis is a condition of the heart muscle in which the normal substance is more or less replaced by fibroid tissue, either localized or diffused. It is similar to fatty infilteration. The symptoms are those of dilatation of the heart, including embarrassed breathing. This is often so severe that the patient cannot lie down. There may also be palpitation, with small, frequent and irregular pulse, or the pulse may be arbnormally slow. Also there may be oppression in the chest with attacks of faintness, general dropsy, feeble digestion and scanty urine with albumin. There may also be brief periods of unconsciousness and various degrees of paralysis resembling brain clot pressure. The treatment is in treating the cause and proper hygienic management. Over eating, over drinking and over exertion must be corrected. Outdoor life, bathing and massage are important. Iodide of potash is the main drug relied on. Digitalis and nitroglycerine are also used. Locomotor Ataxia cannot be cured, but it may be arrested. It involves destruction of the spinal cord, and destroyed tissue cannot be replaced. These cases, almost always syphilitic, are often very favorably influenced by anti-syphilitic treatment. We do not think Chiropractors can cure or benefit such cases.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE BY CENSUS BUREAU

Total 1920 Figures for Cities and Towns Being Compiled Rapidly.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The 1920 population of 169 of the 229 cities and towns which in 1910 had more than 25,000 people, has been announced by the Census Bureau. Good progress also has been made in total population of the States.

Of the 50 cities which had more than 100,000 population in 1910, only 12 remain whose 1920 figures have not been announced. These are: Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit, Kansas City, Mo.; Providence, Rochester, New Haven, Birmingham, Richmond, Va.; Omaha, Fall River and Grand Rapids.

Twelve cities have advanced into the 100,000 class of those thus far announced. Arranged in the order of their size they are: Akron, San Antonio, Dallas, Hartford, Youngstown, O.; Springfield, Mass.; Trenton, N. J.; Salt Lake City, Camden, N. J.; Norfolk, Va.; Wilmington, Del., and Kansas City, Kan.

Of the 59 cities having from 50,000 to 100,000 population in 1910, the 1920 population of all but 12 has been announced. These are: New Bedford, Mass.; Reading, Pa.; Des Moines, Yonkers, N. Y.; Houston, Troy, N. Y.; Fort Worth, Savannah, Ga.; Oklahoma City, Charleston, S. C.; Holyoke, Mass., and South Bend, Ind.

Twenty-six cities announced have advanced into the 50,000 to 100,000 class. Population of only 36 of the 120 cities having between 25,000 and 50,000 in 1910 remain to be announced, and 47 cities having less than 25,000 10 years ago have thus far advanced into the 25,000 to 50,000 class, while one, Clinton, Ia., has shown a decrease and dropped below 25,000.

PAPER PULP REPORTED MADE FROM THE FIBER OF COTTON

Virginia Company Claims New Process and Will Start Manufacture Soon.

By the Associated Press.

PETERSBURG, Va., June 17.—After experiments of over three months, the Stamscott Co. of Hopewell, announced yesterday that a new process of making paper pulp from cotton fiber had been developed, and that manufacture of the pulp in quantities would be started soon.

EACH $100 SHARE of Union Electric Preferred Stock

is backed by MORE than $100 worth of State-appraised, State-regulated, income-producing public service property, maintained always in good condition.

The $7 a year of cash dividends on each $100 share, payable $1.75 every three months, are assured by ample earnings.

Union Electric's dividend earnings are derived from the sale of electric light, heat and power service in the city of St. Louis and five adjoining counties, at rates based, with the State's approval, upon actual cost including a yearly fair return on investment.

Issuance and sale of the $1,000,000 of preferred stock now offered to the general public was authorized by the State, to finance the growth of the property for the public service.

This is one of very few 7 per cent preferred stocks now selling at par anywhere in the United States. It is selling at par because it is worth par. It is worth par because it combines the safety of a good bond with the higher earning power of a first-class preferred stock.

A good many investors outside of Union Electric's operating territory are taking advantage of this chance to buy shares of ownership in Greater St. Louis' basic light, heat and power industry.

PRICE: $100 a share for cash; $102 on a ten-payment plan, under which buyers draw 5 per cent interest on installment payments, and can withdraw all payments, WITH INTEREST, any time before the final installment is paid.

SALES OFFICES: Room 201 Union Electric Building, 12th and Locust streets, St. Louis, and Union Electric's offices in Franklin, Jefferson, Perry, St. Charles and St. Louis counties.

MAIL ORDERS: Bank draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order should be sent with mail orders. Address: Securities Department, Union Electric Building, St. Louis, Mo., and make all remittances payable [illegible] Electric Light & Power Company. Prompt delivery of shares will be made by registered mail.
